H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,

THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

LAST OPPORTUNITY FOR GREAT SAVINGS!

NEXT WEEK will mark the close for the unusually low prices on much merchandise in the various departments of our store. Our aim is to carry over to next season as little goods as possible, and next week the prices on remainders of stock and remnants here and there will be slaughtered mercilessly.

MILLINERY!

READY-TRIMMED HATS FOR LESS THAN HALF PRICE. We have some winter weather ahead and a new, fresh looking Hat to finish the season with would be just the thing. You will be surprised to see the Hat and the price together.

Clearance Sale of SHOES!

Did you ever get a pair of our $1.00 sale Shoes? We have (16) sixteen pairs left from the sale only, in sizes 2½ and 3. If you can wear these sizes, come in quick and get a $3.50 value for only $1.00.

Special reductions are made in all our regular stock of Shoes.

Bear in mind that our line of Children's and Ladies' Shoes is of the highest standard, and satisfaction is guaranteed.

COATS & SUITS!

All Coats and Suits, Irrespective of Quality and Price, Will be Sold at Half Price Next Week.

A customer drove fifteen miles a few days ago to buy a good Suit for little money. She took home with her a $25.00 Suit for $12.50, and of course she was happy. The same reductions will be given you. WE INTEND TO MAKE A CLEAN-SWEEP IN THIS DEPARTMENT.

VACUUM CLEANERS!

We have the agency for the "Livingston Vacuum Cleaners." Let us demonstrate the 1915 model-ball-bearing, chain drive, durable, efficient, beautiful and compact, sweeper attached. Price $10.00.

WANTED--An apprentice in Millinery work-room. Apply at once.

[CONTRIBUTED.]

Mrs. Patience S. Duncan.

Mrs. Patience S. Duncan, the woman who was shot and killed by her husband, Frank Duncan, on Wednesday, March 3 at their home near Blackwood, N. J., was born and raised in Crumpton, Md., highly respected and loved by all who knew her.

She was the daughter of Mrs. Emma L. Cranor, of Chestertown, Md., being Emma L. Sheats before her second marriage. Mrs. Cranor was a Rollison before her first marriage, being a grand-daughter of the late Rev. Sam'l S. Rawleigh, of Chestertown, Md.

I never thought there would be any such terrible crime like this to happen, as they were so devoted to each other. I have been there time and time again and never heard a cross word spoken by either of them. But I have just learned that ever since Christmas he has been ill both in mind and body, due to financial troubles. She had been warned several times of the danger of her life, but she seemed to have little or no fear, as she said she would not leave him even to protect herself, but would stand by him to the end. She had hidden three revolvers from him at various times, but every time he would purchase another one. He told her more than once that he was going to kill himself but that she would have to go with him, but she didn't seem to believe he would do it, for how could he when he loved her so dearly.

I can truthfully say, there was nothing between her and any other man for she was devoted to her family. Frank is to be pitied as I believe he was insane to commit such a crime, as he was always good to my daughter. When the children were told of the crime that had been committed, the little boy just walked the floor and wrung his hands and said, "Something told him on his way to school to go back home as he felt that his Papa was going to kill his Mamma, and oh, if the receiver had been down he could have heard his Mamma scream." He also said, "All that I have now is my Mamma's picture, and when that is faded, I will have nothing."

My heart aches for the two little children who are left to battle with the world. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Emma L. Cranor, of Chestertown, Md., two children and four sisters, Mrs. Roxie Washburn and Mrs. Lola Dunlap, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, of South Westville and Mrs. Dora Fyle, of Chestertown; also one brother, George B. Sheats, of Porters, Del. HER MOTHER.

Centreville papers please copy.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, March 14, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, subject: "The World's Cry and its Answer;" 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school and pastor's Bible class; 7 P. M., Epworth League song service, followed by sermon by the pastor.

March 31st is the end of the Presbyterian church year. At this time all reports will be made, and the books made up and closed. Therefore, everyone who has not yet met his or her church obligation will please attend to this important duty. It is desirable that the books present a clean sheet as in the past. Mr. Clews will preach next Sunday on "Power."

The Rev. B. W. Kindley has resigned as general secretary of the Maryland Sunday School Association because of a stringency in the association's funds, and his resignation has been accepted. At the coming session of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, of which he is a member, he will receive a pastoral charge and re-enter the active ministry.

Mr. Samuel Burgess has been elected delegate and Mr. Milton Maslin, alternate, to represent Wesley Chapel M. P. Church, at the annual session of conference which meets April 7th, in Rhode Island Avenue M. P. Church, Washington, D. C.

We regret to state that Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor of Christ M. P. Church is quite sick with a severe attack of grippe. He will be unable to fill his pulpit to-morrow (Sunday). There will be the usual Sunday school service at 2.30 P. M. and the Christian Workers' service at 6.45 P. M.

Miss Mamye Thompson's Sunday school class will hold a March bake in the Howard store room next Saturday, March 20.

Evangelistic services will begin March 14th in the mission hall at Pondtown, conducted by Rev. G. L. Helsby.

The Rev. W. A. Warner, of Philadelphia, will preach in Emmanuel Church next Wednesday at 8 P. M.

Mrs. Stewart R. Matthews' Sunday school class will hold a St. Patrick's luncheon in Mrs. J. C. Loud's ice cream parlor next Wednesday evening, beginning at five o'cluck. You will find particulars in our advertising columns.

At a members meeting in Christ M. P. Church after the prayer service on Thursday evening, Mr. Fred G. Usilton was elected delegate and Mr. J. Walters Russell alternate to represent Christ M. P. Church at the annual session of conference to be held in Rhode Island avenue M. P. Church, Washington, D. C., April 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hyde Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fowler, Archibald and Warren Simons and Mrs. Ashley comprised a donation party from Worton which visited Mr. and Mr. Clews at Kennedyville last Friday evening. It is a source of inspiration and encouragement to know that his efforts are appreciated. And when a people are disposed to engage in acts which are a manifestation of such appreciation, it shows that their hearts are in the right place. In addition to the above, a pleasing gift was received from Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cooper and family. Mr. and Mr. Clews say they are very grateful, indeed, for such thoughtfulness.

Maryland Postmasters Appointed.

The following fourth-class postmasters were named for Kent county last Friday: Carrie May Groves to succeed S. E. Graves, at Blac k's; Wm. J. Rutter reappointed at Locust Grove, Lizzie E. Hepbron, at Lynch, to succeed William Hepbron; George E. Noland, reappointed at Tolchester and Mary Quick reappointed at Gratitude.

In Memoriam.

In loving remembrance of our father, James H. Petticord, who departed this life March 12th, 1911.
