Bradford Wins Top Honors In Y Meet

Lifts 1040 Pounds To Pace 12th St. Y To Nat'l Title

WASHINGTON

With James Bradford, William Davis, and Robert Jackson showing the way, the 12th ST. YMCA won the national YMCA weight lifting championships recently in the McBurney YMCA in New York City.

Bradford, 250-pound former Armstrong (D.C.) athlete and participant in the 1952 Olympics, lifted a total of 1,040 pounds to highlight the meet.

His accomplishments, 330 in the press, 320 in the snatch, and 390 in the clean and jerk, were the second high total in the history of the sport. John Davis, undefeated world champion since 1940, holds the record of 1,065 pounds.

Davis Lifts 705 Pounds

The only other first-place winner for the 12th St. YMCA was William Davis in the 148-pound class, who had a total weight lift of 705 pounds.

Davis, in winning his title had to come from behind in the clean and jerk event to win from defending champion, David Gravila of the Flint, Mich., YMCA. Gravila led Davis by 10 pounds until Davis hoisted 285 pounds to eclipse his opponent's 280.

The performance of Robert (Fat Man) Jackson was the clincher for the 12th St. YMCA. Jackson, the only other point getter for the winners, completed a total of 805 pounds to gain runner-up honors to Bradford.

Favorites Bow Out

The Flint, Mich., YMCA and the York, Pa., YMCA each had two first places, but failed to gain a second-place spot.

The Central YMCA of Washington, D. C., which has refused to compete against the 12th St. YMCA in the District, did not place in team honors.

It was also significant that Norbert Shemansky, who is billed as the white hope to succeed John Davis, withdrew from the meet after hearing that Bradford was entered. He claimed a illness after having been billed as the attraction in the city.

Kallio Withdraws

In the recent District AAU meet, Keith Kallio, who had reigned for years under the D. C. segregated system, declined to compete against Bradford.

and withdrew from the championships at the Jewish Community Center.

The 12th ST. YMCA team is now prepping for the national junior championships set for May 17 in Cleveland.

Other members of the 12th St. YMCA team which competed in the New York championships were James Kirby, Roland Davis, Mickey Collins, Ennis Pelham, and Calvin Waters.

Banquet Honors 40 Fisk Athletes

By NEWSTELL DOWSELL

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Athletics gives us vicarious experiences," declared Dr. Blyden Jackson, associate professor of English at Fisk, at the University's annual athletic banquet given here last week.

In justifying the place for a wholesome, well-rounded college life, Dr. Jackson said that athletics make life what it ought to be and shows what it is.

– Dr. Charles Johnson, in his remarks after the principal speaker, echoed his praise for Fisk sportmen.

40 Presented Letters

Nearly 40 top Fisk athletes were presented letters, sweaters, gold footballs and basketball for their performances in football, basketball and track.

Fortson, Smith Honored

The annual Henderson A. Johnson award, named for the athletic director Henderson A. Johnson, was given to Charles Fortson, Fisk senior and all-conference tackle from Knoxville, Tenn. for displaying the best sportsmanship in football.

William Smith, another senior and spark plug captain of the Fisk hardwooders from Kansas City, Kan., received the same award in basketball. All of the awards were made by Coach H. B. Thompson.

SUCCESS FORMULA— Jersey Joe Walcott shows a group of youthful admirers why he has been successful in remaining at the top of the heavyweight ranks for so long. Near 40, one side or the other, the Camden (N.J.) father of six, credits his excellent legs for his ability to challenge champion Rocky Marciano for the title in Chicago on May 15. Kids are members of the Walcott Athletic Association.

AT THE RINGSIDE:

Walcott Family To See Joe's Bid To Regain Title

LUIX VIRGIL OVERBEA

CHICAGO—(ANP)—There will be plenty of cream here in Chicago around May 15—not the milky kind — but the human be one Arnold Cream, about 200 pounds of terror within a squared circle. Following him will be six junior Creams, all on hand to support the big guy.

Just in case you don't know what this cream business is all about, Arnold Cream is better known to the boxing world as Jersey Joe Walcott, former heavyweight champion of the world. He has already come to Chicago to complete his preparations for a return bout with Rocky Marciano, the man who took his crown from him.

First Time

The six little Creams are Jersey Joe's children, all of whom will be frantically rooting for their "old man" to become the first to regain the heavyweight throne. This will be the first time that all of them at one time have seen their dad fight in the flesh.

By coming to Chicago, Jersey Joe should boost the somewhat lagging ticket sale for the bout. Already the International Boxing club has introduced $5 and $10 to the bout and reduced the number of ringside seats at $50.

Questions To Answer

As this ringsider sees it the questions to be answered are these:

Is Walcott as good as he has looked in training or does he have a set of poor sparring partners? At his age can he go at top speed for 15 rounds? How good (or bad) is Marciano? Is his nose healed? Is Marciano a spoiler or is that publicity that may be devised to indicate a closer battle?

If you can answer these questions correctly, then you know who will win the fight. Next week this ringsider will give you his ideas on the subject with the warning that what he says will have little to do with the outcome of the brawl.

On Carter-Collins Bandwagon

This ringsider may as well join the hordes of amateurs and would-be experts and give his opinion of the Jimmy Carter-Tommy Collins lightweight fiasco of a fortnight ago. As he sees it Boston wanted Collins to win, gave him a friend as referee, and some favorable folk in his corner. And Boston also put up its money on him.

Some fans are crediting Collins with courage for taking such a terrific beating. Frankly, it was mere foolishness on his part as well as on the part of his seconds to allow him to keep going. Naturally, when the ref asked him whether or not he was okay after each knockdown, he said yes. He wanted just one more whack at Carter's elusive jaw.

What To Expect

Fans, when speaking of ring brutality, also should remember one more thing about boxing—each man enters the fight with the purpose of hurting the other fellow. Each boxer is trying to batter his opponent into helplessness with every punch he throws, as the yoal, what else can you expect but blood and cruelty in a fight?

Mays Leads Newport News To Two Baltimore Wins

BALTIMORE

Baltimoreans got their first glimpse of Willie Mays, New York Giants outfield star, since the 1951 World Series here Sunday, when he paced the Newport News Royals to a double win over the Yokely Baltimore Stars at Westport Stadium. Scores were 13-0 and 7-6.

Mays batted and fielded in superb fashion, accepting five chances in the garden, two of them after long runs, made one brilliant throw and ripped out three hits in ten at bats.

Most notable offensive effort of the long afternoon was Willie's two-run homer in the sixth inning of the first game.

Also in the first, the highly-touted Mays arm thrilled the act Comedy, "Brother Goose," spectators when after taking a fly to center, he popped on a line to first to double up Lin Watkins, who had ventured too far down the baseline toward second. Watkins, brother of the Veteran NNL star, Murray Watkins, had been put on as a pinch-runner.

Murray Watkins, incidentally, figured in a triple-play negotiated by the home club. Yokely's Tyree hauled down a line drive with men on first and second, touched first and fired to Murray in time to complete the three-ply killing.

The Baltimoreans were thoroughly baffled by the pitching of Bill Sasser in the first contest connecting for only five hits, both by Biggie Williams.

Clarkson, Brown Pace Dallas Rise

DALLAS, Texas — (ANP) — During the past fortnight, The Dallas Eagles have moved from seventh place to second in the Texas League standings by winning nine of their last 11 games.

The potent clutch hitting of Buzz Clarkson and Willard Brown has sparked the team in its rise. Clarkson and Brown are tied in the Texas batted in race with 19 each.

Clarkson is also leading the Texas circuit in home runs with five and Brown has three.

Clowns High On 16-Year-Old Catcher

TARRYTOWN, N.Y.—Still on their spring exhibition tour, the Indianapolis Clowns have come up with what they believe will prove the catching 'find' of the year. He is 'Pinky' Hamilton of Jacksonville, Fla., a 16-year-old who appears to have the makings of another Roy Campanella with the advantage of youth on his side. This young receiver hits a long ball, has a bullet arm, hustles and only lacks experience.

Smith Heads Ring Writers

CHICAGO (ANP)—The Chicago Boxing Writers and Broadcasters association has elected Wendell Smith as its fourth president. Wendell, is the top ring analyst for the Chicago American, a daily. He has been a key man in the writers group since its organization three years ago.

This ringsider (Luix Virgil Overbea) is a member of the seating committee for the working—press at major fights in Other officers include:

Dave Rush, Western Union, vice president; Dick Mastro, Official Boxing Record, secretary; Dick Tillott, United Press, treasurer, and George Bozart, Joe Rein, Frank Mastro and Tim Canty, board of directors. Other members of the seating committee include Gene Kessler and Jerry Lisko.

One Time Fight Trainer Sentenced

MONTREAL — W. B. (Bill) Kinner, thi y ret,thoftier -armr Kinner, thirty, the former trainer of retired middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson, was sentenced to three years in jail here Wednesday.

He was convicted of robbery with violence to Frank Morrin, president, Constance Foster, 10, secretary; Peggy Moore, 10, treasurer; Gerald R. Anderson, 12, sergeant-at-arms; and Melvin Barnes, 12, business manager.

The club's sponsors are Mrs. Conley, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Beatrice Curry, and Mrs. Gusta Taylor, all of the Trinidad Community Association.

Jr. Clubs Forming In Trinidad Area

The Trinidad Community Association helped organize a junior club of 15 youngsters in the area, last week, as a means of discouraging juvenile delinquency.

It is the desire of the association to organize other such clubs throughout the section and to provide wholesome recreation as well as citizenship discussions for them.

Last week the youngsters, all between the ages of 5 and 13, assembled on the steps of Mrs. Flava L. Conley's home at 1222 Owen pl., se. They then went to Mrs. Anna Henry's residence at 1229 Owen pl., se, to hold their first meeting, with "Good Citizens" as the topic of discussion.

To Report This Week

At this week's meeting, on Monday, the club members were to report on the deeds they had done as good citizens during the week.

Officers of the junior club are: Charles Jones, 13, president; Aloysius Washington, 12, vice-president; Constance Foster, 10, secretary; Peggy Moore, 10, treasurer; Gerald R. Anderson, 12, sergeant-at-arms; and Melvin Barnes, 12, business manager.

Johnson Chased, But Sox Win

CHICAGO (NNPA) — Connie Johnson, 29-year-old pitcher, made his initial start for the Chicago White Sox against the Washington National. Last Tuesday in Comiskey Park.

Although the White Sox were leading 6 to 1, Johnson had trouble in the fourth inning. Mike Fornieles, who relieved him, got credit for the 8 to 4 victory because the rules state a starter must last five innings. Johnson, a skinny righthander, got into trouble in the fourth when Mickey Grasso, Washington catcher, singled and Sonny Dixon, relief pitcher, was given a base on balls.
