Duck Rally Nips Carver By 8-7

Overcoming a 5-run first inning, the Douglass High School baseball team staged a garrison finish to nip Carver Vocational High, 8-7, in a South Atlantic Conference game at Druid Hill Park Monday.

Carver hopped on Buddy Brown, Duck starting pitcher, for five runs in the opening frame, then added two more in the second to set up an early, 7-2 lead. However, Brown settled down thereafter and thoroughly checked the Trainer swingers.

Led by the same Brown who, together with Dorsey, shared six of the Ducks' eight hits, coach Mack Payne's lads collected three runs in the fourth and then put across the winning 3-run surge in the seventh and last stanza.

John Bruce, hurling for Carver, did a relatively good job despite poor support on the part of his mates. In the seventh, though, with two down and leading, 7-6, the Trainers appeared to slumber in a strategic moment.

Instead of passing Hall, Douglass' cleanup hitter with two on and first base open, they elected to pitch to him. He sent a dribbler down the third base line which Gabe Bell fielded but threw wildly to first, enabling the tying and winning tallies to count.

CHAMP AND EX — World featherweight champion Sandy Saddler, left, currently serving in the U.S. Army in Wuerzburg, is shown as he appeared as referee on the same card with former heavyweight champion Max Schmeling, center. Saddler is being presented with a beer stein by chairman of the Bavarian Professional Boxing Union.

Walcott In Final Phase Of Training

CHICAGO — Jersey Joe Walcott, ex-heavyweight champion of the world, who is set on regaining that coveted crown, arrived here last week and entered the final phase of his training at the Midwest gym.

Walcott, who claims to be 39, and is considered an athletic marvel with legs like a 15-year-old, takes on Rocky Marciano in the Chicago Stadium, Friday night.

The fight will not be televised in the Chicago or Milwaukee areas.

Jersey Joe Ahead

The last time Marciano and Walcott met one of the greatest fights of all time was added to the already glamorous annals of boxing.

Walcott, then champ, floored Rocky in the very first round. Rocky got up and weathered a gruelling first 12 rounds, in which he was losing by a wild margin, finally knocking out Walcott in the 13th.

When Joe was counted out, the score carns of the three officials and all the news men had Jersey Joe well ahead. In fact the worst he could have had on any card was a draw.

This time, Walcott hopes to benefit by experience, and become the first former champion to regain the heavyweight title.

Great fighters like Max Schmeling, Joe Louis, Jack Dempsey and Ezzard Charles all failed in this attempt. However, Walcott has accomplished so many other astounding feats in his career that regaining the title would not surprise any of his fans.

Walcott first hit the headlines in 1947 when he took on Joe Louis in a title fight in Madison Square Garden.

Although he pummeled the great Brown Bomber for 14 rounds and took a three-minute bicycle ride in the 15th, he was voted down, 2-1, by the officials and Louis kept his title.

Rocky, 2-1, Now

Few decisions in boxing were ever as controversial as that one. Walcott got another shot at Louis, but this time the champ kayoed Walcott in the 11th.

He fought Charles 4 times in title bouts, winning the last two. In all he has fought for the title seven times.

Marciano is the most highly touted youngster to come along since Louis, Joe said.

Rocky is underfeated in 43 fights and was the first heavyweight champ ever to win the title with a perfect record.

His youth and tremendous power makes him a 3-1 favorite in this April 10 fight, but Walcott is still the "Cinderella Man" of boxing and few fans are willing to bet long odds even though they like Marciano.

At The Ringside

By LUIX V. OVERBEA

CHICAGO (ANP) — The big night is almost here. The date is May 15; the event, a bout for the heavyweight championship of the world, and the participants, Jersey Joe Walcott of Camden, N.J. the challenger, and Rocky Marciano of Brockton, Mass., the champion.

A crowd of 15,000 fans will be on hand at the Chicago Stadium to witness this event which promises to be an historic occasion, and many, many millions of fans throughout the United States (except these in Chicago and vicinity) will view it by means of television.

This will be the second meeting between these two men. In their previous bout, Jersey Joe was champion, and Rocky was challenger. After taking a brutal beating for 12 rounds, Marciano caught Walcott when he moved one second too slowly and put the ancient champion to sleep.

Different Story

Friday night, the story will be different—at least the ringsider thinks so. An old boxing adage says "they never come back." According to this belief, Jersey Joe at 39 plus figures to be ready for his rocking chair, but Marciano, at least 10 years his junior, is rated the man to put him to sleep.

No ex-heavyweight champion has ever regained his title. Many have tried it — including such greates as Joe Louis as well as lesser men likeEzzard Charles —but none have succeeded. Most fans and experts believe this story will be repeated in the case of Walcott.

There comes a time in every man's life when he must become a dissenter and stand against popular opinion. This is such a moment for this ringsider. This is also such a moment for Jersey Joe, a man who has been full of ring surprises since he regained his second wind in the squared circle.

Floored "Invincible Joe"

Jersey Joe is the nonentity who startled the boxing world several years ago by flooring the "invincible" Joe Louis three times in a title bout and "lost" the decision. In their return match, the Brown Bomber kayoed Walcott, but only after Jersey Joe had sent him to the canvas earlier in the bout.

Walcott is the man who lost two title matches to Ezzard Charles before kayoing Charles to win his crown. Jersey Joe is one of the rare men who has never been a favorite in a championship fight although he has engaged in seven of them.

All the odds appear to be against the old man—that is, all except me. The aged one has confidence and determination, a healthy state of mind, working in his behalf. He also can outbox the champ easily. If he does not tire out he can take a one-sided decision. If he does, Rocky's right will end it all.

Assuming that Walcott's workouts indicate his condition, this ringsiders predicts that he will do the impossible—regain the the heavyweight throne. In case you are betting remember, this writer does not gamble—Hit him Jersey Joe!

Group Promises Reforms

Recently a new world organization to control boxing was formed in Paris. Led by the pioneering Robert Christenberry, chairman of the New York State Athletic commission, this group has come up with a number of reforms for pugilism.

Probably the most significant of these reforms concerns championship bouts. A four-member commission — Christenberry, George Barton, president of the National Boxing Association; J. Onslow Fane, chairman of the British Boxing Board of Control and Edouard Rabret of France, secretary of the European Boxing Union—will approve all title fights.

This group started out by accepting all the present champions as champs and approving of the Randy Turpin - Charley Humez and Bobo Olson-Paddy Young elimination bouts among middleweights. It then banned return-bout clauses in contracts for title bifffs. If this committee does not say a fight is for the championship, then it is not for the crown.

On a long range basis, this group hopes to standardize rules and championships throughout the world.

Rattlers Roam

TALLAHASSEE — Florida A and M Rattlers will journey to New Orleans to engage the Xavier university baseball team Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, at Pelican Stadium and Friday, at 2:30 p.m., on the Xavier Athletic Field.

On The Boxing Front

MONDAY (May 11) —x-Gil Turner, Philadelphia, vs. Johnny Lombarde, Jersey City, from Brooklyn (Dumont—10 p.m. EDT).
WEDNESDAY (May 13)—x-Jackie Blair, Dallas, vs. Willie Pep, Hartford from Dallas (CBS—10 p.m., EDT).
THURSDAY (May 14)—x-Chuck Spieler, Detroit, vs. Lalu Sabo, Cleveland, from Detroit (ABC—9 p.m., EDT).
FRIDAY (May 15)—Rocky Marciano, Brockton, Mass., vs. x-Jersey Joe Walcott, Camden, N.J., from Chicago for heavyweight title (NBC—10 p.m., EDT).
SATURDAY (May 16)—x-Johnny Gonsalves, Los Angeles, vs. x-Paddy DeMarco, Brooklyn, from Boston (ABC)—9 p.m. EDT).

Opening the week's calendar for television fans, Gil B'Turner, the clever Philadelphia challenger to Kid Gavilan, gets a chance to strengthen his position for a lucrative outdoor bout. He should come up with a handy win, possibly by knockout.

Blair To Beat Pep

In the Wednesday night tiff at Dallas, Ringmen is taking the younger Blair over ex-featherweight champion Pep on the assumptin that the former will be going for the "house" in this bout. New blood is what fight promoters are seeking and they are convinced Hartford Willie has spent his usefulness in the direction they wish to head.

Pep is 30, Blair 22. Both, however, have loads of experience. The former titleholder has had 182 fights, lost only five, three to the current champ, Sandy Saddler.

Blair, who started at the age of 16, has had 99 bouts. He scored five kayoes in six wins last year, but his victims were of a mediocre variety. He has been beaten by the "cream" players like Glen Flanagan, Davey Gallardo and Corky Gonzales. Only noteworthy win he had over two years was a decision over former lightweight champ Lauro Salas. Pep he had previously lost.

Spelsor, Walcott

Thursday night's show could be a victory for Spelser over his equally little-known rival, Sabo. Only thing in the former's favor is his recent tko of hasbeen Phil Bettinelli. Sabo's recent essay of the Ohioan was a losing effort against Olympian Floyd Patterson.

Ringman rides with the old man, Jersey Joe Walcott, to pick up the marbles in his tiff with champion Rocky Marciano in Chicago on Friday.

It is the belief here that the Camden pappy is the better boxer by far, as good a hitter, and certainly the smarter of the two. He doesn't figure to make the same mistake he made last September when, after outboxing his younger adversary for 12 rounds, he left his chin exposed to the explosive right of the New England Italian.

Gonsalves To Redeem

The Saturday night choice is Gonsalves to erase a 1952 loss to the Flatbush battering ram, DeMarco. One of his good nights should return the smooth-punching, classy Californian a handy winner over his rugged rival, in his own back yard one week despite the fact Paddy beat him less than a year ago.

The Gonsalves who whipped the likes of Orlando Zulueta and Georgie Araujo, and knocked out Henry Davis figures to handle the headlong rushes of DeMarco. Seven wins and one draw for 1952 helped Johnny to forget that lone setback at the hands of DeMarco in 'Frisco, last April 21.

After beating Gonsalves last year, DeMarco finished by Zulueta and lost his second in as many starts with Arthur King. He matched Johnny's victory over Davis but did it the hard way, his Madison Square Garden decision being booed by the fans and criticized by newsmen.

Hayes Enlists

BOSTON — Middleweight Norman Hayes promising New England 160-pounder, enlisted in the U.S. Army for a two-year hitch, it was learned here last week. Hayes will report for active duty on Thursday, the day after he boxes Jesse Turner in St. Louis.

Lucky Strikes . . . by JOE BLACK

A lot of people think most ball players are a little eccentric . . . and right! But there's a reason for the strange things we do. We're in a business where pressure is terrific and always present. If we didn't kid each other, or bench-jockey the opposing players, or pester the umpires, we would crack under the strain. Clowning around is a good way to break the tension. It relaxes us.

A joke at the right time can ease many a crucial situation. I remember a funny remark made by Duke Snider years ago when one of our best pitchers was getting hit hard during a big game. Of spectacular catcher by Duke Snider saved him from getting knocked out of the box. When the pitcher came into the dugout after the inning, Charlie Dressen asked him if he was hurting. "No, I'm not," chuckled the pitcher, "but I think Snider is!" We went on to win the game.

Tension and pressure make some players tense and nervous. Some pitchers look terrific pitching in batting practice, but get anyone out in a game. Some players are what we call "one o'clock hitters"—sluggers in batting practice but easy outs during the game. The reason for this is, they haven't learned to relax on the field.

A good ball player is a relaxed one. And good players like Roy Campanella, Pee Wee Reese and Duke Snider all find relaxation and enjoyment in smoking Luckies. They really go for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of a Lucky Strike. Tell you what, you try a carton of Luckies today and see what I mean. See you next week.
