The Transcript

R. H. COLLINS, T. D. BOWERS, EDITORS.

COUNTY Commissioner T. Benjamin Crew is resting quietly at his home in Still Pond Neck, nursing his fractured limb. Dr. W. S. Maxwell, his physician, will have him out shortly.

TWO very interesting articles, one relating to Washington College, written by an alumnus, and the other, relative to political conditions in Dorchester county, will be found on page 3. Read them. They are worthy of your attention.

ALBERT RITCHIE, ESQ., of the Baltimore bar, has announced his candidacy for Attorney General. It is believed in influential political circles that Senator John Walter Smith's ticket will be Harrington for Governor, McMullen, of Cumberland, for Comptroller, and Ritchie, of Baltimore, for Attorney General.

HIS INTEREST IN THE PEOPLE.

A gentleman from Chestertown who signed himself "Regular" had a letter in the Baltimore Sun last week in defense of "Our Senator" and "Our Candidate" for Governor, meaning by such endearing terms Senator Smith and Comptroller Emerson Harrington. If the "Regular" had finished his nom de plume and styled himself "Regular Correspondent for the Organization" during a primary contest, the public would have a better idea of who the chap really is. But in the course of his letter he says: "Now let him consider why our Senator should have influence. Have we had in the last generation anyone in the United States in Congress that has done more for the people of his State than he has?"

Well, well, just to think of what "Our Senator" has done.

When his people were crying for cheap lumber, he stood in the United States Senate and advocated even a higher tariff on lumber than the most aggressive Republican protec ionist advocated, and he himself a lumber dealer.

When the farmers of the Eastern Shore of Maryland wanted a lime manufacturing plant established by the State so as to enable them to get cheaper lime than they can now get from the lime corporation, "Our Senator" left his seat in the United States Senate and went down to Annapolis, where his Legislature was in session and in which the bill was pending, and he put the bill for the relief of the farmers to sleep so quicklyithat it would make your head swim.

When the agricultural interests of the country were striving to secure federal inspection of grain in the port of Baltimore in the United States Senate, during the last session of the Maryland Legislature, "Our Senator" left his Legislature in Annapolis and rushed to his seat in the United States Senate and did everything in his power to prevent the passage of the law which would enable the farmers of the State of Maryland to receive a fair and square deal in the shipment of their grain.

When his Legislature was in session in Annapolis one year ago, his representatives created so many expensive offices and commissions and appropriated so much of the people's money that his candidate for Governor is compelled to admit that the State Treasury is empty and many of the worthy institutions of the State are facing a lack of funds and a possible closing of their doors.

What is "Regular" talking about? What does he think the people of this State are anyhow?

There is no grosser illustration of the misappropriation of the confidence of the people of any State in this union than is shown in the career of "Our Senator" in the United States Senate, and the people will see to it that such influences shall cease to dominate our halls of legislature.

WE regret to state that Mr. C. S. Hurlock has not been so well this week. We hope he may soon be well and able to mingle among his many friends.

THE Organization rank and file are kicking like steers against Harrington for Governornor, but "Our Senator"—the great big boss of the local Organization, John Walter Smith—says: "Boys, it's going to be Harrington, and that's all there is to it, fall in line;" and in line they fall because they have to obey the great big boss or get nothing.

WONDER what Senator John Walter Smith would say about Harry Cannan being on the Organization ticket for county commissioner, if he only knew how violently he was opposing him in the last Senatorial election? Mr. Cannan would not vote for Senator Smith for a dog catcher, no indeed. But he will now desert his friends and go on Senator Smith's ticket in this county.

THERE is some edification (?) about the editorials appearing in the Beck Organ from Saturday to Saturday. Not a line of defense of the course of their representatives in the last legislature, or a single statement in reference to any issues upon which their candidates propose to ask the votes of the people in the next primaries. It is always a harangue against Boss Barroll, which closes with "more later," and when the next issue comes it is more about Boss Barroll and more later.
