SPRING
Fashion Display of J&K SHOES

THE FIRST PEEP

Even though you are not ready to purchase, we invite you to come just for a peep at our spring fashion shew of dainty footwear.

Chic models of the famous J. & K. Pumps are pictured here. Many more—all fairly sparkling with the budding springtime spirit—grace our display.

You will find a distinctive style to suit your individual taste, at the price you wish to pay. An early visit insures a wide selection.

SPRING MILLINERY

Without a formal opening we wish to announce to the public that our spring millinery is ready for your inspection. We assure you that a most pleasing exhibit of the newest and best will greet you.

But we suggest that you make your selections early, so that beautiful Eastertide will arrive with the hat question satisfactorily disposed of.

What Are the New Spring Materials for Dresses?

The answer to this burning question can be found by an inspection of the goods at this store.

The most favored fabrics are Taffeta, Faille, Crepe de chine, Voile, Covert Cloth, Serge and Gabardine.

White leads, but black-and-white mannish mixtures, and sand, putty, Dutch blue, battleship grey, golden brown and navy are also good.

You will be able to get a comprehensive idea from our complete display.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MISS CHARLOTTE MANNING WILSON.

Miss Charlotte Manning, third daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Willson, died at the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, Monday evening after an operation for appendicitis. The deceased was born in Kent county, was educated at Mt. St. Agnes' College, Mt. Washington, and after graduating there in 1906, she spent the greater part of her time in Baltimore, where she leaves a large circle of friends. Her body was brought to Kent county Wednesday, and interment at Rock Hall Thursday morning, Rev. Jas. F. Earner officiating. The bearers were: Arthur Uttrich, Harry Skirven, John Willson, Ringgold Jones, William Camp and Walter Hadaway.

JULIAN COCHRAN.

Julian Cochran, a son of the late Gov. John P. Cochran, died suddenly in Middletown on Friday. He was attacked while on his way home with his brother, Charles P. Cochran, and his nephew, C. Malcolm Cochran. He sat on a curb to rest within 20 yards of his dwelling and expired. He is survived by a widow and two daughters. Mrs. Carl Harrington, Baltimore, and Mrs. Julian Foard, Middletown.

Bull Tractor a Succees.

A large number of farmers from Kent and Queen Annes counties have been attending the demonstrations of the Bull Tractor gasoline engine given on the John C. Smith farm, near town, by Mr. H. D. Orem, the sole agent. The engine is handy and easily managed, and is a great labor saver both of horses and men. Many of the farmers were of the opinion that the tractor is also a saver of time and money, and Mr. Orem will have no trouble to dispose of the carload received last week. It is one of the most economical pieces of farm machinery patented for years, and it will undoubtedly prove a big seller. Mr. Orem has received a number of orders from some of the most progressive farmers of Kent and Queen Annes.

With Our Advertisers.

Watch G. H. Camp's space in this paper for a change of advertisement next week, March 27.

Mr. W. E. Moody announces in this issue his spring and summer display of all-wool fabrics now ready for inspection. This being the largest exclusive made-to-order plant in the country, coupled with Mr. Moody's long and well-earned regard for fair trading, makes a combination worthy of your investigation.

Try a can of White Foot Oil, manufactured by the White Foot Oil Company, of Centreville. It cures when others fail. Try it and see.

All kinds of garden seed at M. A. Toulson's drug store.

Read C. C. Jones' change of adv. on page 5. He is telling you something to think about in the shoe line. His line of spring and summer footwear is fine and the styles are up to the minute.

Read the poultry advs. on page 4. If you want layers get any of the advertised breeds and you will not go estray.

Go in and spend five dollars or more with Brown Bros. and get a good watch free.

Springtime is coming. Wake up, Mr. Merchant, its time to get busy with your spring advertising.

Vansant & Newsome, Davis & Satterfield and George H. Camp have interesting changes of adv. in this issue. One firm offers satisfaction for the "outer man," another, has the goods that assist in producing this satisfaction while Mr. Camp takes care of the "inner man" and looks to his comfort and satisfaction in every respect. See what each has to offer.

Spring opening of men's ladies' and children's wearing apparel at H. Sachs & Son's big store. Don't forget to visit their tailoring department also. You will find hundreds of samples of fine spring and summer suits, and Mr. Sachs can fit you as well as any tailor in Baltimore.

We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of Mr. P. W. Carrier, the hustling Butlertown merchant. Mr. Carrier has built up a good business by industry and close application to business, and his store is a first-class one in every particular. Read his prices on page 2, and take him your butter and eggs.

In Memoriam.

CHAIRES—In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Frances A. Chaires, who departed this life one year ago, March 24th, 1914.

Oh, dearest, sweetest mother,
Since you have passed away,
It seems not it was a year ago,
But only yesterday.

But in our saddest moments,
One happy thought holds sway,
We will meet again, dear mother,
And be happy some sweet day.

BY HER HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.
