CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

CHARLES H. TOULSON.

Mr. Charles H. Toulson, one of the most highly respected citizens of this county, died at his home, near Still Pond, on Tuesday evening last, following a stroke of paralysis, aged 60 years. Mr. Toulson was stricken along the road near the home of Mr. E. M. Bonwill, Jr., where he was overseeing some work near the hedgerow, and was found lying on the ground unconscious by Mrs. Wm. Hadaway. His son, Howard, and nephew, Thomas Mann, were summoned from the field and they assisted him to the carriage and he was taken home. Doctors Atwell and Maxwell were hastily called and did all that human aid and sympathy could do to relieve him, but he gradually sank and passed away at eight o'clock that evening. Thus passed away one of Kent county's good men, and one who will be missed by a large circle of friends and neighbors, who had the good fortune to come in contact with him. He leaves a wife, who was a Miss Wilmer before marriage, and three sons, Penn, of Vineland, N. J.; Howard, at home, and Julian, of Baltimore; also two daughters, Mrs. W. J. Clark, and Miss Loiuse, at home. Funeral services were held at his late home on Friday afternoon at half past one o'clock, Rev. F. X. Moore in charge. Interment was in the cemetery at Still Pond. Mr. W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MISS LILLIAN WHEATLEY.

Miss Lillian Wheatley, daughter of Mr. C. Frank Wheatley and Mrs. Nettie Cosden Wheatley, of Rock Hall, and granddaughter of Mr. J. Frank Wheatley, Chestertown, died at the home of her father on Monday evening at 6.00 o'clock of typhoid fever, in the 18th year of her age. She was a member of the graduating class of the Rock Hall High School. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock in the Rock Hall M. E. Church, which was crowded to its full capacity by friends of the family, including teachers and scholars of the High School, which was closed out of respect for the deceased. The floral offerings were profuse. Rev. Mr. Prettyman, pastor of the Rock Hall M. E. Church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Mr. Johnson, pastor of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church. Interment in Chester cemetery, Dr. W. R. Graham reading the burial service. The bearers were: J. Burke Wheatley (her brother) Harry Brice, William Francis, John Ashley, Martin Wagner and Bernard Wilson. Casey Brothers undertakers.

THOMAS W. PRICE.

Mr. Thomas W. Price died at his residence in Piney Neck, Thursday, April 1, aged 60 years. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Mary M. Price, and the following children: Franklyn, William, Hugh, Raymond and Leroy; and three daughters, Evelyn, Edna and Elmer. Funeral Sunday afternoon at 2 P. M., from Piney Neck Church. Interment at Wesley Chapel cemetery, Rev. Mr. Prettyman in charge of the service. Bearers: R. L. W. Crouch, William Rollison, Robert Craton, William Frazier, Charles Crouch, Alfred Wilson. Chas. L. Dodd, undertaker in charge.

MRS. MARY HESSEY.

Mrs. Mary Hessey, widow of the late Samuel Hessey, died at the home of her son, Mr. Frank Hessey, near Cecilton, on Thursday afternoon of last week. Funeral services were conducted on Sunday afternoon at her late residence by Rev. J. M. Mitchell. Interment was made in Cecilton cemetery.

Francis A. Wallis, son of J. Percy and Georgia Wallis Wilson, departed this life on March 30, 1915, at the residence of his parents, Landover, Md., age 1 year, 6 months and 23 days.

FISHERMEN'S SUIT DISMISSED.

Eastern Shoremen Asked Injunction Against Government Rules.

Judge Rose, in the United States Court, heard and dismissed on Wednesday the suit of Joseph W. Apsley, Tilghman Hubbard and others for an injunction restraining the enforcement of an order of the board of engineers of the War Department in charge of the navigable waters of the Chesapeake Bay against the fishermen of Kent and Queen Annes counties.

From time immemorial, the bill of complaint stated, the people of Kent county and all citizens of the State have had the right of free and open fishing in the waters of the bay, and that these rights were inalienable. Between 300 and 400 citizens of Kent and Queen Anne's counties exercised these rights, it was alleged, and at least $25,000 had been spent by them in this industry, on which they depend for a livelihood.

Lansing H. Beach, Henry C. Newcomer, E. Eveleth Winslow and James P. Jervey are the defendants in the case. They recommended, it is alleged, that bay fish net stakes shall not be placed in certain navigable waters near Kent and Queen Anne's counties in which the complainants have been accustomed to fish. The recommendation was approved by Assistant Secretary of War Henry Breckinridge. Motorboats, pungies and small sailing vessels are alleged to have complained of the use of the nets.

The case was argued by Attorney L. Wethered Barroll for the fisherman and United States Distrct Attorney Samuel K. Dennis for the Goverment.

St. Paul's Oaks.

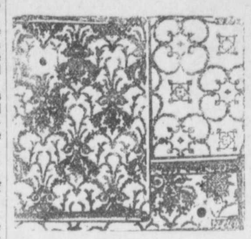

The committee of ladies who are endeavoring to have the old oaks at St. Pauls treated by an expert tree surgeon, are meeting with much encouragement. They have sent circulars all through the States to families having their burial ground at old St. Pauls. A number of contributions have been received from Baltimore, one gentleman sending fifteen ($15.00) dollars, quite a number sending five dollars, others contribute a dollar and some as low as twenty-five cents. One gentleman from Philadelphia sent ten dollars and contributions of five dollars have been received from New York, Atlanta and St. Louis. Chestertown is also aiding the ladies as a number have already contibuted five dollars. Some of these contributions, both in and out of the State, have been from tree lovers that were in no way connected with St. Pauls and the Episcopal Church.

Through the interest taken in these trees by Mr. Percy G. Skirven, of Baltimore, the ladies have secured handsome lithographed plates, both of old St. Paul's Church and the large oak, which they are sending out to all who contribute.

Through Mr. Beasley, chief of the Forestry Department of the State, the ladies are endeavoring to get an expert tree surgeon to do this work as reasonable as possible consistent with good work. All lovers of trees as well as those who are particularly interested in St. Paul's are invited to send contributions to Miss Violet Beck, Chestertown, Kent county, Md., R. F. D. No. 4, and to all making contributions will be mailed the picture of St. Pauls and the large oak. A list of contributors will be published later.
