POWER AGAIN PROVING AA STANDOUT

Wilkins Wins

NEWARK, N.J. — Coffee Wilkins, 122, of Washington, D.C., floored Guillermo Roberts, 126, Cuba, three times Thursday night before knocking him out in 1 minute 30 seconds of the fifth round with left hook to the jaw.

Yank Farmhand Teammate Lead Kansas City Hitters

Vic And Elston Howard Set Pace As Blues Shoot To Top In American Association Flag Race

Special To The AFRO)

KANSAS CITY—The big bats of Vic Power and Elston Howard, the tan slugging stars of the Kansas City Blues, spearheaded the team to first place in the American Association and a 10-game winning streak which was snapped Thursday night by an unearned run.

Power, who served notice last year that he was one of the league's top hitters, is only one point off the individual batting lead held by St. Paul's Bob Wilson, another tan star, and Harry Agganis, Louisville first baseman. Power is socking the ball at a .388 clip to .389 for Wilson, who dropped from his lofty perch last week, and Agganis.

Sets Blues Afire

While Power stepped up among the batting leaders, Howard's rise set the Blues on fire. The big outfielder, who was supposed to be shipped out to gain experience, has won himself a starting job for the season. Harry Craft, the former Cincinnati star and manager of the Blues, had faith in Howard from the start.

Howard was off to a poor start at the plate. He wasn't getting base hits and had trouble reaching .200 for the first two weeks. Now he's hiked his batting mark to .281 and has driven in 15 tallies, eight less than Power.

Power, with 23 RBI's is dueling with Agganis for the league lead. Agganis has 27, but Power has served notice he'll be a big threat before the season is over.

Slump Cost Title

Only once last season did Power go into a tailspin at the plate. The slump probably cost him the batting title, too, for he skidded some 30 points before he started belting the ball again. The big slugger who may be the first tan player ever to wear a New York Yankee uniform, has slugged nine doubles, two triples and two homers.

Howard's collection of extra base hits includes four doubles, three triples and five circuit smashes.

Pope On Slide

Dave Pope, the outfielder who had all the trimmings of a major leaguer but yet was shuffled off to Indianapolis, is experiencing his worst season since stepping into triple A ranks. Up to Thursday he was hitting only .241, but Thursday night he clipped Minneapolis pitching for two homers to raise his total to seven and take over the AA homer lead. Pope and Al Smith, his tan teammate for the Indians, found the going rough as Smith, too, skidded to .280 after a brilliant start.

Ray Noble, Minneapolis catcher, stayed up among the leaders with .361, but Sam Jethroe, Toledo's fleet-footed outfielder, dropped to .307 from .313.

Powell Rapped

Ray Powell, Charleston's righthander, was tagged hard by the St. Paul Saints last Monday night. Powell's teammates gave him a big seven run lead in the first inning, but the veteran hurler couldn't stand the prosperity. He gave way in the second inning but wasn't charged with the defeat. The Saints treated Powell like they owned him.

Sad Sam Jones of Indianapolis still maintains his perfect record of two victories and no defeats. Powell has won three without being charged with a loss.

Scull On Improve

As the days slip by, Angel Scull, the fast-stepping Charleston outfielder, is beginning to live up to expectations. Scull can move, throw and now has raised his batting mark to .247. Manager Joe Becker has said that Scull will make good and the young 22-year-old centerfielder is making his skipper look good.

Jethroe's steal of home beat the Saints Thursday night, 2-1, but Luis Marquez, trying to score on the same play was tagged out. Despite having Jethroe and Marquez in the outfield, Toledo misses the big bats of George Crowe and Buzz Clarkson and the speed of B. Burton. Toledo will have a new manager at the helm in George Selkirk who replaces Tommy Holmes who was fired. Selkirk was fired by Kansas City last year because of a wrangle with Casey Stengel.

At The Ringside

By LUI XVIRGIL OVERBEA

CHICAGO — There is something of minor stir in boxing circles because welterweight champion Kid Gavilan is not taking very seriously the challenges of Danny (Bang Bang) Womber for a title bout. As this ringsider sees it, Bang Bang does not rate a title fight at this time.

Actually, Gavilan has the 147-pound division well covered. He has defeated every rated challenger except Johnny Saxton, and lately Saxton has not looked too good in his ring ventures.

Just Good Enough

Gavilan is much like Ray (Sugar) Robinson was in his prime. In fights that don't count he boxes only well enough to win. He does not expend any extra energy. When the money bout comes up, however, they the Cuban Kid is a sharp, alert, ready fighter who quickly established his authority in the ring.

His loss to Womber probably was caused by too much relaxing before he started to fight. As a result he lost the decision although neither fighter suffered any damage in the ring that night.

Bratton No. One

Top challenger in the welterweight division is Johnny Bratton. The talk is that he may fight Billy Graham for the right to face Gavilan in his next title defense. Bratton's only weakness is that he seems as if he is more interested in his appearance than in fighting.

As for Gil Turner, Saxton, Joe Miceli, Chuck Davey and all the rest — they ain't ready yet, and they never will be if they have to fight Gavilan for the title.

Gavilan Great

All you fans who think the Kid is slipping because of his loss to Gavilan had better throw this thought out of your minds. This ringsider had this fact proved to him — Gavilan is a great fighter. . .

Speaking of the welterweights, Gavilan will face Micelli Wednesday, May 27 in Detroit. This bout, the talk is that he may take your choice. This ringsider has seen Saxton in action, but have never witched Micelli.

White Sox Option Johnson and Boyd

CHICAGO — Manager Paul Richards of the Chicago White Sox brought his team down to the 25-player limit last week by shipping pitcher Connie Johnson and infielder-outfielder Bob Boyd to the Charleston Senators of the American Association.

The two tan rookies were farmed out on a 24-hour recall basis. Johnson, a righthander, formerly played with Kansas City Monarchs, Boyd, a first baseman who saw some spring duty in the outfield, played the 1951-52 seasons in the Pacific Coast League.

The first complete and exciting story of GREAT NEGRO BASELINE STARS AND HOW THEY MADE THE MAJOR LEAGUES

Just off the Press!

By that famous sports writer A. S. "Doc" Young, sports editor of Ebony

Facts you never knew before!

Negroes making their way to the top in the nation's most popular sport—it's one of baseball's greatest stories! Here is the inside dope on Negroes who played in the majors BEFORE Jackie Robinson came along. Here, too, is the story behind the story of Jackie's signing up and his phenomenal success. Doc Young tells you about the players who are coming up, and predicts who will be the stars of tomorrow.

Whatever your favorite team, whoever your favorite star, here's the story you'll want to read of the men who are making the big time bigger. Jam-packed with never-before-told accounts of Roy Campanella, Satchel Paige, Willie Mays, Sam Jethroe, Luke Easter and others—and complete with pictures, records, awards, a whole host of fascinating facts and figures.

Md. State Snaps Aggies' Streak

PRINCESS ANNE, Md — Md. State snapped the A and T College ten-game win streak here 9-8, with the help of Jimmy Estep's towering homer in the third inning.

Bill (Lefty) Jordan a Baltimore "Butterfly" loser got credit for the win after relieving Preston who suffered a painful injury. Still started, but was yanked in the fifth inning.

Searcy, A and T relief flinger, took the loss when Frank Gabby Mowery, a D.C. import and flashy first basemen, lashed a screaming liner in the ninth inning into rightfield.

In Memoriams 1

AYDLETT — In memory of our dear husband and father, ELDES, who passed away May 19, 1951:
A father, man
and adec,
Only God was better God
never made
A worker, so loyal
and true,
One in a million
that father was
you.
Just in your judgement
Honest in your dealings, liberal, ever upright
Loved by friends and all you knew
Wonderful husband.—That father
was you.
Wife, MRS. HELEN AYDLETT
AND LOVING CHILDREN

DOWNING—In loving memory of my dear husband, SAMUEL M. DOWNING, who departed this life, May 19, 1952:
The world may change from year to year,
And friends from day to day;
But never will the one we loved
From memory pass away.
I seem to see in the soft, dim
light,
A face I loved the best;
We loved you dear, But God
loved you best.
LOVING WIFE AND FAMILY

PALMER—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, ROSCOE CONKLIN PALMER, who departed this life, May 18, 1952:
Our family circle has been broken,
A link gone from our chain.
But though we've parted for a while,
We know we'll meet again.
Some day we hope to meet you,
Some day, we know not when.
We shall meet in a better land,
And never part again.
We shall meet with many a loved one
That was torn from our embrace.
We shall behold them face to face.
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all.
DEVOTED WIFE, CHILDREN
AND STEPMOTHER

VENABLE — In loving memory of my dear husband and our dear father, NATHANIEL, whom the Lord took away 4 years ago today, May 19:
As years roll on
and days go by,
In our hearts we
remember you.
LOVING WIFE
AND CHILDREN

WATKINS—In loving memory of my husband, ALFRED, who passed away May 20, 1941:
The hills were bleak and settine rough
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed his loving eyes,
And whispered, "Peace be Thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain
His weary nights are passed away
He ever patient worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving wife
