MAYOR PRESTON defeated the forces opposed to him in the Councilmanic fights, and placed men in nomination for the City Council in full sympathy with his administration. Danny Loden put a quietus on "The" Kelly, Senator Smith's friend in Baltimore, and gave him to understand that he must keep "hands off" his bailiwick.

IF the Kent News says that the career of the delegates from this county in the last Legislature was in the interest of the people, their interest in the people amounts to no more than getting their votes for the Organization candidates in the primaries. After that the people may take care of themselves.

FORMER Congressman William H. Jackson, known all over the Eastern Shore as "Uncle Bill," died Saturday afternoon at his home in Salisbury. For several terms he was a member of Congress, and was for years the recognized leader of the Republican party in the State. He was also one of the wealthiest men in the State and did great good in his quiet unassuming way in aiding worthy charities.

AS AN evidence of what the people will do when they are aroused, it is interesting to note that Councilman Charles Heintzman defeated the Organization candidate, Major John Philip Hill, for the Republican Mayoralty nomination of Baltimore city, by more than 2,900 majority. Major Hill had the support of the Stone-Goldsborough forces, as well as other powerful backing, and yet Heintzman, by appealing to the people, upset the Organization and won a notable victory. But the glory will be short lived, for it is a forgone conclusion that Mayor Preston will sweep the city in the general election in May, as he well deserves to do. Mayor Preston has given Baltimore city the very best administration it has ever had, and he should be elected by an overwhelming majority.

MR. COPPER FOR COMPTROLLER.

The announcement of Mr. W. B. Copper's candidacy for Comptroller of the State, occasioned some surprise among his friends in Kent, who had hoped that he would make the race for the State Senate, and at the same time it caused considerable speculation and consternation in the Organization ranks, because when the full significance of Mr. Copper's candidacy dawned upon them they realized what a gigantic task it will be not only to defeat Mr. Copper for Comptroller with the powerful backing of Senator Blair Lee, candidate for Governor, and other powerful State influences, but it will make it all the more difficult to defeat the Anti-local ticket, which is allied with the interests of Senator Lee and Mr. Copper, as well as other progressive influences in the State. There is not a question of Mr. Copper's success had he announced his candidacy for the State Senate. The Organization knows Mr. Copper's strength, and there was not a man, from Senator Beck to numerous others who had been mentioned, who was willing to make the fight against a man of Mr. Copper's strength. Mr. Copper, as well as his friends in Kent, were willing to gratify the desire of his friends throughout the State that he should run with Senator Lee for State Comptroller, and influences outside of the county have been at work for months in an effort to induce Mr. Copper to run for Comptroller, because his business ability, his standing as a financier, and his high character make him the type of man the State needs to give its financial department a capable and efficient administration. Mr. Copper has acceded to the wishes of his friends throughout the State, and he proposes to go into the campaign determined not only to win his own nomination, but to do everything in his power to nominate Senator Lee and his other running mate, as well as to use his influence for the success of the local ticket. Mr. Copper's candidacy for Comptroller strengthens the Anti-local ticket because the pull which Copper will have, plus the pull the State Senator will have, should make a team that could carry any load from Kent to Annapolis and back with colors flying. Mr. Copper stands for the same principles in State politics that he stands for at home, and his influence with the State administration would be such as to preserve the interests of the people of his home county and see that they secured an economical and efficient administration. Mr. Copper's friends in Kent consented to his candidacy for State Comptroller instead of the Senate in order that they might have influence at home and abroad, and with a man equally as capable as Mr. Copper for the candidate for the State Senate, with the kind of men the Antis have offered the voters of the county, there does not seem to be any chance whatever for the Organization to get a look in, for Blair Lee is going to be the next Governor of Maryland, and if Governor Lee, then it must be State Comptroller Copper.

THE man whom the Organization is going to spring upon the people for the State Senate is Boss Beck. They tell us that Mr. Beck was afraid to "shy his castor" in the ring so long as Mr. Copper was mentioned by the Antis for the Senate, and he was content to state that he would not run again, and would devote his time and means to his friends. But it is said that Mr. Beck has wanted to run all the while, and has been holding Mr. Harry Willis and Mr. Howard Turner off in the hope that somebody would start something for him, and that failing he has started it himself. Come on in, Mr. Beck.

THE issue which Mr. W. B. Copper, candidate for Comptroller, raised in his ringing announcement last week, relative to placing the numerous appointments now vested in the Board of Public Works in the hands of the Governor, is a very meritorious one. Between 700 and 800 appointments are vested in the Board of Public Works, which appointments necessarily have attached to them a political string. So long as the present method of appointment prevails, and no change could be made in the next four years, Mr. Copper, if elected Comptroller, could have large influence in the selection of the appointees, and it is very natural that he should look after the interests of his home county, which have been very seriously neglected and ignored by the present Comptroller. At the same time the force of Mr. Copper's argument is clear, because of the fact that the efficiency of any office is impaired where politics plays such a big figure in the personnel of the appointees. Mr. Copper proposes to give the State a most efficient and businesslike administration, and we feel sure that the thinking men of the State will agree with him in the position he takes upon the question of transferring to the Governor the responsibility of all appointments now made by the Board of Public Works.

THE TEST

IT IS PERFECTLY NATURAL TO MAKE A CLAIM

But there is a wide difference between claim and proof. In the matter of selling equal grades of merchandise at lower prices than prevail elsewhere—which is the claim we make for the White House Shoe Shop—there is a simple process, open to all, which will either refute our claim or prove it—and that is—THE ACID TEST OF COMPARISON.

The White House Shoe Shop earnestly advocates the comparison of its goods and prices, with goods and prices elsewhere. If the White House Shoe Shop is selling the goods you want—at lower prices than the other stores, you surely want to KNOW it—not only to prove our claim but for your own MONEY advantage.

Form the habit of comparing our goods and prices with others, before parting with your money.
