You will observe that five of the candidates—all for leading places on the ticket—come from Chestertown. What the bosses don't want goes to the country districts.

At Lyceum Next Week.

On Monday evening, April 26, Miss Lois B. Hammond, supported by the Mattice Stock Company, will open a week's engagement at Lyceum Theatre presenting for the first time here the three-act play of New York life, "Was She to Blame?" "Was She to Blame" is one of the most popular "crook" plays that have created such a sensation in the large cities for the past two seasons. It will compare favorably with "Within the Law," "In the Bishop's Carriage" and the "Ghost Breaker." Although written on entirely different lines, "Was She to Blame" is strictly a modern play and "up-to-the-minute" in every particular. No more long speeches. No more introspections and critical analysis to determine whether the heroine loves the hero or not. The act begins with the rise of the first curtain and does not cease an instant till the fall of the last. In "Was She to Blame" the author has found a new theme and offers a real live dramatic production, one that appeals to every mother, one no one should miss. It is not a melo-drama; there are no shooting effects, no rough comedy, but a real dramatic sensation, one you will never forget. It is replete with fine and elaborate stage and scenic effects and each artist is dressed absolutely as his or her part requires. Other plays to be presented by this clever company during the week's engagement are: "A Truthful Liar," "Lena Rivers," "The Price Women Pay," "The Man And The Hour," "A Good Little Devil," "Woman Against Woman." Popular prices of 10, 20 and 30 cents will prevail.

MAY SHAKE UP SCHOOLS.

Rockfeller Experts Are at Work in City And Counties.

Public schools of Baltimore and the counties are the subject just now of careful investigation with respect to curriculum, teaching methods and general administration, as a result of which radical changes in both systems may be adopted.

Since late in March the schools of the counties have been visited by experts representing the General Education Board of the Rockfeller Foundation. Most of the work has been done by Dr. Frank Bachman, but the State has been visited from time to time by Dr. Abraham Flexner, one of the foremost of the nation's authorities on education. Dr. Bachman is now conducting his inquiries among the schools of the Eastern Shore, having concluded an investigation in Western Maryland.

There are certain members of the State-wide School Survey Board who are frankly of the opinion that too much attention has been given to "jimcracus," as the more modern features of the curriculum have been styled, at the expense of the fundamentals. These point to the weakness displayed by students in both the elementary and secondary schools in spelling and grammar as a result.

Some time during the month of April or the early part of May workmen from the Automobile Club of Maryland and the State Roads Commission will be in Kent and Queen Annes county posting signs. These signs will serve a double purpose. They will be located at danger points along the State road, warning autoists of treacherous corners or abrupt turns and will also bear the name of the town to which the roads lead. Mr. Applegarth, road engineer, will superintend the work of erection.

IN THE STUD SEASON 1915!

AT LAST

Here is a powerful little machine which does the work of five horses—never gets tired—costs less for fuel than horse feed AND STOPS EATING WHEN IT STOPS WORKING.

Because it travels continuously and faster than horses, ONE MAN with the BULL TRACTOR can plow more than TWO MEN with two three-horse teams. Pulls your Plows, Seeders, Harvesters, Mowers, Drills, Disks and then does any belt work requiring up to twelve-horse power. Guaranteed as long as you own it. Saves you money every day you use it.

Write at once for Descriptive Illustrated Booklet and special offer to farmers.

A Public Demonstration will be given upon the arrival of a carload lot now in transit. Full particulars as to time and place announced later.

SPECIAL PRICE ON BOILER TUBES.
