THE will of the late Wm. H. Jackson was filed for probate in Salisbury on Tuesday. It distributes an estate valued at $1,250,000 among his wife and two children.

DON'T stop until you have finished, Mr. Roosevelt. You are doing your country and yourself a great service by unearthing the rottenness and corruption of New York State politics.

FROM all that we can learn there is no question as to Mayor Preston's re-election as mayor of Baltimore in May. The only question is as to the size of his majority.

IF the people of this town and county desire to continue paying heavy taxes let them nominate the Organization candidates for the Senate and House of Delegates.

MR. W. B. COPPER, candidate for State Comptroller, attended the annual meeting of the Tri-County Bankers' Association in Princess Anne, Somerset county, on Thursday evening, and made a strong speech on modern financering. There was no political significance attached to Mr. Copper's visit. He was simply a guest of the lower Shore bankers.

HON. EMERSON C. HARRINGTON candidates for Governor on the John Walter Smith ticket, was in Chestertown yesterday mingling with the voters and shaking hands with the people. Mr. Harrington is a good mixer, and has a pleasant manner. He was in charge of the Smith people here and held a sort of reception in front of the Kent News office.

BY the make-up of their ticket, the Organization has injected the issue of Chestertown vs. the county into this campaign. All right. The Antis have met the issue, and they will line up with the county districts because we do not believe and we do not intend if we can prevent it, that Chestertown shall have the best places on the ticket, as well as the costliest school houses in the county.

OTHO THOMAS, ESQ., a former member of the House of Delegates from Queen Annes, has announced his candidacy for the State Senate. It is believed that Mr. Thomas is the real choice of Mr. John E. George, the county Organization leader, and that J. H. C. Legg, Esq., who has already announced his candidacy for the Senate, will not be George's choice.

THE Baltimore Sunday and Monday American contained excellent portraits and very complimentary writeups of Mr. W. Bradford Copper, candidate for State Comptroller on the Democratic ticket, with Senator Lee. The American states that Mr. Copper's candidacy is meeting with much encouragement among the large banking and business interests throughout the State, and that his ability and strong character will make him a formidable candidate. There is every indication that Mr. Copper will be the next State Comptroller.

KIND OF MEN TO ELECT.

When Senator Blair Lee was a member of the Maryland Senate he was always fighting for improved methods in making appropriations and safeguarding the State Treasury. His plan was through "publicity." He was opposed to the old method of gum shoeing things through the Legislature and of wasting thousands of dollars at every session by useless legislative orders. He always contended that the Democratic party had nothing to fear by fighting in the open and giving the peeple a reason for passing each piece of legislation.

Blair Lee and W. B. Copper are the kind of big, brainy men the State of Maryland needs at this time to take charge of the people's work at Annapolis. With Lee in the Excutive Chair and Copper at the head of the State Finances, the tax-payers of Maryland would be in more sound and safe position than for many, many years past. In supporting these two Democrats the rank and file of the party throughout the State can feel that they are protecting themselves from the ravages of antiquated methods and gum shoe politics which have no place in this enlightened age of progress and intelligent statesmanship.

WITH two such men as Senator Blair Lee and W. Bradford Copper fighting the people's fight for control of the State government, what fear have the people that their government will not be administered in the interest of economy and efficiency? When Senator Lee was in the Maryland Senate he used his influence and his vote in the interest of the people. He demonstrated that the people's interest is paramount with him. When he went to the United States Senate he did not have to be driven to support President Wilson and the great principles for which his administration stands. He voted right because he believed the Wilson administration to be in the interest of the people. Senator Smith was in control of the Maryland Legislature during the last session, and by the creation of so many high salaried commissions and other offices, the State to-day faces a deficit of $1,000,000. Who got the benefit of this extravagance? The very Senators and delegates who obeyed their master's command. Mr. Harrington, Senator Smith's candidate for Governor, was the State Comptroller, and never once, as far as known during the Legislature, did he warn Senator Smith of the consequences of his action. H waited until after the close of the Legislature and practically on the eve of the announcement of his candidacy for Governor he tells the people what has been done, and then starts a campaign for economy. Comptroller Harrington is Senator Smith's candidate for Governor, and so long as Senator Smith controls the Democratic party in this State, the people will suffer as they did in the last Legislature, it makes no difference whether Harrington is Governor or whether some other Smith man is in the State House. The election of Lee as Governor and Copper as Comptroller with the rest of the Democratic ticket is the only solution of the difficulty which confronts the people now. And in Senator Lee the people of this State have always found a warm supporter.

THERE IS A WIDESPREAD OPINION throughout the entire State that Mr. Emerson C. Harrington, Senator Smith's candidate for Governor, cannot be elected if he is nominated. This is said without any disparagement to Mr. Harrington personally, because personally he is a fine fellow, but he has the stamp of Senator Smith upon him so plainly that the people are shy of him. The people have it in for Senator Smith because of his domination of the last Legislature, which was the most extravagant in the history of the State, having created, according to Mr. Harrington himself, a deficit of more than $1,000,000 in the State treasury, caused by the creation of numerous high salaried offices and commissions, which are regarded as the payment of political debts at the people's expense. The people are not liable to forget this, and there are thousands of Democrats in the State who will not vote for Harrington because of his entangling alliances with Senator Smith. The people fear that with Harrington as the candidate for Governor there will be another experience of the Gorman campaign. Senator Lee has the ear of the people. They have confidence in him, as is shown by the wonderful majorities he has received whenever he has been before the people. He is the strongest Democrat in the State to-day, because he CAN WIN in the election by securing the support of thousands of independent voters who will not touch a died-in-the-wool Smith man. It is foolish to say that Lee is weaker than he was four years ago. That is jingoism. When the real alliance becomes known, it will be found that Lee is stronger to-day than ever. Let's make it Lee and be done with it.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

Chestertown, Md., April 21st, 1915.

DEAR SIRS:

When the assessment was last held in Kent county many of our citizens complained that their property was assessed too high. The Organization controlled two assessors in each district, the Anti-Organization had one local assessor. If any one was assessed too high it can hardly be laid at the door of the Anti-Organization for the reason that "two can beat one."

The following letter has been addressed to the County Commissioners:

"April 19, 1915.

MR. SAMUEL HICKS,
Clerk to County Commissioners,
Chestertown, Md.

DEAR SIR:

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. wish to notify you that they will appear before the Board of County Commissioners the 27th day of this month to note the appeal on the assessment of their trackage, of the Delaware Railroad Company, I am,

Yours very truly,
(Signed) WILLIAM W. BECK,
Solicitor."

If the Pennsylvania Railroad desires its assessment lowered then it should show by its books at what it carries, at its own valuation, this extremely valuable Branch Road. This was demanded of them when they applied for a decreased assessment years ago. Unless they furnish it why should our County Commissioners have listened to their request? They did not.

I do not know at what they carry this road on their books. No one else outside of the corporation apparently knows. All efforts of mine have failed to accomplish the feat of ascertaining this simple fact. If they want a reduction in assessment let them be perfectly frank and open with our County Board, give them full information upon this point, produce their books and they will be met in a fair spirit or ought to be so met by the County Commissioners.

They will have to do this on appeal. If they will not do this why should their assessment be lowered? The trouble with their assessment is really that they are assessed at about one-fifth of the value of the railroad.

This railroad, with its monopoly of transportation on the Eastern Shore, is assessed on our tax books at.....$370,295.00

With a mileage of 35.53.

This shows it is taxed at the rate per mile, on its tracks, stations, real estate, &c., of less than..... $10,050 00

How can this rate be lessened other than at the expense of the farmer? I claim, and I do not believe the railroad will open its books and let us see that the railroad's own valuation of this property, for stock and bonding purposes, holds the same out to the public at a valuation of less than $50,000 per mile.

The farmers in Kent county are paying taxes on three-fourths of the value of their farms or more, in some instances than the entire value.

Let our tax-payers take an interest in this. If the Pennsylvania Railroad in Kent pays twice the tax it does in some of the other counties, is that any reason why it should not pay a fair tax in Kent? Is it not rather a reflection upon the other counties that the Pennsylvania should have such influence locally as to secure such excessively low rates of assessment? Let the Pennsylvania R. R. open its books. Let us deal with them fairly and justly, but do not let us be compelled to reduce the taxes of a great corporation like this unless we know we are absolutely just to our own citizens and tax-payers. Let our citizens come to town and listen to the hearing or let them write letters of remonstrance to the County Commissioners and show that we are wide-awake upon this subject. Let the court fight the appeal. Every dollar taken off of this railroad will be paid by you and me. Heavy taxes have to be raised under present conditions, and under the Acts passed by Senator Beck and his colleagues in the last Legislature, and now Senator Beck, who caused increased taxation, appears in the role of trying to decrease the taxes paid by the railroad and increase the taxes we pay. Is this fair?

Kent's tax will become in a few years more and more burdensome.

Yours very respectfully,
HOPE H. BARROLL.

Mechanics For Prohibition.

National and State prohibition was favored on Wednesday in a resolution passed at the forty-sixth annual session of the State Council of Maryland, Junior Order United American Mechanics, held at the Junior Order Temple, 100 North Paca street, Baltimore.
