LOCAL MATTERS

Reception to New Pastor.—Rev. J. P. Nichols, the new pastor of Still Pond M. E. Church, and his family, were given a cordial public reception last Friday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League. The reception took place in the Sabbath school room which had been tastefully and beautifully decorated with potted plants and flowers, and the exercises included an interesting program of recitations and musical selections. Addresses of welcome were made by Messrs. John N. Bennett and A. J. Hackett, and feelingly responded to by the new pastor. Refreshments were served.

Black Bass Hangs Self.—Mr. Walter L. Elburn, whose farm borders on the American Strawboard mill pond, saw a great commotion in the pond the other morning, and upon investigating he found that a fine black bass, weighing three pounds and a half, had hung itself upon the branch of a tree in the water. It is supposed that the big fish was chasing a small fish and in his rush he mistook the tree limb for the fish and was hanged. This seems like a fish story, and it is so far as Mr. Elburn is concerned for he enjoyed a mighty good meal on the big fellow.

He was compelled to buy a horse and wagon and incur other expenses, and it is unfortunate that he should be laid off at this time. We hope the Commission may find some means of giving Mr. Carter another job.
