Vacationland NOTES

By MELVINA A. JACKSON

SEND YOUR CHILD TO CAMP THIS SUMMER!

When I was a youngster, the happiest, brightest, most enjoyable days spent during the long, glorious summer season were those wonderful weeks at camp.

No child who has ever experienced the joys of camping season will ever forget dear mother and dad for having provided it for them . . . and no child who has not will ever forgive his or her parents for not providing it.

Supervised camping is one of the most important experiences in the development of America's citizens of tomorrow, and listed below are some of these camps:

Activities at most of these camps include hiking, softball, badminton, volleyball, chapel, baseball, tennis, horseshoes, fishing.

Track and field, swimming instructions, riffery, basketball, glee club, archery, diving, dramatics, movies, boxing, overnight hikes, dancing.

Community Living

Recently in the mails came a letter from one of our advertisers, Mrs. Grace Bond, who with her sister, operates a summer camp for girls from the ages of 5 to 10 in Chesilhurst, N.J. Mrs. Bond wrote:

"We are endeavoring to provide a clean, happy, healthy educational enviroment for girls during the summer season. We offer 'community living complete with salt air in rural surroundings of the pine area north of Atlantic City.

"We have the services of a trained nurse and near by doctor. I am dedicating my life to my little two - year - old granddaughter whose mother, my only daughter, passed away during childbirth and in so doing would like to provide summer surroundings for little girls."

Isn't that a wonderful gesture! For complete information write Mrs. Grace Bond, 2751 Butler st., E. Elmhurst, L.I., N.Y.

CAMP NAPRETEP: Located in Glenwild, N.Y. It's interracial for children from 3 to 12 years of age; season from July 1 to August 26.

For a wonderful summer your kids will long remember, contact Mrs. Willa White, 825 E. 169rd st., Bronx 59, N.Y., Phone DA. 9-2442.

A YMCA summer camp for real boys is CAMP DRUID HILL, located on the Patuxent river, in Huntingtown, Md.

The season opens July 1, with four two - week periods during the summer season and offers a well-rounded YMCA camp program adapted to the rolling countryside. Well chosen camp leaders participate with the boys in special events.

Get your application blank now by writing Joseph E. Lee, Druid Hill Ave. YMCA, 1619 Druid Hill ave., Baltimore 17, Md., Lafayette 3-6466.

CAMP BRYTON ROCK, "A better camp for better children," is located in the Catskill Mountains, N.Y. It's interracial for children from 4 to 12.

In 19th Season

Opening its 19th year of continuous operation, the season begins July 1 to August 25.

For information write the Rev. R. L. McHugh, First Emanuel church, 105 W. 130th st., New York, N.Y., Phone WA. 6-1349.

Located on the Eastern Shore of Maryland near Choptank river, is CAMP CAL-MAR for girls between 4 and 12 years. Camp season opens June 23 to Sept. 1. For further information write Camp Cal-Mar, 1452 Congress st., nw, Washington, D.C. JOhnson 2-1455.

In the glorious Catskill Mountains in Oliverea, N.Y., is HAPPY ACRES SUMMER CAMP which is open for 8 weeks beginning July 4.

You find here trained personnel, medical care, plenty of camp activities, reasonable rates. For boys and girls age 4 and up. Get all information from Mrs. Ruth E. Fuller, 259 Howland ave., Englewood, N.J.

A. And T. Begins Lyceum Series

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The Comic Opera Players, a touring company of New York, presented "The Old Maid and The Thief" recently at A. and T. college as the initial presentation of the summer lyceum series.

On Tuesday evening, June 16, Harriet Howard Stewart; concert pianist of St. Louis, was presented in recital.

The remaining summer lyceum series include:

"The Taming of the Shrew," by the Washington Repertory Players, June 25; William Stevens, Canadian pianist, July 7; a special teaching staff, production, July 9, arts program, July 13; The Continental-Aires, quartet, July 21, and Diana Moncado, Filipino soprano, August .

Tonkins Brothers Win Contest

The Tonkins brothers, Paul, 11, and David, 10 were the two lucky winners in the Joe Louis-AFRO-AMERICAN vacation contest which closed at the Howard Theatre, Thursday.

The youngsters sons of Mrs. Lucille Tonkins 1015 Addison rd, ne, will receive a two weeks vacation this summer as the guests of the former heavy weight champion and the AFRO at Richard's farm.

While there, they will receive a course in body-building at the camp owned in partnership by the Brown Bomber and Robbie Richards, veteran sports writer.

Winning over a large number of entrants in the vacation contest, the boys, in true Joe Louis style, said, "We're glad we won."

ENCORES ... and ... ECHOES

By E. B. REA

THE VENERABLE "Father of the Blues," W. C. Handy realized a life's ambition when presented the honorary degree of music recently at Wilberforce University. There was a flow of rhetorical phrases between the recipient, Mr. Handy, and the conferee, Dr. Charles L. Hill, Wilberforce president.

REACHING BACK into the classical, Dr. Hill, in conferring the degree on the sage of the music world, said:

"APOLLO, GOD OF light

and patrol deity of musicians, had smiled upon his soul and had breathed into him a creative genius that one day, should rival the strains of Orpheus and the sweet melodies of Pan who piped for yonder gods of classical antiquity."

MR. HANDY, now 79, and one of the 600 leading contributors to American musical culture who went to the top under adverse circumstances replied with humility and eloquence:

"I have waited 61 years for this day and it's been a wonderful one."

THE HONOR, although coming in the twilight of Mr. Handy's life, is richly deserved by the "father" of a distinct and novel contribution to the world.

THE RESTLESS HUMANS — Bert Hall and his Three B's and a Honey doing a stint down Miami, Fla. way. Lily-white Miami University has invited them to play a concert at the institution.

HILLARY ROSE, Boston band leader and Ruby expecting a new note in October ... Warner Lawson has just ended his eleventh year as dean of the school of music at Howard University.

WHEN YOU SEE the dancing Edwards Sisters, Ruth and Louise, in the big Rhythm and Blues show, you'll fell in love with them because they sparkle and bubble over with talent and personality.

Their costuming and excellent stage presence make them a delightful attraction.

MICHAEL ANGELO Graham, Washington's astronomer of the talent skies who has discovered a number of up-and-coming sal-ellites in the entertainment world, is making new finds for D.C. Records.

HAMPTON BROWN

Pearl Bailey to do a series of theatre dates in Canada next month ... She'll be back in her hometown, Philadelphia, on July 17 ... Piney Brown's "Whispering Blues" and "Walk-A-Black-and-Fall" swinging the juke boxes.

Eartha Kitt, chirp of the Broadway hit, "New Faces," has recorded "African Lullaby," in authentic Swahili. She did "Uska Dara" in Turkish, and "C'est Si Bon" in French. She's South Carolina-born.

HAVE YOU HEARD — Varetta Dillard's "Mercy Mr. Percy"; the Orioles "I Cover the Waterfront;" Tiny Bradshaw's "Heavy Juice"; or Jimmy McCracklin's "She Felt Too Good"?

Lionel Hampton, now at Bradley's Bandbox, is observing his 12th year as a band leader. He's the only name band in the U.S. to play both the Democratic and GOP inaugural Balls in recent years.

Billy Ward's Dominoes will be featured in 3-D feature short for Columbia, which will be filmed at New York's Harlem ... And, Bert Keyes has done it again on Rama Records with two hot numbers, "After All I Have Been To You" and "Be With The One You Love."
