Progress overwhelms Mrs. Young

To city planners, razing slum section to make way for modern apartments is progress. But to Mrs. Jeanette Young, 68, moving out of the house she has lived in for 22 years is just plain aggravating.

The little lady, now keeping house for her son, Leonard Young, Jr., at 1506 May Court, wants to know how couples get enough furniture and utensils in an apartment to properly conduct a household.

A member of Christ Methodist church, her special hobby is church excursions. She has been a widow for 15 years. The other member of her family is a daughter, Mrs. Elaine Wardella of 619 Sterling st.

Love-Hall wedding held

Chosing for her wedding dress a frock of ice blue organza, and a nosegay of white baby mums, Miss Ruth Hall exchanged vows with Charles Love in a ceremony in Emanuel Christian church, Sunday afternoon at three-thirty.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle and attended by Miss Helen Schuyler, who wore blue organza, also, and a corsage of blue flowers.

Mr. Graham Best Man

Bernard Graham was best man.

The Rev. Wilbur Waters officiated.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, parents of the bride, entertained at a reception at their home, 1927 Payson st. After the reception the couple left for Paradise Farm, New York.

For travel she wore beige linen, with matching accessories. Upon their return they will be at home at 2319 Poplar Grove st.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Mary Love of this city, is a student at Morgan State college.

Miss Beatrice C. Diggs wed to James F. Gardner

with Lula Jones Garrett

A vision in white embroidered organdy over bridal satin, Beatrice C. Diggs, Morgan State college senior, swept down the aisle of St. James Protestant Episcopal church, Saturday, to become the bride of James F. Gardner, son of Mrs. Addie Gardner.

With her pretty frock, the bride wore a finger-tip veil of nylon net and lace and carried a modern bouquet of white roses and gardenias.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Diggs, she was given in marriage by her father, and had as her matron of honor, Eleanora Mason. Best man was Robert Watty.

The accompanying bevy of bridesmaids included Julia Montague, Lorraine Thomas, Helen Gordon, Phyllis Brown, Gloria Thompson, Elizabeth Gregory.

Ushers included Nathan Scott, Delmar Davis, Evander Gainey of Washington, Jonas Jones, Robert Watty and Carton Brewer.

Palms and white gladiolas and asters decorated the altar at which the couple exchanged vows before Father Leonard Anderson. Sinclair Swann was soloist.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Diggs entertained at a reception in Morgan Christian center. For the occasion, Mrs. Diggs was gowned in blue, with a corsage of pink roses; and Mrs. Gardner selected a pink frock and pink rose corsage.

The same pink theme was selected by the bride for travel on her wedding trip, with the bridegroom kept a secret even from her.

Upon their return, they will be at home at 926 Springfield ave.

Mrs. Blake Wed

Add to other wedding news the item, that Margaret Blake and Julius J. McRae surprised their friends by going quietly off to the parsonage of the Rev. Baxter L. Matthews, Sunday, being married and motoring off to Atlantic City and New York for a week.

Twas the second venture for both, she having divorced Dr. James Blake some months back, and he having been divorced by Mrs. Jennie Francis a year or so back.

And Mrs. Genevieve P Carrington (of the faculty of School No.-41) became Mrs. George R. Fields, this week.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Kelly-Jackson in Metropolitan Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. McKinley J. Howard attended the couple. The bride was charming in a navy blue coat frock, with a corsage of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Fields, too, went off to New York and Atlantic City on their wedding trip.

Potpourri

Vivian Roberts (she's the secretary at the Druid Health Center) and James Dougherty (he's the caterer) have set an October 24th date with the person.

Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Trader of New York (she was formerly Harriet Peat of this city) have an addition, a baby boy, since the 13th.

Elsworth Wilson Jr. put a question to his Dad, the other day. Would he (Dad) mind becoming a granddad sometime about January? Quipped the Elder Wilson, "It's a little late for the inquiry, isn't it?" Elsworth E., and the former Ruth Taylor are the expectants.

Party Prattle

Dr. and Mrs. Orris G. Walker had as house guests at their summer home at Arundel-on-the Bay, Arnita Grinner, Hazel F. Clarke of Washington and Judith H. Murray.

The Walkers had a barbecue party on the lawn for their guests, adding:

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. V. Charles Hodges of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. John Ewell of Washington, Yvonne Ewell, Isabelle Garner, Otho Ellis, the Joseph Hoopers, Vivian Bundy, Beretha Cargill, Esther Laforest, Margery Lake, Mabel Byrd and the Richard Powermoores of Chicago, Ill.

'Twas a very elaborate dinner party at which Mr. and Mrs. James Cornish of Roland Park entertained on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Stanley of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Owings and Mrs. Alverta Dorsey were guests.

Peregrinators

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Williams flew to Rochester, N.Y., Thursday, to join other members of the family on a motor trip through Ohio, thence back through Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bundick of Roanoke, Va., week-ended her with his sisters, Mrs. Mary E. Trapp and Mrs. K. Lilious Bryant.

Dr. and Mrs. George N. Redd (he's a dean at Fisk university) visited relative, here, this week. Dean Redd was guest of Paul Henderson at the Frontiers meeting on Tuesday.

William Franklin Furr (Morgan grad, now teaching at Southern university) is in town with his bride, the former Catherine Prevost of Baton Rouge, La. They are house guests of his cousins, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cornish.

Schoolmarms Edna J. Howard and Genevieve Fields returned from Denver, Colo., last week, after attending the Shriners convention. The Reid Stanleys (Aurelia) are having fun on Cape Cod after visiting in New York and Boston.

Roy S. Bond, attorney, started off vacationing in New York City and Rye, N.Y., went on to New England, and says, he went "Everywhere." Mrs. Edna Johnson of Morgan Park is vacationing in Atlantic City.

A card from Ruth Russell, Annie Frisby and Alice Keys extols the beauties of Bermuda. Anethia Williams sends a "Hi" from way down in New Orleans. Took her small son along. Mrs. Robert Quickley is summering in Buffalo, N.Y., and Canada.

Bunny and Jeanette Chisholm, and their daughter, Roxanne, came in, this week, from a summer jaunt to Ohio, Canada and Niagara Falls. The Chuck Richardsons are also in from jaunting about New England and Canada for some weeks. Lillian Parrott has returned form a jaunt to Atlantic City and Cape May.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burles of St. Louis, Mo., who have been seeing the town under the wing of Ellsworth Wilson, topped the week for feted guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wilson, Mr. and Mrs Robert Carter, Mr. and Mrs. John Koger, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Dallin Wicks and Mrs. Lillian Parrott were among party-givers for them. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burgess were their hosts at dinner, and the Linwood Kogers held forth at luncheon.

Phi Delta Kappa sorors will resume meetings with a session at the YWCA on Sept. 19. Incidentally, the sorority did not give Muriel Wilson a four-year scholarship, as reported.

Miss Wilson won a $25 award in their recent scholarship contest. Her standing was of such excellence that the Eastern region of the sorority voted to confer honors on her education throughout her college career.

The dining room at the Madison Avenue Branch Y.W.C.A. will open on Tuesday, at 5:00 p.m.

Members of the Y.W.C.A. who have engaged tables for four include Mrs. Edna Over Gray, Mrs. Louis Harmon, Mrs. Harriet White, Mrs. Ethel J. Day, Mrs. J. Arnett Frisby, Mrs. Bruce Alleyne, Miss Emma E. Bright and Mrs. Frank Phillips. Miss A. Dukye Wood will have a table for eight. Mrs. Ida Watkins, manager, will be on hand to greet guests as usual.

SUPPORT SHRINERS' BOAT-RIDE — These ladies, wives and friends of members of Jerusalem Temple No. 4 Shriners, are busy selling tickets for the Monday, Aug. 31, boatride on the Tolchester. Tickets are on sale throughout the city. In the photo are Mesdames Carrie Nichols, Esther Gordon, Carroll Walton, Willie Cade, Geneva Kirkland, Mamie Brooke and Marian Gilliam.

Miss Johnson, Mr. Hawkins in home wedding ceremony

Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Dora Johnson and James Hawkins, here, recently, at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Johnson.

The six o'clock ceremony was witnessed by members of the immediate families only.

Miss Johnson wore a bouffant full-length gown of nylon net over pearl satin, topped by several panels of Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil was trimmed in imported last. Tiny pearl earrings matched the six row pearls at the base of her halfhat which held the veil. She carried a small bouquet of gardenias which tumbled down to one gardenia daintily sewed to flowing net.

Sister Attends

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Elsie Johson of Indianapolis, Ind. The maid of honor wore a frock of blue taffeta with skirt of net, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

George Davis served as best man. Mr. Johnson gave his sister in marriage.

The men wore black formal trousers with white coats. The ceremony was performed by the

Reception Held

A reception took place immediately after the ceremony. A spray of white gladioli graced the fireplace and bouquets on each side made a lovely background for the receiving line.

Mrs. Johnson wore for her daughter's wedding a blue street length dress with pink lace bodice, and a small blue velvet cloche. Her corsage was of purple orchids.

Guests at the reception included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Dyson, Raymond Johnson, Russell Williams, Louis Neal William Sanders, William Stokes, Thomas E. Harris.

David Bruce still guards secret of famous Maryland crab croquets

When Governor and Mrs. Theodore McKeldin entertain these days, it is likely that the menu will include the famous crab croquettes from the Hughes Catering company, one of the three caterers now serving the Maryland executive mansion.

100-Year-Old Recipe

The croquettes are made from a hundred-year-old recipe. Custodian of the secret formula is 81-year-old David Bruce. Mrs. Bruce had the recipe handed down to him 60 years ago by the late William Alexander under whom he served an apprenticeship.

He guards the secret as carefully as you would the location of a gold mine.

The secret of the croquettes is in the sauce, Mr. Bruce will tell you. Ask about the sauce and he will admit that he uses cream eggs, flour, milk, and butter.

But, as every cook knows, that is telling very little. How much of what and in what order the ingredients are mixed is what counts.

Bruce told the AFRO, Tuesday, that he was born on Nov. 14, 1871, that he feels as well as he did as a boy, that he just knows his eighty-odd years leaves him not as young.

Five ft. and 3 in. tall, he weighs 125 pounds, still spurns riding to and from his home at Pennsylvania ave. and Dolphin st. to his place of employment at 12 S. Center st.

His wife is the former Miss Rosa Beasley of Edenton, N. C., to whom he has been married 50 years. They are parents of four boys and two girls. The two daughters and one of the sons are living.

Mr. Bruce figures that he has made at least a million croquettes during his career. He has served as many as 1000 at a time.

Elder Michaux has 'ball park' meetings

Elder Michaux launched his annual series of "ball park" revival meetings at Griffith Stadium before a huge crowd of enthusiastic followers, Sunday. His Famous Cross Choir of 156 voices, with American Flags on their shoulders, marched into the park to the tune of "Onward Christian Soldiers."

He spoke on the "Battle Of Satan and Christ" for the kingdoms of the world. The Elder climaxed his sermon by showing a motion picture of a vision that God had given him of Stalin. The vision reveals that, as certain rulers rise up, the first letters of their names spell "Christ," and the passage in Revelations 12:15 begins to be fulfilled.

The Elder cited Churchill, Hitler, Roosevelt, Il Duce, Stalin, and Tojo—the first letters of whose names spell "Christ."

He said they began the battle that now rages for the kingdoms of the world. The battle will not end until Christ shall return and become ruler of the nations of the earth, as stated in Revelations 12:15.

The motion picture was arranged by Elder Michaux and photographed by the Church photographer, Willie Jackson.

The opening prayer was offered by r. Louis R. Patmon of Berkley, Calif., a linguist and master of 22 different languages who has traveled around the world seven times and who accompanied Elder Michaux on his trip to th borders of Siberia. There he dropped a copy of the Bible at th "door of the Iron Curtain."

Elder Alvin Shelton led the choir and audience in a ten minute song service.

When the lights in the park were turned out, member of the choir raised a glittering cross above his shoulders and sang—"Oh, The Cross, The Wonderful Cross."

This Sunday, the service will honor the returning Korean POW, Cpl. Webster Johnson of Annapolis, Md., who has been asked to be the honored guest. He has just arrived in America after spending 22 months in a Red prison camp.

The Elder's text for Sunday night will be "Christ died to make men holy; the boys in Korea who gave their lives, died to make men free."

There will be three more Sunday night services at the Ball Park after Sunday. They will be climaxed by the Elder's Big Baptizing which is expected to attract thousands from various cities, on Sept. 20. A Freewill offering will be taken.

Miss Mary L. Mills becomes bride of Clifton J. Turner

Miss Mary L. Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Mills, became the bride of Clifton J. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carville Turner, here, Saturday.

The wedding took place in Gospel Tabernacle Baptist church with the Rev. Luke G. Reynolds officiating. Music was by Mrs. Mary J. Turner, organist, and Samuel Tunstall, soloist.

Wears Lace

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over pleated nylon net, featuring a Queen Anne collar. Her finger-tip veil was attached to a lace cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried white roses and stephonotis.

Miss Mills was given in marriage by her father and attended by Miss Geraldine Myers.

Miss Meyers wore a ballerina frock of pale blue net trimmed in Chantilly lace, and carried pink asters.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mills selected a dress of green mattalase and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Turner wore pink and gray. Her corsage was also of pink roses.

For her wedding trip to Philadelphia, Mrs. Turner selected a Navy blue chiffon dress, Navy velvet hat and blue and white shoes.

Out-of-Town Guests

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception were Mrs. Lillian Rollins and Joseph Lee of Washington, Mrs. Alice Pinkney of Annapolis, Lee Dixon of New York, Mrs. Estella Hardy and Mrs. Lillian Hardy of South Carolina and Mr. and Mrs. Bell of Philadelphia.

ROBERT WHITE HOME FOR HOPKINS HOSPITAL

Robert White, 15-year-old son of Mrs. Helen White, 1500 May Court, is home from John Hopkins hospital, where he was taken three weeks ago.

Pedestrian Responsibility

Pedestrians have as much responsibility on the road as operators of automobiles. They should observe traffic regulations at all times to prevent accidents.
