POMONA GRANGE.

A Splendid Meeting at Fairlee Hall—Good Singing—Pleasant Intercourse.

Kent county, Md., Pomona Grange was entertained by Fairlee Grange, No. 249, on April 30th. There was an unusually large attendance, enthusiastic and full of important questions at every session.

The meeting was called to order at 10.30 A. M. by Worthy Master W. G. Symth. Chorus by the grange choir. Among the visiting grangers were: National lecturer, Mr. G. W. F. Gaunt, of New Jersey, and Mrs. Gaunt; Mrs. Reese and Mrs. Snyden, of Delaware; Lecturer H. M. McCulloh, of Elkton; Judge and Mrs. Lynch, of Roslyn Grange, Baltimore county; Mr. Henry Thompson, an ex-master of Delaware, brought greetings and an invitation to visit their next Pomona meeting. Reports of committees—Rural delivery of mail—Resolved, That we insist upon a delivery on holidays.

Good roads—The good roads committee recommend that Pomona Grange go on record as favoring the building of substantial roads to shipping points by water and rail, but opposed to spending vast sums of money on highly improved roads which do not benefit the farmer. Signed, S. S. Hepbron, A. L. Harris, E. A. Corey, R. R. Hill.

Resolutions endorsing Dr. H. J. Patterson for president of Maryland Agricultural College, believing that not to do so, would be a calamity to the college and State, and that every member write a letter to the trustees urging his selection. National Lecturer G. W. F. Gaunt made a strong and helpful address, followed by Mr. McCulloh, of Elkton. Both gentlemen complimented the earnestness, progress and final success of measures endorsed by the grange. A sumptuous dinner was served and general good cheer prevailed.

Afternoon session convened at 2.30 P. M. Address of welcome, worthy master W. G. Smyth; response by Senator Wm. M. McCulloh, lecturer; Mrs. E. A. Corey read "Old Glory" in a very acceptable manner; prayer for peace by Rev. Mr. Jester; "Old Glory" was then sung by the grange choir; instrumental music by Galena Grange, Mr. Andrew McCauley, cornetist; Mr. Dallis Manlove, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Holt Woodall, was indeed a treat. The audience would not be satisfied until they gave three selections. A paper on domestic economy by Mrs. Evelyn Harris, was full of helpful advice (to the men). Reading by Mrs. Walter Fletcher was as usual enjoyed by all. Open discussion, "Does it pay to have a good garden on the farm?" brought out much good advice, proving that it does pay, especially from a health point of view. Recitation by Mrs. Steven Newcomb, of Galena Grange, was full of practical wit and thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Snyder, of Delaware, gave a highly instructive address upon "canning clubs and domestic science in the schools. A duet by Mesdames Jones and Hatcherson was most acceptable.

Mr. Frank Wheelan, Jr., brought greetings from the new grange at Massey, and complemented the way in which the discussions were conducted. The absence of Rev. S. S. Hepburn was deeply regretted, and the secretary instructed to write him expressing our sysmpathy. Rural credits was explained at length by Mr. W. G. Smyth. It was decided to hold a State-wide picnic at Betterton, Aug. 19th. National Master Oliver Wilson will address the meeting, and there will be other interesting features.

After a well served supper the evening exercise began by conferring the fifth degree upon a class of 86, by Fairlee Grange. The work, under the direction of Mrs. Snyder, of Del., was given in a most approved and pleasing manner. Mr. Gaunt, who is always interesting, gave excellent advice. Music—Galena Grange. Duet—Mrs. Hudson and Ida C. Crew.

FAIRLEE GRANGE.

Fairlee Grange held its usual weekly meeting on Wednesday with a good attendance. The house cleaning and poultry raising subjects were largely discussed by nearly everyone present and good ideas advanced. The next special meeting will be on May 19, at 3 P. M. Usual basket supper. The Garner will be in charge of Dr. Frank Smith.

Will The Postal Department Make Parcel Post Egg Shipping Safe?

It goes without saying that everybody is interested in the safe shipmen of eggs by parcel post. The only question at issue in the matter, is how eggs can be sent through the mails and delivered at their destination without damage. There are many good containers in the market designed for the protectian of eggs sent by mail, but it must be obvious to every thinking person that no matter how strong the container, the eggs, inside, are liable to suffer damage when the mail bag receives a severe impact.

It must be remembered that no particular care is taken by the postal authorities in the transportation of eggs or other fragile article. They are packed indiscriminately in the mail bags, with bottles, knives, metals and other hard substances. The bags are sent to the mail cars piled high on huge wagons. They are tossed about by the men employed, apparently quite regardless of care, and often thrown many feet to hard platform or pavement. In many small towns or stations, the mail bags are hung on a crane to be snatched inside with terrific force by a fast mail train going 60 or more miles per hour. Does any one really believe that such an impact does not severely shake every parcel in the mail bag? Assuming that under the present condition of handling the mails, the eggs are quite certain to suffer injury, what then is the remedy?

As manufacturers of egg boxes and containers, we have keenly watched, for many years, the development of the project of shipping eggs by mail. Many experiments along this line have convinced us that it is not practical to ship eggs by mail unless under a special mail classification. When the postal authorities place eggs under special classification in the mails, it will mean that shipping will be insured against careless handling, and the shipment of eggs by parcel post made practical and successful.

It seems conclusive therefore, that the remedy lies entirely with the Post Office Drpartment; it is quite within reason that the matter will be taken up by the Government at no distant day, and the long felt want be brought to a successful issue.

Parcel post shipment of eggs, successfully established, is a matter that deeply interests every family, and indeed, the civilized world. It is a realization that facinates the imagination, and will be hailed with delight by millions of people.
