racial conflict in South Africa."

Not To Mention South Africa

M. Simpson told the AFRO Thursday that he does not plan to comment on the South African situation in his talk tonight. Highlighting the Thursday session was the installation of the newly elected officers for the coming year. Those installed by the Rev. D. C. Rice, pastor of Union Baptist church, Montclair, N.J. included:

The Revs. P. A. Bishop, Rich Square, N.C., president; J. Vance. Meiver, Orange, N.J., first vice - president; C. W. B. Gordon, West, Va., second vice-president; J. H. Moore, Wilmington, N.C., recording secretary;

J. J. Freeman, Norfolk, Va., assistant secretary; J. B. Henderson Norfolk, Va.; statistician, and A. W. Brown, Richmond, Va., treasurer.

President's Address

The outgoing president, The Rev. Ulysses G. Wilson, pastor of the Zion Baptist church, Portsmouth, Va., made his annual address Wednesday night.

He pointed out that the increase of the world population, and conditions and tension in South Africa have hindered the missionary work of the church.

He said that unless "the church can achieve its initiative and greater mobility, its sphere of activity will gradually be reduced to nil."

Using Kenya, South Africa, as an example, he said, "The white man lives on edge, under the Mau, Mau shadow. The Mau Mau may be suppressed, but the social and racial tensions will remain.

"Here is a field ripe for Christian missions. The white man cannot maintain his position or power by force; only the love of God can save us from the worst. It is either Christianity or Communism. The moment for decision is now."

Progress In India

Delegates learned of the progress of the Lott Carey Mission in India from Mumtaz Ali Leve, New Delhi, India, who spoke this morning on "The New India."

This afternoon, a symposium on "Meaningful Missions" will be held at Enon church at 3 p.m. under the direction of the Rev. J. H. Billups, Montclair, N.J.

Those participating will be:

The Revs. C. Faulcon, Norfolk, Va.; G. W. Thomas, Roxboro, N.C.; B. S. Mason, Pittsburgh, Pa. and G. J. Johnson, Toledo, Ohio.

The Women's Auxiliary of the organization gave a panel this morning on "World Christianity" and "World Christianity Tomorrow."

This afternoon the women will learn of their missionary work from four ministers: the Revs. J. H. Hayes, McKeesport, Pa.; W. R. Strassner, Shaw University; Rudolph Cross, superintendent Haitian Missions, Lott Carey convention and Charles Grene Washington.

Financial Reports

The financial report of the organization, given by Mr. Somerville, showed that over $114,000 was collected during 1952 for missionary work. Expenditure for the year amounted to $89,000, leaving a balance of $25,000 at July 31, 1953.

It is believed that the 57th annual session of 1954 will be held in Petersburg, Va.

LOTT CAREY MISSION OFFICERS—Above are some of the officials of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission which is holding its 56th annual session at Enon Baptist church. Bullock Norfolk, former president; P. A. Bishop, Rich Square, N.C., newly elected president; Mrs. Lillian Wood, president, Young People's department; J. Randolph, Washington, former executive secretary.

Jehovah's Witnesses to hold Annapolis meeting

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, will sponsor a three-day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Annapolis on Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The convention, which will be held in the Annapolis armory, is for Bible instruction and concentrated gospel - preaching in this area.

The assembly will begin Friday night and continue through Saturday and Sunday, with morning, afternoon and evening sessions of Bible talks, discussions and demonstrations. All are open to the public without charge.

This is the first assembly of Jehovah's witnesses in Annapolis. The congregation was formed there nearly 15 years ago. It is expected that 2,000 persons will attend the convention.

W. A. Elrod of New York will be the featured speaker of the event. He will appear on the program all three days and will deliver the main public address on Sept. 13, on "What Is Your Destiny?"

Delegates from Fawn Grove, Pa., Glen Burnie, Havre de Grace, Towson, Westminster, Catonsville, Elderburg, Aberdeen, Md. and 12 congregations from Baltimore City will attend.

More women needed as school crossing guards

Vacancies for 77 women auxiliary school crossing guards to replace regular officers when city schools open Sept. 8 were announced Thursday by the Police department.

The new guards will be required at 60 intersections near schools, with some of the larger intersections requiring more than one guard.

Of the 210 women auxiliaries who began duty at school crossings for the first time last year, only 18 have resigned. The vacancies left by them will be filled by new applicants, according to Thomas L. Miller, Police department personnel director.

The guards receive $25 a week and work only when school begins and recesses. They must purchase their own uniforms at a cost of $135.

Included among the districts and intersections where women are needed are:

Northern — Brookfield and Whitelock; 40th - Roland; Charles Street; Charles and Forest; Falls road and Cold Spring lane; Falls and Thirty-fourth; Falls and Northern Parkway; Falls and Boulevard; Greenmount and Coldspring lane; Linden; Labyrinth and Keeling; Park Circle and Park Heights; Roland and Thirty-seventh; 100 block Tunnel road.

Northeastern — Broadway and North; Caroline and Oliver; Chesterfield and Mannasota; Edison highway and Eimley; Edmondson and Thirty-third; Erdman and Harford; Erdman and Monument; Gittings and Harford; Harford and Thirty-second; Harford and Loch Raven.

Northwestern—Belle and Eldorado; Cooley lane and Edmondson; Druid Park and Liberty Heights; Chelsea terrace and Gwynns Falls parkway; Druid Park drive and Park Circle; Edgewood and Liberty Heights; Edmondson and Mount Holly; Eldorado and Liberty Heights; Forest Park and Garrison; Gwynns Falls and Pulaski; Gwynns Falls and Reisterstown; Hilton and Windsor; Hoffman and Park; Lafayette and Mount Royal; North and Warwick; North and Wheeler; Park Circle and Reisterstown; Reisterstown and Rogers; North and Walbrook; and Biddle and Tessier.

Southern — Clement and Light; Hanburg and Light; Hanburg and William; Hanover and Lee; Heath and Light; Light and West.

Southwestern — Athol and Old Frederick; Edmondson and Upland; Hollins and Schroeder; Spence and Washington boulevard; Brunswick and Wilkens; Carrollton and Fayette; Mount and Saratoga.

Women living near these intersections may contact the principal of the school nearest them for information concerning the woman's auxiliary.

Ladies day to be observed at fair

Ladies' day will be observed at the Maryland State Fair on September 4 and 11 with all feminine patrons admitted up until 4 p.m. upon the payment of the usual taxes on admissions instead of the full price.

Ladies Day has become extremely popular with Timonium patrons a year ago and it is expected that the same enthusiasm will be shown this season.

Children starting school in need of mental adjustment

The first day of school is a big event in a child's life.

He may have spent years in nursery school or kindergarten, but he feels that this grade is "the real thing." He is eager, and at the same time a little worried. He may even be afraid.

Of course, parents see the necessity of taking Junior to the doctor to make sure there are no physical defects, such as poor eyesight or hearing that will hold back his school progress. Many schools will give reading readiness tests to be sure he is mentally ready for first grade.

Needs Mental Adjustment

But often his emotional preparation is forgotten. There may be fears and wrong attitudes which will interfere with his adjustment to school.

"Just wait till you get to school. They'll make you behave." Thoughless parents may have used threats like this which make school a terrifying prospect. Older children may speak of teacher as a combination of ogre and policeman and exaggerate the difficulty of school work.

If the damage has already been done, all members of the family will have to work together to repair it.

Older Children Help

An older child can take Junior around the school and make him feel familiar with the building. A shopping excursion for clothes and school supplies will help make pleasant associations with the prospect of school.

The change to a rigid schedule can be made gradually as summer ends, and the home needed to get Junior up, dressed, fed, and off to school can be worked out so that there will be little tension and confusion when the great day comes.

Mother will be wise to hide her feelings and not tell the youngster how much she will miss him while he is in school. With many children adjustment takes a few weeks, and parents will have to be patient and understanding.

Easy On Questions

It will only distress and perplex the child to be asked endless questions about what he learns or what he does in his first school days.

Parents are in an important position to make the first days of school a happy adventure that will lead to a good emotional adjustment to school life.

have not empowered the School Board to write its laws."

Dr. Fischer's remarks, made during what he called "a partial accounting of stewardship," represented the first public statement of policy made by the school administrator who succeeded the liberal Dr. William H. Lemmel following the latter's death last January.

The new school superintendent has been regarded as a question mark on the issue of separate schooling due to his recommendation that colored not be admitted to the white all-girl Western High school.

Explains Position

In explaining his position on both the Western and Mergenthaler School of Printing issues —in which lawsuits are pending in behalf of colored applicants — Dr. Fischer said that plans for the new Carver Vocational school meet Mergenthaler standards, and that an accelerated program "fully equivalent to Western," will be established at Douglass High school.

"Furthermore, there is no evidence that single sex education is superior to co-education or vice versa," Dr. Fischer said.

However, Dr. Fischer declared, in the pending lawsuits "we shall accept graciously whatever the decision of the court is."

No Win Or Lose

He added:

"We do not think in terms of whether the School Board will win or lose these suits. The only way we can win is to give the children good education. The only way we can lose is to give them poor education."

Dr. Fischer cited instances past to the separate schools—the integration of staff members and secretaries at the offices of special education and special services, integrated teachers meetings, associations, and parent - teacher groups in Baltimore.

He said also that the housing of the offices of assistant superintendent in charge of colored schools in a separate building was on the way out with the completion of additional housing facilities.

Furthermore, he pointed out, the National Conference of PTA's does not welcome integrated parent - teacher groups, therefore, the Baltimore Co-ordinating Council of PTA's has not joined the national group. It was the late Dr. Lemmel's wish that they would not Dr. Fischer revealed.

Principle Vs. Affiliation

Dr. Fischer said that while it would be desirable in some ways for the Baltimore group to join the national body, "We're not going to sacrifice our principles simply to form an affiliation."

The school administrator indicated that the school setup beyond the classroom level — where the City Code does not dictate — is a true reflection of School Board thinking.

Told by Dr. G. Lake Imes that, "We would perceive from the press that the School Board and school administrators are concerned with defending the segregation law as it now stands," Dr. Fischer replied.

"The School Board and administration has done its best to abide by the law requiring separate schools, but none have defended segregation."

Refreshing Policy

After Dr. Fischer's talk Furman L. Templeton, executive director of the Baltimore Urban League declared that the school head had revealed "a distinctively refreshing policy."

Admitting that he and Dr. Fischer had "clashed" on issues in the past, Mr. Templeton nevertheless declared:

"I see in Dr. Fischer a man of integrity and good will."

The Rev. Howard Cornish of Morgan State college's Christian center described Dr. Fischer's talk as "a brilliant analysis of the issue."

Where The Money Went

Frontiersmen learned from Dr. Fischer the following facts on the expenditure of last-year's school dollars in Baltimore where, of 132,000 children in school, 47,000 were colored:

Of the new buildings constructed, 35 per cent were for colored, representing 36 per cent of the money spent;

Of the money spent in repairs and renovation, 33.4 per cent went to colored;

Of the additional buildings purchased for school use, 53 per cent were for colored, representing 38 per cent of the dollars;

Fifty-eight per cent of the buildings under construction are for colored, representing 48 per cent of the money;

Sixty per cent of the building plans ready for construction las plans ready for construction last spring were for colored, taking up 75 per cent to be used for such purpose.

Shared Fifty - Fifty

A total of $37,000,000 was spent or ready for expenditure last spring, Dr. Fischer said, with $19,000,000 — representing 50.5 per cent — earmarked for use for colored.

"We have met the need where it has existed. We have not asked ourselves foolish questions about the child's race," Dr. Fischer declared.

Major bridge traffic to halt during drill

Civil Leader Paul E. Sutherland, Civil Defense coordinator of the State Roads Commission has announced that bridge personnel will halt traffic on all major bridges in Maryland during "Operation Check-up," the state-wide air raid alert scheduled to be held sometime during the week of September 21st.

The bridges affected by Col. Sutherland's announcement are: The Chesapeake Bay, Susquehanna River, Potomac River and Patuxent River bridges.

The alert is being held to test the existing warning systems and to educate the public about what they should do when they hear the red warning which signifies that an attack is imminent.

PENNSYLVANIA AVE. BLDGS.

An attorney's sale of two two-story brick buildings in the 1900 block of Pennsylvania ave. will be held on Sept. 16 at 1:45 p.m. Subject to an annual ground rent of $75, one building is located at 1941 and the other at 1943. A cash deposit of $350 will be required on each if sold separately. Together the buildings will be sold upon the deposit of $600.

Schools suffer no teacher shortage

Unlike the white schools, colored schools are not affected by a teacher shortage this term.

Schools will open on Sept. 8 with about 1,600 teachers available, each a college graduate and qualified by examination.

And, according to Dr. Houston S. Jackson, assistant superintendent of schools, there are about 150 elementary school teachers and about 200 secondary school teachers on the eligible list.

New administrative appointments effective this term include:

PRINCIPALS — Milton A. Dugger, School No. 143; Delores C. Hunt, School No. 147; Clifton S. Murray, School No. 146; Samuel Phillips, School No. 148; Blanche R. Powell, School No. 156.

VICE PRINCIPALS — Ida N. Nicholas, School No. 144, 144A. EVENING —SCHOOL PRINCIPALS — Thomas Boone, School No. 106; Ruth W. Cleaver, School No. 130; Charles Mason, School No. 130A; Hiram W. Horsey, School No. 133; Robert Ford, School No. 450; and Leon Williams, School No. 454.

EVENING VICE PRINCIPALS — Wardelle T. Richardson, School No. 133; Cyrus W. Marshall, School No. 450.

Dr. Jackson and his staff are expected to be moved next year from offices at Madison and Lafayette aves. to the school administration building 3 E. 25th st. where other assistant superintendents are located.

What you want, Ford's got!
Test Drive a Ford today and you'll find it has everything you want in a car—including a price you needn't sit down to hear!
You've already noticed Ford's heart-stealing good looks on the streets around town, but they're just part of Ford's "Worth More" story. Get behind the wheel of a new Ford. Try it on the roughest roads and steepest hills you know. That's how you'll discover, as so many of your friends already have, that you could pay $1000 more and not get as much as Ford offers you! Beautiful proof of this fact is in our showrooms now, "ready and waiting." So why not come in for a Test Drive today—all you can lose is your heart!
Want V-8 power? Only Ford in the low-price field offers a V-8—the same type of engine America's costliest cars are swinging to. You get high-compression "go" on regular gas.
Or today's modern Six? Ford's Six is the most modern in the industry. It's the same engine—with Overdrive—that beats all other cars regardless of price or weight in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run.
Want no-shift driving? Fordomatic does more things for you, easier than ever—and over a wider range—than any drive in the low-price field. Makes all driving easier.
Want a "heavyweight" ride? Ford's new spring and shock absorber action proves a car need not carry gnawing extra weight to give you a smooth, level ride. Foam-rubber seat cushions over non-sag springs make even long trips a treat.
Want "all-around" vision? Ford's curved one-piece windshield and car-wide rear window give you Full-Circle Visibility. In fact, Ford gives you more glass area than any other low-priced car . . . and even some high-priced cars.
Want a body that's built for keeps? Ford's Centmark Bodies are welded where many others are bolted. And suspended clutch and brake pedals eliminate floor holes, help make Fords built-tight to seal out weather and noise.
Want power steering? Ford offers the lowest and finest power steering in America . . . yet it's the lowest-priced in Ford's field. It's called Master-Guide because all you do is guide the car — Master-Guide does the work!
Want a top price when you sell? Check the used-car lots in your neighborhood and you'll find it's true: NO OTHER CAR RETURNS MORE OF ITS ORIGINAL COST THAN A YEAR-OLD FORD!
With 41 "Worth More" Features, Ford's worth more when you buy it, worth more when you sell it!
