A GREATEST REFLECTION.

The following editorial taken from the Kent News of last Saturday is a serious reflection upon the intelligence and fitness of numerous men in the country districts to fill the various offices on the ticket:

"The efforts of the Boss' organ to create antagonism between the people of the town and country is probably going the limit in the playing 'peanut' politics. Every man of ordinary intelligence knows that the candidates of all political parties are selected primarily for their fitness for the places they are to fill, and also for their popularity or strength with the people. When both these conditions can be met by apportioning them equally among the different sections or districts of the county, it is well to do so; but it rarely happens that this is practicable or possible. And for any man to base his objections to a candidate for office solely because he happens to come from a different section than that in which he may reside, is not only foolish, but it seems to us is a reflection upon his intelligence. We are all Kent countians and all equally interested (or should be) in everything that makes for the good of the people in every foot of her territory."

There are four of the Organization candidates from Chestertown. Does the Kent News mean to tell the intelligent people of the Fourth and Seventh Districts, the farmers who have always been identified with the County Commissioners office, that there is no loyal Organization man in either the Fourth or Seventh Districts with sufficient intelligence to be a member of the Board of County Commissioners and that is their reason for coming to Chestertown and selecting Mr. G. Harry Cannan, until six months ago an ardent Anti man and a bitter enemy of Senator John Walter Smith, for the place?

Does the Kent News mean to tell the intelligent people of this county that they have no other man of sufficient intelligence to sit in the Senate of Maryland except Wm. W. Beck, after the record he made in the last two sessions of the Legislature? And do they think it the proper treatment to the people of the county to turn them down for Mr. Beck, after he has had two terms as State's Attorney, two terms as Senator and is enjoying an easy birth as counsel to the State Tax Commission at a salary of $1,500 a year? Some of the Organization leaders are loud in their criticism of Mr. James T. Dixon because he is a candidate to succeed himself as Clerk of the Court, but not a word will they say of Mr. Beck, who is taking care of No. 1, and making the Kent News do his bidding.

Does the Kent News mean to tell the people of Kent county that Mr. Charles L. Dodd and Mr. John H. Simpers are the only men in their faction who are capable of running for Clerk of the Court and Judge of the Orphans' Court, respectively? This seems to be the meaning of their statement published above, and we submit that it is not fair treatment to take the candidate for County Commissioner, Senator, Clerk of the Court, one Judge of the Orphans' Court and State's Attorney from the same district, and it is manifestly unjust in the Kent News to say that their reason for doing this is "their fitness for the place, and also their popularity and strength with the people. When both these conditions can be met by apportioning them equally among the different sections or districts of the county, it is well to do so; BUT IT RARELY HAPPENS THAT THIS IS PRACTICABLE OR POSSIBLE." Which is but another way of saying that no body else in the Organization has the fitness or popularity save FIVE MEN IN CHESTERTOWN. We say that such a position is a serious reflection upon the other districts of the county and a most damaging admission.

Lemon Babies.

State's Attorney Butler, of Easton, is stopping the sale in Talbot county of extracts known there as "Lemon Babies." In Talbot the little bottles are known as "Bullets." The Easton Ledger says: "The sale of bullets is going to be stopped, for State's Attorney, Chas. J. Butler, has notified all dealers and traders in this community that they are violating the local option laws of Talbot county and that unless they immediately discontinue the practice they will be presented to the Grand Jury. It is said that a great many of the storekeepers in Easton that have sold this lemon extract did so not knowing that they were violating the law. As it contains 35 per cent. alcohol and will make a man who drinks enough of it dead drunk, it can readily be seen that dealers might as well sell whiskey. These so-called 'bullets' are about the worst substitute for liquor used in local option sections. They not only contain a large percentage of alcohol but also produce an effect on the drinker similar to that produced by cocaine and other damaging drugs. The State's Attorney will be doing a great service to the community if he can entirely stamp out the tariff in lemon, ginger, and other substitutes for wiskey."

Temperance Meeting.

The Lyceum Theatre was filled with ladies and gentlemen last Friday afternoon to hear former Governor Patterson discuss the issues of the temperance question. The chairman of the meeting was Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., who introduced the speaker and presided with dignity and grace. Rev. Dr. Hare, superintendant of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League, was present and outlined the plan of campaign which the League proposes to conduct in every county in the State looking to the securing of promises to support the Anti-Saloon League's temperance legislation in the next Legislature. Gov. Patterson delivered a masterly address. There is scarcely anything new to be said upon the question of prohibition. But the southerner has a manner of discussing any subject that is pleasing and impressive and Gov. Patterson was no exception. He is a recent convert to the cause of prohibition and is a strong advocate of the settlement of the question by a vote of the people. He made a favorable impression upon his audience and left many thoughts of value. The audience was one of the largest ever gathered at a temperance meeting, which is a good indication that the people are awake to the importance of the great question.

Motocyclists Injured.—Mr. W. Henry, foreman of the Enterprise, had his arm broken, and Mr. Norman Peterson, compositor of the same office, was somewhat bruised and shaken up when the former's motorcycle skidded in the sand near Chesapeake City, last Friday afternoon and threw them on the road. They were on their way to the W. C. and Delaware College game at Newark, Del., when the accident occurred. They walked to the home of Mr. A. E. Davidson, who summoned Dr. C. C. Laws, of Chesapeake City, who rendered medical attention.
