WHY

NOT THIS SEASON? You'll eventually come to us for your Suit.

Did you ever experience the comfort of a made-to-measure suit?

Look around, there's plenty of them turned out by our plant. It's no experiment. See the fit, quality of fabric trimmings and workmanship. Then ask the price paid. Get all this information from the man who wears them. This is our plan. The proof of the pudding, &c.

Don't tell me what you're doing, it's not so convincing, but show me. Special pattern cut for each suit, and guaranteed in every particular, made to your measurements, looks like it belongs to you, feels like it belongs to you, and you can occupy one for less money than you can now buy some fabrics in ready-mades. See for yourselves. Suits from $12.60 up.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,

Special Representative for Kent and Queen Annes Counties of the International Tailoring Co. of New York, Chicago and London, : : : :

J. ELWOOD MORRIS FOR SENATOR.

For some months past there has been an insistent demand from all sections of the county for a business man for State Senator rather than a lawyer, who has occupied a seat in the Senate since the term of the late Senator Garrett Foxwell. So many people have become dissatisfied with the character of the laws manufactured by lawyers and their seeming tendency to the manipulation of things to suit their professional ideals that they feel that a plain man of the people, one who lives in the atmosphere of plain, common sense business methods and who exemplifies the spirit of economy in his daily life, will make a far more acceptable and desirable candidate for State Senator than a lawyer. With this knowledge in their possession the Anti-Organization faction, especially those in the Third and Sixth Districts, have been insisting upon Mr. J. Elwood Morris to consent to make the fight in the interest of the people of the county. Mr. Morris, we are glad to say, has consented to make the fight. It is needless for us to say anything about the character of Mr. Morris, or the high principles of morality which he has always exemplified in his relations with his fellowmen. Mr. Morris, in our judgment, meets the requirements of the present for an available candidate for the State Senate as but few men in the county do. 'Tis true, he is not a brilliant lawyer, or an eloquent orator. But for good sound business judgment, and an accurate knowledge of the needs of his home people, and with a degree of fine intelligence that will enable him to seek for what he wants for his people, he will make a far more acceptable candidate for State Senator than the shrewd lawyer who makes laws to suit himself and scarcely ever in the interest of the business and agricultural interests of the county.

In making his announcement for the State Senate, Mr. Morris said: "I propose to make this fight in the interest of the people of my county. I believe that conditions are such in this State that it is absolutely necessary to observe strict economy in the conduct of the State's finances, and I stand for a cessation of the imposition of the burdens of taxation upon the people and for the conduct of the State and county affairs upon a business like basis. I am perfectly willing to go before the people of my county upon a platform of economy and legislative reform, and I pledge my support to any measure that means the financial relief to our taxpayers. I have entered the race for the Senate because I believe there is a demand for a man of the people, who is in close touch with the agricultural and all other interests in which the people are so greatly interested, and if the people want me to go to the Senate, I am willing to go and do everything in my power to prevent this misappropriation of State and county funds in such a manner as they were in the last Legislature. I expect to make my fight with the people, and I take my stand with Senator Blair Lee and W. B. Copper, and the rest of the State ticket that is in harmony with the principles of President Wilson, and if elected I shall do everything in my power to uphold the hands of the State administration in the enactment of only such laws and measures that will mean the greatest good to the greatest number."

TO MY FRIENDS IN KENT COUNTY:

Owing to the continued ill state of my health I have determined to withdraw from the contest for Register of Wills, since in justice to myself and to my friends I do not believe it will be possible for me to make an active canvas for the office. Sincerely yours,
CLARENCE S. HURLOCK.
