L. Wethered Barroll, Esq., of the Baltimore bar, was at home early in the week suffering with a heavy cold.

Miss Miriam Hubbard gave a dance at her home on Saturday evening in honor of her house party guests.

Miss Pauline Willis and Miss Francis Corey entertained a number of friends at a delightful dance in Fairlee Hall on Friday evening.

Prof. J. Leo Brown, principal of the Painter, (Va.) High School, will please accept our thanks for an invitation to attend the annual commencement exercises to be held in the school auditorium on Tuesday evening, June 1, at 8 o'clock. Prof. Brown is a graduate of Washington College, and is very popular with the patrons of his school.

Rev. Mr. Clews, of Kennedyville, though not completely well, is much improved.

Mr. Fred Wilson, of Panama, spent the past week with relatives and friends in Rock Hall. Mr. Wilson's friends were delighted to see him and to know that he is well.

Misses Leonore Wilmer, Mabel Toulson and Grace Brooks will leave town next Monday for a trip to the Panama Exposition at California.

Mr. Frank Howard spent several days last week in Philadelphia.

Miss Lida Hendrix is spending sometime with her sister, Mrs. James Smith, of Hainesville.

Mr. Charles Perry and family who moved to Baltimore some months ago, has returned to town.

Mr. Merritt Coleman, of near Crumpton, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thos. Smith, of near town, is recuperating at their home after an operation for kidney trouble in Baltimore.

Mr. John Rouse Story and Miss Eva Mary Comegys, both of Queen Annes county were married on Saturday at the M. E. parsonage by the pastor, Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrell.

We regret very much to state that Mr. Clarence S. Hurlock, of Massey, is not improving in health. His condition is such that he has been compelled to withdraw from the Anti-ticket as a candidate for Register of Wills, and his many friends have induced Mr. Samuel G. Caldwell to take his place. Mr. Hurlock is one of the most popular men in this county and the condition of his health is greatly regretted by all who know and esteem him.

Mr and Mrs. William Colescott, son and daughter, of Philadelphia, are guests of Mrs. I. F. Walbert, near Lankford.

Miss Josephine Hicks is able to be down stairs, and Mr. Paul B. Graham has been setting on the front porch of his home.

THE Harrington forces have been making a tremendous effort to convince the people that Senator Lee is weaker than he was four years ago, but Senator Lee has developed an element of strength in securing the indorsement of the Baltimore City Organization that has proven almost a knockout blow to the Harrington forces. If Senator Lee could come within one vote of winning the nomination four years ago without the aid of Baltimore city's 28 votes, and with Senator Smith stronger than he is to-day by far, how in the world can Harrington, who is Smith's candidate, and an important part of the old State machine, expect to beat Senator Lee this time. In the light of sound reason it is apparent that Lee is a great deal stronger than he ever was, and he'll beat Harrington to a frazzle in the primaries. Senator Lee has the ear of the people. He is the people's man, and the politicians may rave all they please about his weakness, but Mayor Preston and the City Organization are shrewd calculators and they know a sure thing when they see it. Don't worry boys, Senator Lee knows a thing or two about politics, and he will be the next Governor of Maryland beyond a doubt.

It Looks Like Lee.

Indications at this time look most favorable to the nomination of Hon. Blair Lee for the Governorship of Maryland. The swing in Baltimore is towards him, and judging from former vote-getting qualities, many of the counties will also be his.

The situation in Baltimore seems to indicate that Mr. Harrington is not looked upon with favor, and that Mr. Linthicum has not yet developed sufficient strength in the counties to command the city's vote. The choice is, therefore, limited to Mr. Harrington and Senator Lee, with the odds strongly in favor of the latter. Mr. Harrington, the city people seem to think, would be hard to nominate and still harder to elect. The preference is, accordingly, for Senator Lee. Few believe that Mr. Lee, supported by Mayor Preston, who is now well to the front in Maryland politics, can be defeated.

In former editorials we have commended the course of Sentor Lee four years ago. It is still our belief that his turn has come, and indications seem to point sharply in his direction.—Ex.

Mayor Preston Inaugurated.

Hon. James H. Preston was inaugurated Mayor of Baltimore city for the second consecutive term on Tuesday. The oath of office was administered in the presence of a cheering throng of friends and well-wishers, and the Mayor made a strong speech setting forth the policies he proposes to advocate for the next four years. The city of Baltimore has made rapid strides during the past four years under the guidance of Mayor Preston, and if the people of the city will accord him the co-operation he deserves, the accomplishment of the progressive policies which he advocates will place Baltimore in the front rank of the country's great cities. The TRANSCRIPT extends congratulations to Mayor Preston and wishes for him a most successful administration.

Mr. M. A. Toulson is seriously contemplating joining the automobile ranks and is contemplating purchasing a Buick.

A Fine Concert.

The Second Classical Concert given in the Lyceum Theatre on Tuesday evening by the Chestertown Choral and Dramatic Club, under the very efficient direction of Mr. Wm. Walter Chapman, was one of the best yet rendered by the club. Every selection on the finely balanced program was rendered in the most skilful manner, and was an evidence of the fact that the musical talent of Chestertown is extremely difficult to excel. It is an unfortunate circumstance that such high-class entertainments as the one of Tuesday evening are no better patronized than they are. The people of our community should sustain an organization of such merit as is the Choral Club, and every time it appears before the public, it should be given a fine audience. The audience greatly appreciated the selections, but there should have been a much larger attendance as a reward for the care and time given by the young people in preparing an entertainment of this character. Mr. Chapman and his chorus are to be congratulated upon the splendid musical ability displayed last Tuesday night. The program was as follows:

Paint Now

If your property needs it; don't wait. There are two parts of a job; the paint and the work; the work is more than the paint.

The cost of paint is about two-fifths; the work three-fifths.

Paint won't come down in a hurry; too-many jobs put-off.

Men are waiting for $2 or $3; they don't know it; they think they are waiting for $20 or $25.

Why don't men use their heads?

DEVOE.

Chas. P Jones, Millington, sells it.
