THE "Old Ring" is for Harrington, Baltimore city and the rest of the State are for Lee. The "Old Ring" will be licked out of their boots for Lee knows how to turn the trick.

THIS is the Organization campaign slogan:

Economy, oh, what blissful charms
Dwell in that magic sound;
We're for you when voting time rolls round,
But after that, good night.

WM. W. BECK and Howard Turner passed the iniquitous gallon-a-month law for Kent county. Are you going to vote for these men to go back to the Legislature after passing such a law as that?

IF YOU want to keep posted on the real and important issues in this campaign, read the TRANSCRIPT. It is the only means by which the voters can know what has been done and what it is proposed to do.

WE are in receipt of the 14th annual report of the South Baltimore Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Hospital. If there are any needy patients in this neighborhood the hospital directors will be glad to have such communicate with them looking to arrangements for treatment.

A PROMINENT Organization leader, one who is on the inside of what is going on in the Organization camp, told a gentleman from Somerset county who was in Kent on business the other day that the Organization in Kent hasn't the slightest hope of nominating a single man on their ticket except one, and his chances are very slim.

AFTER ALL, it makes little difference in these days how any particular county leader stands. The people can no longer be lead around by the nose by one man who poses as their leader. The people are learning a thing or two about their interests and it looks mighty like they are going to show the politicians a thing or two in this campaign.

IT IS not a bit of use to vote for Blair Lee for Governor and W. B. Copper for Comptroller and then turn around and vote for Wm. W. Beck and Howard Turner. These men are just as much opposed to the principles for which Senator Lee and President Wilson stand as it is possible to be, and if you want Senator Lee to have a Legislature that will support him, never vote for Wm. W. Beck or Howard Turner.

IF YOU are for Wilson you must be for Blair Lee for Governor, and if you are for Blair Lee for Governor you can't help but be for J. Elwood Morris for Senator, because he is both a Wilson and Lee man from the ground up, and if you are for Morris for Senator, you surely should be for Harris and Ayres for delegates, for a divided delegation in the Legislature prevents anything of real benefit to the people being done.

IF ANY ONE has any doubt of the great popularity of Mr. W. B. Copper, candidate for State Comptroller, he should have been on the fair grounds last Monday afternoon and witnessed the number of voters from Kent and Queen Annes counties, who voluntarily came up and offered their support. And it is really agreeably surprising to find the number of Organization people in both counties who are going to vote for Senator Lee and Mr. Copper.

HOW CAN THEY BEAT LEE?

In the primaries four years ago, Gorman carried 8 counties and Baltimore city, while Senator Lee carried 15 counties and came within one vote of winning the nomination. This year Senator Lee starts with the indorsement of Baltimore city and he can lose several counties that he carried four years ago, and still win in a walk. How can they beat Lee? It can't be done.

SENATOR Hammond, of Howard county, was appointed counsel to the State Tax Commission on Wednesday at a salary of $2,000 a year. This appointment follows a decision by the Court of Appeals declaring that only one lawyer can be appointed counsel, but that he may employ an assistant. If Mr. Hammond employs an assistant it is probable that he will employ Wm. W. Beck, who was appointed counsel with Senator Hammond shortly after the swearing in of the commission. We shall have more to say about this later.

MR. VOTER, if you think Senator John Walter Smith has been a friend to the farmer, vote for Wm. W. Beck, if you think that Senator Lee is the farmer's friend, vote for J. Elwood Morris. Senator Lee is going to be the next Governor of Maryland, and what is the use of putting a dyed-in-the-wool Smith man in the Senate to oppose everything that Governor Lee will want to do. J. Elwood Morris is an out-and-out Lee man, and he will stand with Lee and Copper in giving the people and not Smith's henchmen, what they want.

SENATOR William Miles Maloy, one of the most prominent lawyers of Baltimore city, and at present Provost of the Maryland State University, has announced his candidacy for Attorney-General. Senator Maloy is one of the most representative men in this State. His career in the Maryland Senate, when he always stood for progressive legislation, and his record of achievement is one of which to be proud. Senator Maloy is a nephew of the late Rev. J. E. Maloy, one of the most prominent Methodist Protestant ministers in the State in his day. We most heartily endorse Senator Maloy's candidacy, and we shall do everything in our power to give him a rousing majority in Kent county.

SENATOR LEE HITS OUT.

Smashes the City vs. Counties Issue.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT—
DEAR SIRS:

Mayor Preston's announcement of his intention to support me in the Democratic primary for the nomination for Governor, seems to have thrown certain papers allied with Senator Smith and my opponent, Mr. Harrington, into a panic and to have led these papers to charge that I have made a "deal" with the city of Baltimore at the expense of the counties. Such charge is untrue. Nothing short of a panic could have induced these papers to attempt to raise so unpatriotic and so false an issue.

The people of this State should know me too well to pay any attention to the charge that Mayor Preston's support is the result of a "deal" with him or any one else, changing my position as shown by my public record. I am unchanged in my convictions and political objects and stand for the same things I have always stood for without any modification of plan or adandonment of principle. Such allegations as that I will favor the "mass vote" or abandon the "county unit system," for which I am largely responsible, as part of our present primary law, are not only untrue but impossible. Moreover, the people of this State are men of reason and intelligence; they know that none of the results with which my opponents are trying to frighten the people of the counties could be accomplished without an Act of the General Assembly of the State.

I am gratified to have the support of Mayor Preston. The Democratic administration which he has given the city of Baltimore has been approved by the people of that city by a majority larger than ever was known in any prior mayoralty election. Any candidate for the nomination for Governor would be glad to have the support of a man who has just been elected Mayor of Baltimore City by a majority of over seventeen thousand.

There is no real conflict of interest or of feeling between the people of Baltimore City and the people in the various counties. We are all Marylanders; we are all related by ties of blood; our sons and daughters have gone up from the farms of the various counties to make their homes in the City of Baltimore; our business interests are interlocked, and he who would try to raise prejudice and ill-feeling between the counties and the city is doing an injury to the counties no less than to the city; to say nothing of the effect which success on such an issue might have upon the prospects of the Democratic party. In recent years the greater portion of the Democratic majority has come from Baltimore City, and no real Democrat could contemplate, without anxiety for his party, the nomination of a candidate who won upon a campaign of avowed hostility to Baltimore City. That this unworthy attempt to stir up strife and prejudice between the counties and the city is a studied scheme put out from some central source, is shown by the fact that substantially the same statement appears in the last week's issue of practically all of the papers allied with my opponents on the Eastern Shore. The evident purpose of this move was to try to stem the tide which is running strongly in my favor in that section as well as in the other portions of the State.

Respectfully yours,
BLAIR LEE.

Silver Spring, Md., June 1, 1915.

THE Organization candidates are making the charge that Mr. J. Elwood Morris is not capable of representing Kent county in the Senate. They did the same thing with the late Senator Foxwell, but only a stuffed ballot box defeated him. And pray tell us, if Mr. Robt. Lewis and Mr. Howard Turner are capable of representing Kent county in the Legislature, why not Mr. Morris, and if Mr. Frank Crow is capable of being county treasurer, Mr. George Sutton Register of Wills, and Mr. J. Henry Thompson a judge of the Orphans' Court, why is not Mr. Morris capable of going to the Senate? It is not so much how much sense a man has but how he uses what he has, and in view of the record of the last Legislature a change will be mighty acceptable.

THE contest for the Senate in Kent county is a contest of the farm interests against the lawyer. Don't worry about the mental ability of the farmer. The Organization candidates offer an insult to every farmer and business man in Kent county when they question Mr. Morris' ability to represent Kent county in the Senate. They would have said the same thing about any other farmer in the county had he been selected in Mr. Morris' place. And yet an eighth grade school boy could have given Kent county a far better deal than she got from Beck and Turner in the last Legislature. Mr. Morris is a young man of splendid intelligence, and he has too much sense and too great interest in the welfare of the people than to pass such laws as were passed for Kent county in the last Legislature.

THE SAME LEE.

Last Saturday, while Senator Lee was meeting the voters at the Talbot county school rally in St. Michaels, it is said that hundreds of voters came up to shake his hand and promise him their support. In nearly every case the voters said: "Senator, we were with you four years ago," and Senator Lee's face would beam with that winning smile and his answer invariably was, "Well, I am the same Lee, I haven't changed any, and I don't believe you have," and he would tuck another vote away in his notebook. The sentiment of the rank and file of the voters in every county on the Shore is overwhelmingly for Lee, with the possible exception of Dorchester and Worcester, and it's going to be a fight of the people against the John Walter Smith machine in this campaign. The politicians are for Harrington in this fight, and the people are for Lee, and the people are no longer going to be dominated by the Smith machine.

A DANGEROUS ISSUE.

Senator John Walter Smith has "given out the Hymn" and his county papers, in one grand chorus, as it were, are ringing the changes on "The City vs. the Counties" issue. Seriously speaking this is a most dangerous issue for the Harrington supporters, for if by any chance Harrington should be nominated for Governor, this very issue of "The City vs. the Counties" would give the people of the city to understand that they can expect absolutely nothing from his administration, and what the voters of Baltimore city would do to Harrington in the election in November would be enough to put a Republican Governor in the State House. And so the issud of "The City vs. the Counties" raisee by the Smith people, will prove a boomerang to Harrington and make him even a weaker candidate in the election than Gorman proved to be. And so long as the Smith people intend to foolishly array the city people against Harrington, the only sensible thing to do is to nominate Lee in order to insure the support of Baltimore city and the majority of the counties to the Democrats in the election. The Smith people have invited this condition, now let them take their medicine.

A GENTLEMAN standing in a crowd engaged in political discussion on the fair grounds last Monday afternoon said: "I think that the people of Kent county, regardless of faction, should give W. B. Copper, that splendid candidate for State Comptroller, a rousing vote in the primaries." An Organization man standing nearby heard the remark and joining the crowd said: "Yes, and he will get my vote, too." And there are several hundred Organization men in Kent who will give Mr. Copper a vote. He is worthy of it, and the State of Maryland never had a candidate better qualified for State Comptroller than Mr. Coppeer, the late lamented J. W. Hering not excepted.

LAWYERS ARE TOO SMART.

When it comes to a question of making laws, a delegate in the Maryland Legislature should have as much ability as a State Senator. Are Howard Turner or Robert Lewis any better qualified to sit in the House than J. Elwood Morris in the Senate? They said that the late Senator Foxwell was not mentally qualified to represent this county in the Senate, but he made one of the best representatives the county ever had, and he would have gone back a second time had it not been for stuffed ballot boxes. The people of Kent county don't want any more lawyers. They make too many laws in the interest of themselves, and give themselves too many jobs at the people's expense. Just give us a plain, substantial farmer again, and you won't get a gallon-a-month law, and about $100,000 added to your expense account.

MR. CONNELLY SUPERVISOR.

Mr. J. Frank Connelly was on Tuesday appointed Tax Supervisor under the State Tax Commission, for this county, to succeed the late Harry J. McWhorter. We feel confident that Mr. Connelly's appointment will meet with the approval of everyone in Kent county, regardless of faction, with the possible exception of the Kent News, one of the editors of which, we understand, in a recent conference stated that the element of sympathy should not enter into the selection, but it must be determined from the standpoint of political good to them. The News was bitterly opposed Mr. Connelly's appointment. He is exceptionally well qualified for the position. He is known from one end of the county to the other, and is a man of the kind of judgment and ability necessary to discharge the duties of the office Mr. Connelly is one of our most worthy citizens and having been without employment for several months, this position which pays $1,000 a year, will prove most acceptable, we are quite sure.

THE LAWYER VS. THE FARMER.

We are hearing a great deal of comment upon the difference between a lawyer and a farmer in the Senate of Maryland. You know experience is the best teacher, and there are few men in this county who do not remember the men who represented this county in the Maryland Senate years ago. Let us refresh your memories just a little. It is not necessary to go any farther back than the term of the late Wm. D. Burchinal. He was a farmer. He was followed by Charles T. Westcott, a lawyer; he by James H. Baker, a farmer; he by Garrett Foxwell a farmer; he by Wm. M. Slay, a lawyer, and he by Wm. W. Beck, a lawyer. Now then, during the career of these farmer Senators, did you hear of any such law as the Gibbs Road Law? Did you hear of any such thing as a reassessment of real and personal property three times during any two consecutive terms, such as you have heard in the terms of Senators Slay and Beck? Did you hear of any such law as the gallon-a-month law? Do you suppose for a moment that if the Senate of Maryland had contained a majority of farmer senators they would have allowed Senator John Walter Smith to forestall the passage of an act providing for the establishment of a State lime manufacturing plant, or would they ever have allowed Senator Smith to fight the bill providing for the federal inspection of grain at the port of Baltimore? The farmer senator has invariably given the people of his county the squarest deal, and he may be depended upon to take care of the interests of the great mass of the people. Study the records of Burchinal, Baker and Foxwell and see if that is not correct. And then, too, in view of the fact that Kent has had two lawyers in the Senate in succession who were preceded by two farmers, it is manifest that this the farmers year, and J. Elwood Morris is the man to send, because he knows the needs of the people and he is able to take care of their interests.
