IN THE CHURCHES.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Services on Sunday, June 6th: 10.30 A. M., sermon to the graduating class of the Chestertown High School, subject: "Personal Honor the Measure of True Prosperity." 7.30 P. M., Children's Day exercises by the Sunday school. A special program has been prepared for this occasion by the school. Sunday school 2.30 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Sunday was a big day at Christ M. P. Church. Rev. Dr. Graham, the pastor, preached an eloquent sermon in the morning and a quartet composed of Mrs. Fred G. Usilton, Miss Flora Wheatley, Dr. A. S. Hall and F. G. Usilton was finely rendered. At the Sunday school service Lady Hope, a noble woman of God, and a distinguished visitor to this country, delivered a beautiful address. This was followed by a service in the interest of the Lord's Day Alliance. An immense audience greeted the speakers, Dr. Howard A. Kelley and Dr. W. W. Davis, each of whom delivered stirring speeches in the interest of one of the most pressing questions of modern times, Sabbath Day observance. The large audience was greatly impressed by the sincerity of these noble men and their advice should be accepted. This service was followed by the Young People's service and preaching but the electric lights went wrong and the service had to be dispensed with.

Master James Crouch, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Crouch, is probably the youngest violinist in this county. He is an apt pupil of Prof. Hiram Pearson, and shows the skill of his teacher in the character of his playing. James played with the orchestra in Christ M. P. Sunday school last Sunday and he showed that he knows how to handle the fiddle and the bow. Professor Pearson is justly proud of his young pupil, and James will make a fine violinist some of these early days. He will play with the orchestra to-morrow evening at the annual Children's Day services.

The annual convention of the Diocese of Easton was held in Centreville this week. The ministers and delegates from the Kent churches were present and enjoyed the sessions.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, June 6th, as follows: 9.30, Sabbath school and pastor's Bible class. No preaching services in the morning on account of Baccalaureate services in the M. P. Church. 7 P. M., Epworth League song service, followed by preaching by the pastor. All invited.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their institute on the afternoon of the 8th of June, with rally at night in one of the local churches.

A large crowd enjoyed a splendid entertainment at the Chestertown M. E. Church Sunday morning, the event being the annual Children's Day exercise. The following program was rendered: Voluntary; singing by school No. 2; opening exercises, primary department; responsive reading, supt. and school; prayer, Rev. L. E. Barrett; singing by the school, No. 9; infant baptism; singing by the school, No. 7; recitation, Marie Bennett; recitation, Masters Gardner and Latham; recitation, Marion Collins; singing by the school, No. 4; exercise, "Little Planters;" song, primary department; recitation, Margaret Russell; singing by the school, No. 11; recitation, "What God Wants;" recitation, Bessie Patrick; exercises, "If;" singing by the school, No. 6; recitation, Henrietta Newnam; exercises, "Six Little Rose Buds;" singing by the school, No. 10; banner drill; song, "Roses Queen of all the Flowers"; address, Dr. Barrett; collection; singing by the school, No. 13; Benediction.

A special meeting of the officers and members of the Worton Presbyterian Church will be held after the service next Sunday, June 6th. All interested members are requested to attend. Business very important.

Fishing Season a Failure.

Net fishing on the tributaries of the Chesapeake Bay, which for many year proved profitable to hundreds of men, is a thing of the past, according to fishermen in the towns known as fishing centres of the Eastern Shore.

At Crisfield the season, which presumably closes about the middle of June, has been over for the past two weeks. Hauling seines have been withdrawn, more than 1,500 men thrown out of employment and 200 fishing boats with outfits valued at $500 each pulled to shore.

The food fish that long entered the rivers in the spring have been practically exterminated. Shad, herring, perch and kindred species are sacrificed to the stake or pound nets that line both shores of the bay.

The pack of herring, normally 15,000 barrels, has dwindled to less than 4,000. The shad catch, which amounted to 19,000 barrels, has fallen to less than 1,000 this season. Packers had arranged to prepare for market 50,000 barrels. They have handled about 4,000 this season

MARYLAND STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

A Great Home-Coming.

The Maryland State Normal School preparatory to leaving its present quarters, Carrollton and Lafayette Avenues, Baltimore, will have a home-coming night on June 11th in the old building.

It is hoped that all of its graduates who can possibly come to the city will do so, and make this last grand rally in the old hall a memorable occasion.

There will be music instrumental and vocal, and community singing for the quiet folks; dancing for those who wish to enjoy the mazy whirl, and refreshments for all.

Graduates who expect to attend the home-coming will apply to the school for cards of admission.

BALTIMORE'S BEST STORE

Hochschild, Kohn & Co.

Howard and Lexington Streets

The Store That Makes Visitors Feel at Home

Baltimore's Best Store is a homelike store. There's a ring of genuineness and sincerity to its greeting to visitors.

That is one of the many reasons why it is the most popular shopping place, not only for residents of Baltimore, but for the thousands of visitors who come to Baltimore to shop during the year.

YOU should make yourself acquainted with the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. Store the next time you visit Baltimore. You will find it not only a pleasant, but an economical shopping place—for it sells only dependable goods, and, in most cases, sells them at a price no higher than is ordinarily asked for inferior articles.

Bear in mind, too, that whatever you buy here is returnable, for exchange or refund, without question or argument, if it does not prove entirely satisfactory.
