Fraud Paint.

The worst mistake one is likely to make in painting is wrong paint; it is easy to make.

We all say "Ours is the best"; and there are 1000 of us. One is best; but a dozen are so near on a leval that no-one knows, for sure, that his is the one.

The worst paints are worst liars; they know what they are, put-on a bold face, and brazen it out.

Their one true argument is low price; but low-price paint is always, must be, a fraud; it is made to cheat cheatable people.

Injured in Runaway.

Mrs. Lewis, housekeeper for Mr. Herbert Strong, living near Kennedyville, and her son narrowly escaped serious injury last Saturday night when their spirited horse ran away. While enroute to town two teams racing on the State road overtook her, and hearing the clatter of the horses' feet, Mrs. Lewis' animal started off. She was driving without breechings and in her efforts to hold the animal, the carriage was pulled on his hind legs, cutting them quite badly. The horse dashed down Maple avenue, turned the corner at Mr. D. B. Ford's residence, on around Miss Elizabeth Wickes' corner into Front street up Maple avenue into Queen colliding with a buggy at Mr. D. A. Bacchus' corner and breaking the shafts, ran up High street to Mr. Robert J. McWhorter's stables and was stopped. Mrs. Lewis and her son were thrown out at Mrs. Wickes' corner. She was not seriously hurt, but her son was quite badly bruised about the body, arms and hands. The carriage was wrecked and the horse badly cut about the legs.
