MARYLAND'S NEXT GOVERNOR.

HON. BLAIR LEE, THE MAN OF THE PEOPLE

LEE OPENS CAMPAIGN.

Big Meeting Held in Baltimore City.

SENATOR LEE, MAYOR PRESTON, CANDIDATE MALOY AND CITY SOLICITOR FIELD SPEAK.

The opening gun in Senator Blair Lee's campaign for Governor was fired on Tuesday evening in Baltimore when the candidate and Mayor Preston made rousing speeches. Senator Lee outlined a sort of tentative platform upon which he proposes to seek the votes of the people, laying particular stress upon the Budget system for the proper handling of the State's finances which proposition was also outlined by Mr. W. B. Copper, Senator Lee's running mate for State Comptroller, in his announcement, and also declared himself in favor of enlarging the limits of Baltimore city. Senator Lee also declared himself in favor of such progressive legislation as will place Maryland in the front rank of the great States of the Union, and placed himself squarely before the people in his declaration for economy and business methods in the administration of the State government.

MAYOR PRESTON'S SPEECH.

The speech of Mayor Preston is significant. It is a clarion call to the Democrats of Maryland to nominate the strongest candidate, and he gives fine reasons for believing that Lee is the strongest candidate before the people. He says in part:

"I am in favor of the nomination by the Democrats, as their candidate for Governor, of Blair Lee. I have taken this position from what seems to be good reasons; because I believe that the best interests of the Democratic party of the State and of Baltimore city will be subserved by the nomination of Senator Lee as the Democratic candidate for Governor. In my judgment, Blair Lee will be the strongest candidate before the people that our party could name this year; that his nomination will insure the success of the Democratic party at the election; that it is for the best interests of the State and the city to have a Democratic governor; and that Senator Lee's qualifications and public record guarantee a progressive business like Democratic administration of the affairs of our State.

BY RANK AND FILE.

"Senator Lee has always stood for the principle that nominations should be made by the rank and file of the party. He won his first nomination for the State Senate in this way. His persistent fight for a primary election law and his consistent stand for progressive measures have made him strong with the independents and with the people generally. Four years ago he asked for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the same way, appealing directly to the people and surprised nearly everybody by carrying 15 out of the 23 counties, having 64 out of 129 votes in the State Convention. When he lost by the narrow margin of one vote he was a good loser. He took his medicine gracefully—went into the campaign and loyally supported his successful opponent, Mr. Gorman. It was the general opinion at that time that Lee would be entitled to the nomination this year. The fact that, in the meantime, there happened to be a vacancy in the Senate by the death of Senator Rayner and that Senator Lee became a candidate and was elected for the balance of Senator Rayner's term, is, in my judgment, no reason why he is not entitled to the nomination for Governor this year. The term for which he was elected will expire next year and he will have served out a larger portion of the term for which he was elected before his election as Governor.

"That Senator Lee is strong in the counties is shown by the fact that in 1913 he received a plurality of about 16,000 outside of Baltimore city, whereas the next year Senator Smith, running for the same office, received a plurality of only 3,000 outside of Baltimore city and practically all of that came from Baltimore county.

"Senator Lee is strong in the city because his whole course has been progressive, which appeals to the independents, and his consistent advocacy of the principle of home rule appeals to the people of Baltimore generally. The best evidence perhaps of his popularity in Baltimore city and throughout the State is that he received a plurality of over 24,000 in the city and 40,000 in the State, whereas Senator Smith, running for the same office the very next year, received a plurality of only 12,000 in Baltimore city and 15,000 in the entire S[illegible]

Mr. Howard Buys Winton.—Winton, the home place for many years of the late Richard T. Earle, was sold by James T. and Richard T. Earle, trustees, on Saturday. The property was offered in three parcels and then as a whole. When offered in parcels it aggregated the sum of $20,000, averaging $31.84 per acre. It was then offered as a whole and brought $36.15 per acre, amounting to $23,295.42 and was sold to Mr. Charles Morris Howard, of Baltimore.
