Ronnie Mason wins 21st game

The Maryland Wildcats finished their 1953 baseball season, Sunday, by trouncing Pleasantville, Va., 11-2 behind the fine pitching of Roman Mason.

Mason won his 21st game of the year, while dropping only five encounters. On Saturday, the Wildcats defeated the Laurel Stars 5-2 in Norbeck.

According to Nipole Washington, manager of the Wildcats, his team won 71 games while losing only 12 during the season.

Garret Mays, sensational one-armed catcher of Armstrong high school, Sonny Lucas, Bobby Jackson, Rudy Thomas, Bob Lewis, Wimpy Johnson, Bernanrd Gregor, and Le Roy Harris are standout players of the Wildcats.

Carver-Douglass open title series

Dunbar entertains Cardozo in Druid Hill Park contest

The city schoolboy football series gets under way this afternoon (Friday) at 3:15 o'clock at Hughes (Morgan) Stadium when eleven from Carver Vocational High and Douglass line up for the 1953 kickoff.

The contest will serve to give Douglass coach Mack Payne the first look at his revamped club, one which will take the field considerably weakened by the loss of several key players from the 1952 varsity.

Lost Half Of Line

Payne lost the entire right side of his last year's line, plus his hard-charging fullback. Samuel Glover. Glover withdrew from school at the end of the last semester and has not returned.

He is faced with the task of replacing such fine performers as end Clyde Smith, tackle Robert Wheatley and guard John Robinson. The Ducks also are lamenting the loss of their captain and tackle, from the other side. James Evans, and their regular center, Rudolph Harried.

Carver Best Bates

Entering the game with Sodie White's Tramers, the Douglass mentor was uncertain as to what he will be able to produce. He was jubilant somewhat, however, over the fact that Alvin Palmer, a junior, has loomed as a possible replacement in the fullback slot, and that halfback James Land has shown unusual promise.

"Then too," said Payne Thursday, "I guess I should find solace in the fact that I have my kicker, Henry Braxton, back in the fold. Everything being considered, we shouldn't do too badly."

Carver opened its season with a victory over Bates at Annapolis and may take the field favored to top its traditional rivals.

Dunbar Vs. Cardozo

While the two local opponents are squaring off at Morgan, the third of the local contingents, Dunbar, will be playing host to Cardozo High school of Washington, D.C.

The Poets and Clerks hook up at Druid Hill Park at the same time the others get going at Hughes Stadium.

The locals, under coach Sugar Cain, scored over their earlier competition from the Capital when, on September 25, they downed Spingarn on the latter's field.

Anderson sparkles as Packers triumph

GREEN BAY, Wis.—(ANP)—Top draft choice Billy Anderson played on defense Sunday as the Chicago Bears defeated the Green Bay Packers, 17 to 11.

His top acting was the block of an attempted field goal by Fred Cone in the fourth period.

catcher and the latter a left-handed pitcher. Both played at San Antonio, the Browns' farm in the Texas League, last year. And both were sufficiently well thought of in the Texas metropolis to be honored with "days."

What seems to escape most of the skeptics is that, as members of the Orioles, the colored players (whomever they may be) need not be affected by the segregation policies in force at some of the hotels. Home players find their own living quarters and seek out their choice of places of entertainment, too.

Different For Visitors

With the visiting players, it could be different—but it doesn't have to be.

Visiting teams stay at hotels of their preference, selected by the traveling secretaries. Whenever one hotel in a city refuses to accept the entire complement, the practice has been to seek lodging elsewhere.

Morgan faces first test at Lincoln

LINCOLN, Pa.—Whether or not the 1953 Morgan State College Bears are as good as they were made to look in their 26-0 win over Central State College two weeks ago, is a question in the minds of coaches and fans alike as the Baltimoreans primed for their clash with Lincoln University here tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon.

This is the opening CIAA game for the Golden Bruins of Eddie Hurt, and the diminutive mentor and his assistants are visualizing a real test for their charges. Morgan - Lincoln battles are usually decided by close scores, particularly when the teams meet on the home lot of the Lions.

Eye Me: Lincoln Score

Although Hurt and Co., readily admit that comparative scores mean little in determing the strength of football teams, they have paid more than a little attention to the outcome of the Central State - Missouri Lincoln game of last Saturday.

In that one, the Ohioans were topped by a 46-13 margin. And the fact that they tallied two touchdowns against the 1952 Midwestern Conference champions, while failing to dent pay dirt against the Bears, last served to raise a question of the true worth of their squad.

Morgan whipped Lincoln, 34-6, in Baltimore last year. But in 1951, when the two met here, the Bruins were happy to eke out a 7-2 decision.

Expects Victory

Although hampered by a few minor injuries, coach Hurt looked to his team to "Pull through on top."

He announced this probable starting line-up for Saturday:

Hartsfield Out

Out of the starting line-up is Howard (Ace) Hartsfield, who's been sidelined with a chipped finger incurred in the season opener.

The Bears meet Howard University, Saturday, Oct. 17 in Washington, then return to Baltimore October 24 for the second home game, meeting West Virginia State College.

Lucky Strikes . . . by JOE BLACK

There's something about a World Series that makes it a fascinating and memorable experience. It's the top sporting event of the year, and folks from all parts of the world come to see it.

Reporters and photographers swarm all over the place and we players have to be careful of what we say or do because those sportswriters will print anything they hear or see during a Series. The stands are always packed with enthusiastic rooters who cheer on every pitch and there's an excitement in the air which you can almost feel.

Most ball players aren't bothered by the crowd and noise. Of course, we realize the vastness of it all—the millions of people who are watching our every move—but once that first pitch is made, it becomes just another big ball game.

I think the toughest part about being a player in a World Series is getting tickets. We get only about six sets for the games, and you can't imagine the hundreds of 'old relatives and friends' who suddenly pop up at Series time. Strange coincidence!

Yeasir, if it's excitement and a memorable experience you ball fans are looking for, try to get to a World Series. And if you cigarette fans are looking for a memorable experience, get to a pack of Lucky Strike right away. That good, clean taste of a Lucky is an experience you'll get puff after puff. Remember, nothing—no, nothing—beats better taste, and Luckies taste better...a lot better! So, Be Happy—Go Lucky...today! See you next week for my last column of the season.

Gil Turner outpoints Scortichini in Detroit

DETROIT — Gil Turner pounded Italo Scortichini through seven of the ten rounds of their televised main event from Olympia Stadium here Wednesday night and walked off with an unanimous decision.

Except for the first three rounds when the Italian gametter gave a little more than he was compelled to take, Turner was complete master of the situation. He did not, however, hold such mastery as to ever appear close to a knockout.

Although no such count was kept by the AFRO, it was reported at ringside that a tally was kept on the efforts of Turner, ranked just beneath champion Kid Gavilan in the welterweight division. He is said to have landed a total of 830 punches on his rugged opponent.

Scortichini, who recently went ten rounds with Gavilan, did not appear to be hurt at any time during the milling. But the Philadelphian was clearly his superior at both boxing and punching.

For the first three stanzas, Italo's countering tactics paid big dividends. He continually backed away from Gil and brought over a sharp left or right, depending on his adversary's leads. Until late in the fourth round, when Turner began resorting to combinations, and bringing up a bolo — ala Gavilan—he had difficulty solving the style of the invader. Thereafter, though, it was a different story.

The win was No. 42 for the Quaker City hope. He has lost three. He also is eyeing a return go with Gavilan, to whom he lost his only knock decision.

For Scortichini, it was his seventh setback in 40 fights. He has been in two draws.

Buddy back, Colts in Chi

Rechichar may not play against bears

CHICAGO — The Baltimore Colts, strengthened in one department but weakened in another, were slated to arrive here at 8 p.m., today (Friday) to await their National Football League game with the Chicago Bears on Sunday afternoon.

Encouraged by the return to action of Buddy Young, their brilliant halfback, the Colts shape up much better on offense than they have been since Young and fullback Zollie Toth were injured in the final game of the exhibition season, against the Washington Redskins.

Young suffered a pulled ligament in his left knee.

Toth Still Out

On the darker side of the ledger, however, the Old Liners figure to be materially weakened by the loss of Bert Rechichar, easily their most outstanding defensive back. It was Rechichar who scored a touchdown and kicked a record 56-yard field goal to pace the Colts' 13-9 victory over the Bruins in Baltimore two weeks ago.

In addition to the injury to Rechichar, Toth, who sustained a broken jaw at the time Young was hurt, still is out of the line-up and unavailable for duty.

Young rejoins George Taliaferro, Mel Embree, et al, in this attempt to make it two for two over the locals. Taliaferro loomed large in the visitors' comparatively close, 27-17 loss to the champion Detroit Lions at Baltimore last Saturday night.

Lane defeated

LEXINGTON, Tenn — (ANP) —Playing here Friday night before a large crowd, Mississippi Industrial defeated Lane 14 to 0.

Cage Bullets cut trio, keep Felix, Hans, Stokes

SHEPHERDSTOWN, West Va. —Three of the six colored candidates for the Baltimore Bullets were pared from the squad here last last week as coach Clair Bee reduced his pro cage aggregation to 15 players.

Sliced from the training camp roster were Hank DeZonie, former Renaissance star, and two rookie hopefuls, Jim Powell and Blaine Denning. Neither of the three showed enough to warrant their retention, Bee explained in announcing the cut.

Retained were Ray Felix, the 6-foot, 10-inch center from Long Island University, who was the first draft choice of the Bullets; Rolien Hans, a former standout at UCLA and in the Navy, and Vernon Stokes, ex- St. Francis College ace obtained from the Boston Celtics in the trade which sent Don Barksadale to the Hub crew.

Louis Rosenbush Jr., executive vice-president of the club, announced that the Bullets will play several pre-season exhibition games prior to the opening of the 1953-4 campaign against the Rochester Royals in New York, October 31.

The local pros will leave here for Reading, Pa., on October 15th where they will tangle with the Philadelphia Warriors. Then on the folowing night, the Bullets and the Warriors will meet in Uline's Arena in Washington, D.C.

W.Va. State, Grambling, Md. State still unbeaten

(BY ANP)

In the most startling upset of the young 1953 season, unheralded and unrated Paul Quinn defeated mighty Bethune-Cookman, one of last year's top 10 teams, 7 to 0 in Waco, Tex. Saturday, Paul Quinn already had been a 27-6 victim of Grambling, while Bethune-Cokman had murdered Lane 36 to 6 in previous games this season.

Three teams, Maryland State, Grambling and West Virginia State are undefeated and untied in three games. Maryland State took on its biggest test of the season and whipped Morris Brown 7 to 0. Grambling had trouble, but took care of Kentucky State 13 to 0, and West Virginia State defeated Howard 20 to 0.

N.C. College Unbeaten

By gaining victories over the weekend, the following teams have maintained perfect records for two tilts: Southern, by taking care of Alcorn 33 to 0; North Carolina college by overwhelming Hampton 53 to 0; Fort Valley State by taking Knoxville 14 to 0; powerful Florida A. and M. by trampling Benedict 45 to 0; Mississippi Industrial by taking care of lane 14 to 0; and South Carolina State by stopping Allen 25 to 14.

Tied once, but unbeaten, in three games are Lincoln (Pa.) and Tennessee State. Lincoln romped over Central State 40 to 13, and Tennessee State whipped a rugged Langston eleven 8 to 0.

Lincoln Loses

In opening games, Prairie View battered Bishop 40 to 19; Arkansas AM and N stopped Wiley 19 to 0; Fisk upset Tuskegee 13 to 7, and A. and T. romped over Virginia Union 26 to 6. Once tied Xavier beat Alabama State 13 to 0.

Battles feature CIAA teams saw Virginia State brutalized Bluefield 47 to 0; Lincoln (Pa.) lost an interracial title to Upsala 33 to 12; Winston-Salem and Fayetteville fought to a 13-13 tie, and St. Augustine's took Shaw 6 to 0.

In other battles, Philander Smith tied Tougaloo 14 to 14; Alabama A. and M. whipped Morehouse 34 to 20, and Leland topped Rust 12 to 0.
