THE MEANING OF FURST'S INTEREST.

Perhaps the full significance of Senator Smith's effort to drag Mr. Frank Furst into the campaign has not yet dawned upon the people. It reaches farther than the present campaign. Senator Smith is very anxious to control the delegation to the National Convention next year. SENATOR SMITH IS AGAINST THE RENOMINATION OF PRESIDENT WILSON NEXT YEAR, and he knows that if he fails to nominate Mr. Harrington in this primaries he will not be able to control the delegation to the National Convention. Smith is opposed to the renomination of President Wilson, and so is his candidate, Mr. Harrington, and the State machine. They were opposed to him four years ago and they are opposed to him now, and Mr. Frank Furst has been forced into the fight this year, in order to try to help Smith beat Wilson next year. If Mr. Furst wants to know why Senator Lee preferred the governorship to the United States Senate, the TRANSCRIPT will tell him that SENATOR LEE IS A CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR TO SAVE THE STATE OF MARYLAND TO PRESIDENT WILSON IN THE NEXT NATIONAL CONVENTION, for if Smith nominates Harrington, he will endeavor to defeat President Wilson just as he did in 1912. Every man in the State who loves President Wilson for his greatness of character and for the magnificent administration he has given the people should vote for Senator Lee and the rest of the Lee ticket, Copper and Maloy, in order to prevent Senator Smith from using the State of Maryland in his efforts to defeat President Wilson for renomination. That is the meaning of the Furst interest in this campaign. Lee is for Wilson, he has always been with the President, and if he is nominated and elected the State delegation will be for Wilson in the National Convention. Vote for Lee, and save your State to President Wilson.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

DEAR SIRS:

A prominent politician in the Sixth District was quizzing a gentleman who holds his own views. He said: "What do you think of it?" "I don't know," said the gentleman. "Well," said the politician, "What do you think of Howard Turner?" "Well, I don't know," was the answer. A gentleman standing by said, "I will tell you. Jim Harris is going for Howard Turner this time, and going for blood, and Turner won't be in it." "Well," said the gentleman of whom the inquiry was made, "I think you are about right." "Now," said our nice, fat, pleasant, easy Sixth District politician, "What do you think of Lewis?" Then the answer was shot, "Why, Jess, I bet you a dollar Lewis can't spell Annapolis." "Well," said Jess, "His looks are about the only thing against him." Then the Sixth District politician, recovering from his alarm, made the remark that George Sutton, up at Locust Grove, had Sam Caldwell skinned to death. Then the gentleman, to whom he was talking, as the others listened, said, "Why man, when Sam Caldwell gets through with George Sutton he won't have a hair on his body." The red-headed fellow who was standing next to Jess couldn't help but remark that the Antis had been over the books very carefully in the Sixth District and they had over 60 majority. Now who knows anything about Sixth District politics?

SIXTH DISTRICT.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

Having always been a Democrat who has kept quiet and let the other fellow try to right the wrongs, I feel that I must no longer keep quiet about the way the Kent News is trying to bring the schools of Kent county into politics. In a weak editorial last week it charged the Anti-Organization with being an enemy to the public schools. No paper in the county has done more for the Kent schools than the TRANSCRIPT, and the Anti-Organization parents are as much interested in the welfare and advancement of their children as the other men. The wisdon of building five high schools in a small county like Kent in one year, and leaving the children of the coming generation the burden of paying for them, is doubted by a large number of our citizens. How these issues were passed will be shown by almost the entire negro population (who pay little taxes) voting for the bond issue; but, that is settled and we are to have the schools, and the Anti's children are to pay their proportion of taxation for them. But, for the good of the children do, not drag the schools into politics, and any one who does it is not the friend of the boys and girls of the county.

DEMOCRAT.

Kennedyville, Md., June 21st, 1915.
EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT,
Chestertown, Md.

GENTLEMEN: Having known Mr. Elwood Morris, the candidate for the Senate on the Anti-Organization ticket since boyhood, in fact, we were boys together, I would like to express through your paper my high regard for him. I consider him a most exemplary gentleman, a man whose fitness for any position for which he might be selected cannot be questioned. He is a good, straight, christian man, and a man with substantial business abilities. He is not so well gifted with oratory as some of his good friends perhaps, but he does possess those qualities which are required to make a real man, and he is the kind of a man the country is really in need of to-day to fill its public offices. Let's take off our hats to Ell Morris and trust that he will be successful in his effort to represent us in the next meeting of the Legislature.

Yours truly,
A FRIEND AND DEMOCRAT,
of the Second District.

Rock Hall, Md., June, 21, 1915.

DEAR SIRS:

When Emerson C. Harrington, candidate for Governor, addressed us at Rock Hall why did he not answer the inquiry about the Oyster Raise? Why did he explain by simply inviting his questioner to take the stand? The Bill says that oysters shall be struck, it does not say that there shall be a raise in the bushel. By what right has Capt. Tom Howard to order and direct the oysterman to give a raise on every bushel we sell? We are not satisfied with Comptroller Harrington's failure to answer this question any more than we are with the conduct of Capt. Howard, whom he put in office, in requiring us to give this raise.

Comptroller Harrington is a very fine man. He is a man who is responsible for Capt. Tom Howard and all he has done to us oystermen in Rock Hall. Before he gets our votes for Governor he will have to answer more questions than this about the oysters.

Yours respectfully,
ROCK HALL OYSTERMEN.
