They said the convention "enabled us to pick up many hints and teaching aids which we will find helpful when assigned a classroom."

South Baltimore Notes

By GEORGE W. E. HILL

A committee of South Baltimore citizens headed by James L. Bundy, attorney, appeared before the Board of Estimates and requested that the city budget for 1954 include an appropriation to finance an area project for South Baltimore.

Mr. Bundy pointed out the need for such a project and the service it would render the community.

The other committee members are Alexander Brown, Mrs. Sarah J. Bundy, Aaron Butler, Clark Davis, George W. E. Hill, the Rev. Edgar Ward and Mrs. Ruth Webster.

Weeks of planning with the assistance of the Baltimore Urban League preceded the committee's appearance before the board.

NAACP Drive

Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson, president of the Baltimore Branch NAACP, and others will be guest speakers at the four Mt. Winans churches Sunday morning. The residents of the community are being asked to contribute to the NAACP drive.

Attorney James L. Bundy will speak at 8 p.m. Sunday in the interest of the Trustees' Aid at the Star of Bethlehem AME church. William Polk is president, Mrs. Ernestine Christian, secretary, and the Rev. W. R. Chew is church pastor.

Dr. J. Braxton will open an office at 2356 Annapolis ave. near Huron st. in Mt. Winans. He will be the guest of School 158 Wednesday night at an apron party. Mrs. Blanch Powell is principal of the school.

Josiah Diggs school will hold its first parent-teacher meeting scheduled by the executive committee. George W. Hill is chairman, Mrs. Wright, secretary and Mrs. Vivian Bundy is school principal.

South Baltimore citizens were proud of Mrs. C. C. Spaulding, who delivered an address at the NAACP meeting at Sharp St. Memorial church Sunday. The Gerald Burks Wilson chorus, which rendered music, also was acclaimed.

The Mt. Winans Democratic club has opened its headquarters to help neighborhood residents whose rent and taxes have been raised or are considered too high, or those who have other community problems.

The club's headquarters at 2432 Annapolis ave. is open Monday, Wednesday and Thursday each week from 8 p.m. to 12 p.m. Richard Johnson is president and Louis Johnson is secretary.

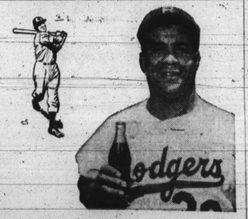
DRINK Coca-Cola



Roy Campanella

slugging catcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers and winner of National League's Most Valuable Player award in 1951, pauses to refresh with ice-cold Coca-Cola.

Only one man in a league can win the Most Valuable Player award. It takes a record of consistent performance... championship performance... day in, day out through the long season.

The same thing is true in the refreshment league. Because it has delivered... consistently, as a champion... for more than 65 years, delicious Coca-Cola gets the vote of fans from coast to coast. When they pause to relax in their busy day, they look for a frosty bottle of Coke. By the case—by the carton—buy Coca-Cola for refreshment at home.

PARKS WELL-SEASONED PURE PORK SAUSAGE

"Something Superior for Your Interior"

Honey week set Oct. 22-Oct. 31

Honey folks are celebrating the oldest "sweet" in the world. National Honey Week is being observed October 22 - October 31. This year's honey crop is a big one, market specialists say.

Honey can be used as a spread for toast, waffles and can substitute it for sugar in making cakes, cookies, muffins, also, for desserts.

Honey is a quick - energy food containing some calcium, iron and phosphorus, as well as traces of most of the vitamins.

Best Market Buys

The week's "best-buys" in fresh vegetables include cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, sweet potatoes, snap beans and spinach.

For fruits, tokay grapes, apples, small size oranges, and grapefruit are recommended.

Beef market is steady, pork is lower priced, several fish fillets are economically priced, sweet potatoes and eggs of A quality are the "best buy" for eggs.

Stretch leftover meats to make nutritional dishes

If you are wondering what to do with spaghetti, noodles, bread dressing, rice or crumbs; use meat broth for nourishing bean or vegetable soups and plan do about those leftovers in the icebox, here are some helpful suggestions for stretching meats to make tasty, nutritional dishes.

Combine meats with vegetable and gravy for stews; extend use of left-over meats in sandwiches, casseroles or soups. Homemakers can extend the flavor of their meats and effectively use every bite.

Among the interesting recipes for stretching meats are Hungarian meat loaf and salami spaghetti.

Hungarian Meat Loaf

2 lbs. ground pork shoulder
1 clove garlic
2 cups soft bread crumbs
2½ tsps. salt
¼ tsp pepper
3 tablespoons lemon juice
grated rind of 1 lemon
2 beaten eggs
3 tablespoons lemon juice

Rub mixing bowl with cut surface of garlic clove (chopped onion may be substituted). Mix bread crumbs, salt, pepper and grated rind. Stir in beaten eggs and lemon juice, then add pork and combine.

Press firmly into loaf pan and bake in 350 degrees F. oven for 1 to 1¼ hours. Pour excess fat from loaf pan, remove loaf to hot platter and serve with cream gravy made from part of the fat. Garnish with slices of lemon dipped in chopped parsley. Makes 5-6 servings.

Salami Spaghetti

½ lb. salami (cut 8 slices, chop remainder)
3 tbsp. butter or bacon drippings
1 cup chopped onion
1 cup sliced mushrooms
¼ cup chopped green pepper
2 cups tomato juice
1 tbsp. flour
1½ tbs. Worcestershire sauce
½ tsp. salt.
¼ tsp. pepper
2 tbsps. minced parsley
6-8 ounces uncooked spaghetti

Melt butter, add onion, mushrooms and brown lightly. Blend in flour, add chopped salami. Add tomato juice diluted with 1 cup water and salt and pepper. Simmer 15 minutes. Add parsley, green pepper and simmer 5 minutes longer. Serve over cooked spaghetti with the sliced salami. 4 servings.

Easy Does It

If the chromium finish on your appliances begin to lose luster, wipe off any finger stains with a lightly damp cloth. Then bring the polish back by rubbing very thoroughly with an old, soft cloth which is completely dry.

Have some old powder puffs around? Wash them thoroughly and use them for applying silver polish. Old toothbrushes can be used for applying silver polish to the fancy work on silverware.

Keep paint marks from doorknobs by applying vaseline to the knobs before starting to paint. When finished, wipe off with a cloth, thus removing paint and vaseline at the same time.

Keep Pillows Fresh

Keep your pillows sweet and fresh-smelling at all times. If you don't like hanging them out-of-doors, prop them on chairs near an open windowr.

If you're doing wallpapering and have some screens for some of your rooms, paper them in the same paper as you have for the walls. They will then be more a part of the room in which they're used.

Use a steel wool scouring pad on aluminum pots and pans after each use. The use of the pad keeps them shiny and sleek and removes small food particles which may cause pitting of the metal.

Recipe of the week

Corned Beef Sandwiches
(Serves 4)

12 slices rye toast
Softened butter
4 thick slices corned beef
Mustard
4 slices American cheese
Thin slices dill pickle
Lettuce, Mayonnaise

Spread 4 slices toast with butter and cover with corned beef. Spread sparingly with mustard and cover 4 more slices with buttered toast.

Spread tops with butter, place cheese on toast, a lettuce leaf and spread with mayonnaise. Top with remaining toast slices.

"Glazed Fruit Pie" a perfect, dessert, is really extra easy to put together. Fill a baked pastry shell with a layer of chopped cooked prunes and sliced banana and then cover the fruit with the beautiful golden orange glaze.

Be sure you give the glaze a chance to set before you cut the pie. If you're not counting calories, a puff of whipped cream on top will be a delightful extra.

Glazed Fruit Pie

1½ cups cooked prunes
1 baked 9-inch pastry shell
2 bananas
½ cup granulated sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
¼ teaspoon salt
2/3 cup cooking liquid from prunes
1/3 cup orange juice
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Pit and chop prunes, and place in baked pastry shell. Slice bananas over prunes. Blend sugar, cornstarch and salt thoroughly, and mix with part of prune liquid.

Combine remaining prune liquid and orange juice, and heat. Stir in cornstarch mixture and cook until clear and thickened.

Remove from heat and stir in orange rind, lemon juice and butter. Pour over the prunes and bananas. Cool thoroughly before cutting.

Makes 1 (9-inch) pie.
