THE BALTIMORE SUN.

The issue of the city against the counties and the position of the Baltimore Sun in this campaign is interesting. We are afforded a striking illustration of a newspaper turning its back upon the home of its birth and the main source of its revenue, and lining up with a crowd that by raising the issue of the city vs. the counties, has thrown the red flag in the face of the people of the city, and so much as openly states that the counties shall have everything and the city virtually nothing, and we see a city newspaper, which prides itself upon "doing things" and "starting things" for the city's development playing hand in glove with those who would do our great city harm. Four years ago the Sun thought well of Senator Lee for Governor against Senator Gorman. It held Senator Lee up to the gaze of the people of the State as being a man of progressive tendencies, a man of the people, and whose career in the Maryland Senate had stamped him as the type of man that was needed in the State House to give the people of the State a progressive, economical and business like administration. We do not mean to say that the Sun has not the right to change its opinions, and be against Senator Lee this time, but when it forsakes Senator Lee, who is the same man he was four years ago, for a crowd that has openly declared, by raising the issue of the city against the counties, that they intend to prevent Baltimore city's development and expansion, the Sun will have to give the people a far better reason for its preferences for Harrington than that Lee has changed. The fact of the business is that Lee has not changed one whit. The Sun has changed. It has arrayed itself against its own city, it is opposing its own city's legitimate expansion and progressive development, and it forsakes its home people when they have a most excellent chance to secure such legislation as will give the city the opportunity to grow and develop as it must of necessity do, if it is to maintain its position among the great cities of the country. The great question that is interesting to the people of the counties, who take no stock whatever in the bugaboo of the city vs. the counties issue is why is the Sun opposing the interest of its own city? Why has she forsaken the people who are striving for development, and is working with those who are seeking to throttle the wheels of progress and prevent the proper and legitimate enlargement of her borders? It is indeed a strange position for a city newspaper to occupy, and there must be some deeper reason for its position than mere friendship for Mr. Harrington.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Christ M. P. Sunday school will run an excursion to Annapolis and Washington, D. C., on Wednesday, July 21. Members of the Sunday school and church will go free, but all others will pay 50 cents.

The service in Christ M. P. Church on Sunday evening was in charge of the C. E. Society. It was an evening of song, and was in charge of Mr. Joseph N. Wheatley, who delivered a splendid address, and conducted a most excellent programme. Miss Edith Fallowfield sang a sweet solo, and the congregational singing was inspiring and helpful.

Rev. Dr. F. T. Tagg, editor of the Methodist Protestant, will preach in Christ M. P. Church to-morrow, Sunday morning and evening. There will be a Fourth of July service in the Sunday school in the afternoon in charge of Mr. R. Frank Elburn, who is arranging an excellent programme.

Emmanuel P. E. Sunday school enjoyed the day on Tuesday picnicing at Tolchester. The M. E. Sunday school went to the same place on Wednesday and had a fine time.

Know Paint

There's a paint-education in this advertisement.

Buy by the job, not gallon. Buy by the paint put-on; that's the job.

The price of paint is so much a gallon; that can't be helped, but amounts to nothing.

The price of painting is so much a day; that can't be helped, but amounts to nothing.

Put them together. How can you do it? You've got to lose perhaps half of your money.

Devoe, 10 gallons enough for the average job; an average paint, 15. Now reckon your costs. Count labor a day for a gallon. Devoe 10 days; the other 15.

Devoe about $50; the average paint about $70 or $80; the dearer the labor the bigger the difference, always that way.

But that's for the job. How long is it going to last? One twice as long as the other.

DEVOE
