LINTHICUM OUT FOR LEE.

Praises Montgomery Countian's Record in Legislature and Questioned Comptroller's Ability.

Congressman J. Charles Linthicum on Wednesday gave out a statement indorsing the candidacy of Senator Blair Lee for the Democratic nomination for Governor and taking a few flings at State Comptroller Harrington, Senator Lee's rival.

He makes repeated references to the manner in which Senator Lee co-operated with him during the time they were fellow-members of the State Senate to secure legislation for Baltimore city, and declares that to refuse to support the Senator at this time would be a practical repudiation of his own record.

"I served for three sessions with Senator Lee in the Senate of Maryland," says Mr. Linthicum, "and during these three sessions there was scarcely a time when we were not together upon many important measures before that body. Senator Lee's record in the State Senate was uniformly one of splendid achievements for the public good."

CITES B. AND O. INVESTIGATION.

Mr. Linthicum refers to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad investigation of the session of 1906, saying that Senator Lee, together with "others of independent thought and action," advocated an immediate investigation, as against a two-year investigation proposed. The result was a sale of the State's holdings in the railroad at a sum, which, Mr. Linthicum thinks, was at least $1,000,000 in excess of what it would have brought two years later.

The Congressman next calls attention to the assistance rendered by Senator Lee in the passage of the $5,000,000 Water Loan for Baltimore; adds that those who are now supporting State Comptroller Harrington for the Gubernatorial nomination opposed the measure, and then asserts that he mentions the matter simply to show that Senator Lee and his friends helped "us" to the very best of their ability while the friends of Mr. Harrington opposed "us" at every turn.

Mention is made by Mr. Linthicum also of Senator Lee's work in helping to force the passage of the Public Service Commission Law, the Income Tax Amendment (which some of Mr. Harrington's friends opposed) the Corrupt Practices Act, and various other measures. Senator Lee, the Congressman says, likewise advocated the exemption of city stock from State taxation.

FRIEND OF COUNTIES AND CITY.

"I have always found him on the side of progressive and advanced legislation," continues Mr. Linthicum. "I have always found him fair and just to the counties, and at the same time a friend of the city. Baltimore has never asked for more than her rights and does not propose to do so in the future. I feel that not only would Senator Lee prove a friend of the city, but he could likewise be depended upon to do everything in his power in the interest of the counties of the State."

Mr. Linthicum asserts that he is not interested in the campaign from the political standpoint alone, but rather as a large tax-payer and one who has been constantly engaged in constructive work. The various companies in which his firm is interested, he says, have added to the taxable basis of the city several millions of dollars during the last 10 years. He feels, he continues, that the election of Senator Lee as Governor would procure an efficient government which will benefit the people in many ways and result in lowering the tax rate.

TAKES SHOT AT HARRINGTON.

For Mr. Harrington and those who are supporting him Mr. Linthicum declares he has nothing but the kindest feelings. Senator Smith he refers to as his close personal friend. He then takes a shot at Mr Harrington by declaring that during the four years the latter has been Comptroller he has not advanced the efficiency of the office in the slightest.

"That Mr. Harrington has not done so is regrettable," says Mr. Linthicum, "but he should not be promoted by the people of the State to the Governorship until he has shown greater and better results in the public service."

The statement concludes with a warm indorsement of the candidacy of State Senator Maloy for the nomination for Attorney-General, saying Mr. Maloy is "well qualified, splendidly equipped and will make a most excellent official."

Big Fish Drowns Child.

A sad and curious accident occurred at the home of Orlando Taylor, on Wicomico river, last week, when his little grandson, who was fishing from the wharf near the house, was dragged overboard by a large catfish, which had been hooked by the little fellow while fishing. The boy, who was about five years old, had his hook and line attached to a shingle when the big catfish pulled him from the wharf into the river, which is very deep at that point, and the little fellow was drowned. His body was discovered in the deep water with the fishing line tied around his wrist, and the catfish still on the hook.
