Youngsters, grownups, to don masks, costumes for Halloween

with Lula Jones Garrett

By SHIRLEY KYLE

(Substituting for Mrs. Garrett who is on vacation).

The youngsters will have nothing on the grownups come Halloween. Everyone will don their masks and costumes this year . . . the little folk to prowl the neighborhoods asking trick or treats . . . the older folk to gather at the Carson Model Studio on North ave. for the gala masquerade ball

And not to be outdone by these charming model hostesses, the up and coming mates of the city, the Cossocks, is holding its Queen's Ball, that bewitching night, at Pythian Castle, 1423 Pennsylvania ave.

This classic $600 affair climaxes the club's four-month popularity contest in which 12 young misses and mesdames have worked hard at selling votes, and the lucky gentleman with the winning vote of the evening will receive a $50 cash prize.

Proceeds from the affair will be donated to the Cossocks pet civic group, the Urban League.

The gallant hosts are:

Charles T. Bruce, president; Arthur Roane, secretary; Leroy Jackson, treasurer; Kamler J. Randall, sergeant-at-arms; and Rufus Williams, William Ringgold, Thomas Green, Jan Ross, Albert Rice, and William Jackson.

QUEEN CANDIDATES

And they wound up with some of the cutest tots in the city, among them:

Lester Hudgins, Karen Bourne, Michael Garding, Lorena Brown, Eugene Drayton, Henry Bundy, Linda Brooks, Jo Ann Hynes, Clarence Bantum, Janice Chesham, Michael and Linwood Rogers and Linda Press, Sharon Pettiford and Gail Mitchell.

The contest ends this Saturday afternoon at the Madison YWCA with a costume party for the youngsters. And if anyone should ask you, the contest is being held for the wives' pet project . . . to raise money for a worthy student.

Final plans were made at their last meeting when they were hosted by Bernice Buckner, Martha Allen and Miriam Brown. Catherine Greene is president.

RUSH TEA

The Delta chapter of Pi Beta Sigma sorority held a gala autumn "Rush Tea," last Sunday for all the non-Greek college coeds from Morgan and Coppin

Among the newcomers, welcomed at the home of Mary Carter (she's a member of the Delta Alpha chapter) by Sorors Joan Simmons, June Epps, Lillian Campbell, Gladys Jackson, Mae Bella Pressley, Helen Jones and Patricia Thompson, were:

Agnes Sewell, Velma Hayes, Bettine Jenkins, Muriel Isaacs, Lillian Smallwood, Cleo Ashby, George Newby, Ruth Banks, Delors Ames, Mary Turner and Evangeline Pearson.

From the Delta Alpha chapter came Sorors Marjorie Epps, Nancy Daniels and National President Edna DeCoursey.

MALE HOSTS

The men certainly proved this week that they can entertain just as well, and maybe even better than the women folk.

William Chisley gave a dinner party for his spouse, Edna, at their home at 1417 Riggs ave. And among the folks who are still raving about his delicious menu are:

The Howard Laceys, the Will Alstons and the Roger Scotts and also Florence Twine, Sadie Jackson, Elsie McCoy, Valerie Demby, Edna Hendricksen, Alfreda Twine, Elizabeth Jones and William Scott.

And I can't overlook the Howard University class reunion (if I reveal the year, I'll be telling some ages) held at Bernice Phelps' home the other evening where the men provided all the refreshments.

Seen about greeting old classmates were:

DINNER GUESTS

Major and Mrs. Leonard Underwood (he's going to Germany next month) entertained Capt. and Mrs. John Shelton, the Rev. and Mrs. Leonard Anderson) he's assistant pastor of St. James PE church and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith at their home Wednesday.

And what a feast there was

On hand to greet their masked guests will be Joan Simmons, Mae Leonard, Johnreme Brooks, Mary Johnson, Lucille Scott Kane, Georgia Newby, Lois Lyas, Hallie Watkins, Pearl Bailey, Willamena Sibley and Willia Bland.

. . . tamale splash, green beans, toused salad, mashed potatoes, table wine, home-made apple pie (Mrs. Underwood's special) and cocktails, early, of course.

PEREGRINATORS

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Crowder (he's a member of the New York metropolitan police force) and Mrs. Mable Johnson, of Yonkers, she's the mother of Diahanne Carol, (last week's winner on the Arthur Godfrey Talent Scouts show) were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Rea, 1525 N. Carey st.

And Mrs. Ora Flagg of Charleston, W. Va., was a recent guest of Mrs. Mabel Whitfield, 330 E. Carrollton ave. While in the city, she was entertained by Mrs. Mary Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lee, Mrs. Elenor Calvin, the Rev. and Mrs. Irvin Carpenter, Mrs. Mabel Williamson and Mrs. Sheila Williams.

CUPIDOODLING

Hear that Dorothea Battle and William Merchant tied the knot over the week end.

POTPOURRI.

The Sporting Dukes met this week to complete arrangements for their dance at the Elks Homes, Nov. 7. E. Braxton is president; J. Cooper, editor.

Kathleen Newsome was hostess for the "We Moms" recently. On hand to enjoy the delightful supper following the business session were Mae Cornish, Neonta Corbin, Patricia Boltsclaro, Bernice Turner, Lucille Williams, Marion Amprey, Leona Ford, Jeanette Johnson, Anna Smith and Thelma Ruffin.

And on Nov. 6, the Silhouettes will give their annual barn dance at Biddle Hall.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Fourteen - year - old Barbara Clark, 1832 Orleans st., (she's the daughter of the Edward Clarks) celebrated her birthday with her friends last week. About to give her best wishes of the year were:

Carolyn Maynard, Natsel Lyles, Gloria Kilgore, Rudolph Brown, Cecille Grant, Helen McLarin, Frances Buff, Charles Babbs and John Williams.

South Baltimore Notes

By GEORGE W. E. HILL

One of the city's first colored firemen is a South Baltimorean, Ernest Barnesd who was born in the 500 block of Conway st., 82 years ago.

A product of School 106 and Carver Vocational, he spent three years in the Army. He is the son of Mrs. Myrtle Barnes and the late Willie Barnes, who died when Ernest was 6-years-old.

A runaway truck at Fremont ave and Ridgely st. Tuesday night made a complete U turn, smashed into a beauty shop operated by Mrs. Lenor Spencer, demolishing the entire front; injured an ex-AFRO-news carrier, Tyrone McClain, and damaged the awning, flower stands and potted flowers, used during the recent Clean Block campaign at Hill's Tonsorial parlor.

Marie Littles, who was standing in the doorway at 703 S. Fremont, narrowly escaped injury by leaping to safety. She suffered nervous shock, however.

The accident was witnessed by Joseph Harold of 613 W. Conway st.

New Community Club

The Southside Community club, a newly-organized group, will hold its first meeting at 422 S. Paca st. at 3 p.m. Sunday. The club, another designed to help better living conditions in South Baltimore, was organized by James Hosmer and Benjamin Abraham.

Bethany Baptist church, 2600 block Ridgely, st., Mt. Winans, observed its annual Men's Day Sunday. The men reported a total of $800. Thomas Meehling was chairman; Howard Patterson, co-chairman; the Rev. Richard Wallace, secretary; Deacon Warren Brown, treasurer, and the Rev. C. D. Johnson, pastor.

Sergeant Rehak and Patrolman Robert Eben solved the mystery of the telephone thieves who robbed Hill's Tonsorial parlor at 703 S. Fremont ave, and the record shop at 800 S. Fremont ave. George Hill and representatives of the Southside, including Cherry Hill and Mt. Winans, are sending letters of congratulations to the officers.

School 156 held its first PTA meeting Thursday, at which time open house was also held. Dr. Houston R. Jackson, assistant superintendent of schools, was guest speaker. Mrs. Blanche Powell is principal of the school and Mrs. Pauline Brooks is PTA president.

The executive board of School 162 PTA also held its first meeting Thursday, at which time Harold S. Caldwhill, director of the City Department of Recreation, explained plans for a playground at Sharp and Hamburg sts. George W. Hill is chairman of the executive board. Mrs. Missouri Wright is secretary and Mrs. Vivian Bundy is principal.

Church Plans Men's Day

Mt. Winans Baptist church will observe its annual Men's Day Sunday. The Rev. Herbert Moore is church pastor.

The Trustees aid made plans at its bi-monthly meeting Thursday for a turkey dinner and supper to be held Friday, Nov. 13

Medical auxiliary to honor president

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Maryland Medical Association have completed plans for a tea to be given in honor of Mrs. R. Sillmon Smith, national president, at the Me-De-Co Club house, Nov. 15, from 5 to 7 p.m.

Dr. Bessie B. Small is president. Other officers are:

Mesdames G. Franklin Phillips, Maurice Adams, C. M. Lawrence, C. R. Campbell, Carson Johnson, Herbert Moseley, Thomas Harris, Albert Burwell, Garland Chissell, and Evan A. Gilkes.

at the home of Mrs. Trilby Wicks, 2013 Puget st. Thursday's meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Chinn, 2608 Pierpoint st.

William Polk is president of the old and Mrs. Ernestine Christian is secretary.

It's wonderful the way Chewing-Gum Laxative acts chiefly to REMOVE WASTE -NOT GOOD FOOD

Here's the secret millions of folks have discovered about FEEN-A-MINT, the modern chewing-gum laxative. Yes, there is why more people use this wonderfully different.

FEEN-A-MINT is different because you chew it. It's different, too, because it improves mostly waste—not good food!

You see, FEEN-A-MINT does not work like a cathartic, which can be hard on your system. That's why it does not take away a lot of the good food you need for energy.

Doctors KNOW that FEEN-A-MINT works gently in the lower bowel . . . removes mostly waste, not good food!

So to feel like a million, do as millions do. Chew delicious FEEN-A-MINT and feel full of life and energy! Get FEEN-A-MINT! 25¢, 50¢ or only 10¢.
