OUR DEATH RECORD.

MISS JOSEPHINE M. HICKS.

Miss Josephine M. Hicks, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hicks, died at her home on Queen street, last Saturday morning, of pneumonia and other complications, aged 23 years. Miss Hicks had been recuperating from a severe attack of typhoid fever when she developed an attack of pleurisy which resulted in her death. The deceased was a young lady of the most exemplary character. Gentle in disposition, kind and affectionate, she won the regard and esteem of all who knew her, and her early demise is a sad bereavement to her esteemed family and friends. Miss Hicks was a member of Christ M. P. Church and Sunday school, and before leaving home to engage in her chosen profession, she was a faithful attendant at the services of her church. She lead a most exemplary life, preferring the quiet of her home life and attention to church duties rather than the whirl of social gaiety, and all who knew her admired her for her womanly virtues and sweet disposition. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home of her parents, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment was private in Chester cemetery.

ENOCH N. ROLAND.

Enoch N. Roland, a former well-known and highly respected citizen of Chestertown, died at St. Petersburg, Florida, last Friday morning at 3.30 of the infirmities of age, being 88 years old. He leaves six children to mourn his loss, viz, Charles E., George Z., Enoch H., John, William B. and Mrs. W. T. Matthews. The body was brought to Chestertown on the train, Tuesday, and interment was made in Old St. Paul's. J. E. Ferguson, undertaker. Masonic services were held at the grave. Mr. Roland moved from here about five years ago to Florida with his daughter and family. He has been in failing health for several years and his demise had been expected. He was at one time one of our most prominent agriculturists and was an ardent Methodist. He was a charter member of the Chestertown Lodge A. F. & A. M. The pall-bearers were: S. Scott Beck, A. L. Sparks, H. F. Jefferson, Harry Graham, W. B. Usilton, J. H. Sides, all from the Masonic order.

FINE MATINEE.

The Fourth of July matinee held at Radcliffe Park track on Monday was the very best ever given by the association. More than 1,500 people saw the races which attracted a class of horses seldom seen anywhere on the Maryland-Delaware peninsula in a matinee. The feature events of the afternoon—the class C and class D paces—drew some of the speediest horses on the peninsula. The fastest time of the afternoon was made by Bertram McKinney, F. M. Hanson's Baltimore entry, who paced a mile without being forced in 2.15¼, the fastest time of the afternoon. Every race was a horse race, and the people surely got the full worth of their money. The Greenboro band rendered excellent music for the occasion. Rowdy Boy, Mr. G. T. Satterfield's fast pacer, sustained his reputation for speed by winning the class D pace from a classy field, the time being 2.16 and 2.18. Mr. George Bell's Pony Boy, II, showed class in the class F pace by going an easy mile in 2.20⅝ being nosed out in the second heat by Enoch Johnson's Dr. R. in 2.18½. The summary:
