MR. HARRINGTOM'S RECORD.

How Mr. Emerson C. Harrington may fare in his contest for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination is no concern of ours, from a political standpoint. But when Mr. Harrington undertakes to plead his cause on the basis of his record as State Comptroller, we feel at entire liberty to suggest that he has not a leg to stand on. As a matter of fact, Mr. Harrington has been for four years the State Comptroller and has known, (or ought to have know) the lamentable character of the State's fiscal system and its increasing financial difficulties. And yet nobody knows of a single thing which Mr. Harrington has done in all those four years, or of a single idea which he has advanced, to help the situation or to even increase the efficiency of his office as the administator of the State's finances.

This is not much of a record to afford any encouragement to Maryland citizens who reflect on the possibility of Mr Harrington becoming Governor. Neither is it a record on which Mr. Harrington is entited to ask Maryland citizens to make him Governor.

But this is not all—nor the worst. The state of Maryland will come up to October 1st, just about one million dollars in debt, on current expenses.

This is entirely apart from the large bonded indebtedness for permanent public improvements. We mean that the Treasury of Maryland is about one million dollars "short"—and "short" because of the "rotten" jobhunting, spoils grabbing, boss-ridden performances of a partisan Legislature. Now, during all this time of riotous extravagance, of accumulating indebtedness, Mr. Harrington has not only been (presumably) presiding over the finances of the State, but he has been a chief lieutenant of the John Walter Smith organization, which organization has bossed the Legislature in its every performance. What has Mr. Harrington, or the organization with which he has been for years allied, done (or tried to do) to prevent the shameful condition into which we have come? Mr. Harrington is going around the State claiming to have "foreseen" this condition and to have warned against it. So he did and so did many others of us. But Mr. Harrington was in a position to do more than "foresee" and "forewarn." HE WAS IN A POSITION TO INFLUENCE. But did he lift a finger? The Editor of the WHIG was a member of the last Legislature and saw a great deal of Mr. Harrington; saw him spend days and days (and nights and nights) fighting for the Shepherd Oyster Bill. But he never saw Mr. Harrington spend a moment fighting for the salvation of the State's financial condition. If he wanted to make a record as the State's chief financial officer, that was his opportunity. AND HE FAILED. Failed too, where failure amounts to so very much. What right has a man, who was apparently so indifferent to the interests of the people, who had no word to speak, no deed to do for the State's material walfare, what right has such a man to ask the people of this State to make him Governor?

The only right we can think of is the "right divine" of the John Walter Smith organization to crown whom it will.—Cecil Whig.

THE WHITE COMPANY

A New Enterprise Started on the Eastern Shore.

The White Company has opened offices at 304 Salisbury Building and Loan Banking Building, Salisbury, where they will deal in a general office outfitter line which includes office supplies of every nature. They are Eastern Shore Maryland and Virginia and Delaware agents for the Royal Typewriter, Barrett Adding Machine, filing cabinets and office fixtures of all kinds. They will rent, repair, sell or exchange any make of typewritter, also supplies.

The White Company is under management of Mr. H. E. White who has had eight years experience in the typewriter and office supply line. Mr. White comes direct from Philapelphia where he was District Sales Manager for one of the leading Typewriter Companies.

Mr. White sees an opening in this vicinity for an up-to-date office supply house and came here with the understanding and belief that the people on this peninsula will co-operate with him to make his business a success. Furthermore Mr. White desired to get near his native home which is in Somerset county.

Mr. B. F. White formerly of the Norfolk Typewriter Exchange, Norfolk, Virginia, a brother of Mr. H. E. White will join him in this new undertaking. They will be pleased to submit samples and prices of anything.

Call 972 to get in communication with them. Watch the advertising columns of this paper for their ads."

Ought to Paint

I ought to have painted last year, but I hated to pay $2 a gallon.

I've got to paint this year; it'll take a little more paint; I suppose 1 gallon in 10; and a little more work; I suppose 1 day in 10.

My job would have cost last year about $50; it is going to cost this year $55

$5 gone. I suppose it'll be the same again, if I wait again.

What if paint goes-down to $1.75 a gallon? $2.50 on the job!

I shan't wait; what a fool I was!

DEVOE.
