Florida teachers hear Dr. Ford

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. Three proposals for "revitalizing the English curriculum" were made by Dr. A. Ford, head of the department of English at Morgan College in an address to the annual conference of the Florida Teachers of English.

The conference was held Oct. 30-31 at Florida A. and M. university with high school and college teachers of English throughout the state attending.

Proposals Set Forth

Dr. Ford proposed: 1) the promotion of closer articulation between high school and college teaching of English;

(2) re-examination of the present program of English to see that proper motivation is given to students, especially those students with inferior backgrounds; and,

3) resistance against current effects to let down the bars in English usage and to minimize the importance of correctness in form

In a second address to the student body of 2,200, Dr. Ford discussed "Trends in Modern Literature".

Christmas seal sale begins Nov. 16; $150,000 goal

The 1953 Christmas Seal sale of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association has been approved by the Coordinating Council for Fund-Raising Campaigns, it was announced this week by Dr. Russell A. Nelson, president of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association.

According to a letter recently received at Christmas Seal Headquarters from Clark S. Hobbs, secretary of the Coordinating Council, "approval was granted the Maryland Tuberculosis Association to conduct its Christmas Seal Sale from Nov. 16 to Dec. 25 for a Baltimore goal of $150,000."

During last year's campaign, $147,349.85 was raised in Baltimore City. This was the largest ever raised in the City for tuberculosis work.

Funds raised in Baltimore by the Maryland Tuberculosis Association are used exclusively for anti-tuberculosis work in the city. Of all funds raised in Maryland, 94 per cent remains in the State to support a program of tuberculosis detection, medical research, tuberculosis education and rehabilitation and social services to tuberculosis patients.

The remaining six per cent goes to the support of the National Tuberculosis Association.

The public is invited. Contribution is 50 cents. All proceeds will be used for the furtherance of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship work.

Institute on crime moves to Calvert

Because attendance at the Enoch Pratt Free Library's weekly institute on "Crime and the Citizen" has far exceeded expectations, as well as the library's facilities to accommodate the crowd, future lectures will be held in neighboring Calvert Hall college, Miss Amy Winslow, library director has announced.

Despite the fact that precautions were taken Tuesday evening to set up extra chairs and amplifiers in the third floor corridors to handle the overflow, Miss Winslow said, many persons were unable to find even comfortable standing room where they could hear the speakers.

In the auditorium, where the program was scheduled to start at 8:15 p.m., some early arrivals were seated by 7 o'clock, the director stated.

Filled Within An Hour

An hour later every seat was filled, and people were sitting on window sills, the floor and the stage steps. Standees were four rows deep at the rear of the room and in doorways.

Early Wednesday morning library officials held an emergency meeting and decided that because of the great public interest shown, the series must Accordingly, the use of the be moved to larger quarters. auditorium in Calvert Hall college, approximately twice the size of the Pratt's lecture room, was solicited and obtained.

Brother Gabriel Cecilian, F.F.C., president of the college, volunteered to use the auditorium available without charge Miss Winslow said, because of the program's "importance and value to the community."

The theme of next Tuesday's (November 10) meeting is "The Control of Crime."

"Earnestly contending for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." Jude 3.
FRONTIER GOSPEL RADIO BROADCAST
—WITH
Beginning Lord's Day, Nov. 15th, 9:05—10:00 p.m.
—Pray for us that God might use this faith work to the glory and honor of the Lord Jesus Christ—
PRAYER POWER —
Prayer has never been tried to its full capacity in any church. If we want to see mighty wonders of divine power and grace wrought in the place of weakness, failure and disappointment; let the whole church answer God's standing challenge, "Call unto me and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not" —Jeremiah 33:3. —J. HUDSON TAYLOR
EUGENE T. GROVE, Pastor

Mme. I. Jordan & Her Gospel Singers
Madam I. Jordan along with her Jordan Gospel Singers of radio fame and recording artist, are singing there way into the hearts of Americans. They are traveling now. They may be in your city or town soon. Don't miss seeing and hearing these great people. Watch for the date and place for Madam I. Jordan and her Gospel Singers appearance.
Will appear in Washington, D.C., November 15, 1953, Sunday, 8 P. M., at the Union Hall, 525 New Jersey Avenue.
