MEN'S $18 GOLD WATCHES

With Elgin Movement at $12.50

The name Elgin in itself is sufficient guarantee of the reliability of the mechanism, but to get a gold dust-proof case—well, you would be justified in questioning the reason. The reason is simply this:

We want to offer a six-day-only special, and knowing how well this offer will be received, we allow you an opportunity to save $5.50 on a watch you know is all right.

LOCAL MATTERS

State Camp P. O. S. of A.—The State Convention of the P. O. S. of A. will meet at Centreville on August 2, and a big convention is expected. Every house and place of business in that hospitable town will decorate for the occasion and the county seat of Queen Annes will look splendid in her gala attire. The delegates chosen to represent the local camps are: Camp No. 34, John C. Davis, Earl A. Barnes, Joseph Dwyer, J. Waters Russell, Harry Rouse; Camp No. 87, John E. Pennington and W. E. Ringgold.

Dixie D. Sold.—Dixie D., by Victor Russell, owned by Mr. J. Leonard Wilson, of Millington, and sold by him to a Mr. Johnson, of Middletown, Del., for $1350, was sold on Saturday to Frank Concenmon, Yorklyn, Del., for $152.50. The sale was made by A. H. Tyson, the well-known Wilmington trainer. Dixie D. has a mark of 2.13¼, and bid fair to be one of the fastest horses ever raised on the peninsula. Last year at Byberry, Pa., while in the stable of Powell Peacock, he fractured a hip bone, and has been lame since. If he comes around allright, his new owner will have a prize.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

¶Pomona Grange will be held in Galena on Thursday next, August 5th.

¶Contractor Harry Cannon has begun work on Mr. J. Raymond Simpers' new home on Queen street.

¶The Chautauqua banners are flying over the streets of the town. Chautauqua week will be August 31 to Sept. 6.

¶Master Harry Russell had his leg severely bitten by a dog Saturday morning. He was trying to pull his dog from the other canine when it turned on him and bit him.

¶A fine Pierce-Arrow limousine car has been seen on our streets quite frequently during the week. It belongs to a gentleman who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E W. Corwin, over the river.

¶Some of our gardners are making good money from their lima bean crop. They have been selling for 18 cents a quart whole sale. One of our growers picked one bushel and a half on Wednesday.

¶Jim Rasin, colored, who was desperately wounded by Constable Dunn, of Church Hill, while attempting to shoot Sheriff Brown, of Kent county, recently, is recovering. He is confined in Centreville jail.

¶Mr. Thomas Bryan, one of our progressive farmers, has one of the finest tomato patches ever seen in this county. People for miles around have gone to see the patch and ask Mr. Bryan the secret of his success.

¶Mr. C. Romie Skirven, of Worton, has been shipping some fine Carmen peaches to Chestertown market during the week. They found ready sale here at 60 cents a basket. Mr. Skirven has a fine crop of peaches this year.

¶Messrs. D. B. Maloney, D. B. Jones, Richard Hodgkin, Walter Money and W. C. Money, a committee on the new school building project at Townsend, Del., Saturday motored to Chestertown to look over the new school building here and get some ideas for the schoolhouse to be built there.

¶Mr. James Thompson was compelled to kill his two valuable rabbit puppies last Thursday, they showing signs of the rabies. Mr. Thompson says they bit everything in sight and foamed at the mouth and that, seeing he could do nothing for them, secured a gun and shot them.

¶Mr. Alfred Crew, working for Mr. A. M Culp, at the lumber yard, was severely bruised and injured when a pile of lumber fell on him Tuesday. Mr. Crew was removing some boards when the pile caved in on him, burying him beneath it. Two colored men saw the lumber fall and removed it from him, and he was assisted to his home on High street.

THE KENT AND QUEEN ANNES FAIR.

Annual Exhibition Draws Big Crowds and is a Success Financially.

The annual fair and exhibit of the Kent and Queen Annes Fair Association held at Radcliffe Park this week was attended by large crowds each day. Never before in the history of the association has such a fine array of horses been brought together for the races, and the bangtails, all of which are thoroughbreds, furnished lots of sport for those who love running races. More than 200 horses were entered in the various classes, and the racing each day was all that could be desired. A pleasing feature of the fair was the exhibit of farm implements, carriages, etc., by Kent's leading dealers. Those who have exhibits are: Davis & Satterfield, Chestertown; Baynard Harper, Still Pond, A. S. Turner, Worton; C. C. A. Bauercamper, Chestertown; Graham & Thomas, Chestertown; T. B. Kilbourn, Fairlee; H. D. Orem, Chestertown, International Harvester Co.

Besides the display of farm implements there were most creditable exhibits of automobiles by local dealers. The Overland and other makes were well demonstrated by Mr. John H. Clendaniel, Jr., of Kennedyville; the handsome Paige, 1916 models, were ably championed by Mr. Charles W. Kibler, Jr., and Mr. A. S. Turner, the Worton dealer, had the popular Dodge, and lost no time in telling the people of its merits. The only thing that was lacking which after all is the real drawing card at a fair, were the farm products, cattle and poultry exhibits. These things were most conspicuous by their absence, and the management should surely make an effort to arrange such exhibits another year. The management is to be congratulated upon the absence of objectionable catch-penny amusements and skin games. There was a most conspicuous absence of such things, and the pleasure of the visitors was all the greater because of their absence.

The various privileges looked after the needs of the inner man, and nobody had the slightest chance to leave the grounds hungry or thirsty.

The racing each day was the feature. Starting Judge Wm. H. Whitehurst, of Baltimore, handled the field in a creditable manner, and aside from a slight confusion on the first day, caused by a lack of correspondence between the number worn by the horse and the number on the program, the card was run off each day in fine shape. The showing made by the Kent and Queen Anne's horses in their various races shows that Kent is in the running with the best of them. Pony Boy, Twinkle March, Susie A., Grey Nipps and others showed their speed to fine advantage and rewarded their backers by either winning or getting a big piece of the purse. The summary of each day's racing including the runners, is as follows:

THURSDAY.

Between 8,000 and 10,000 people saw the greatest racing in the history of the association on Thursday. The feature of the card was the special free-for-all, which brought together three of the fastest half-mile side-wheelers in the county which were offered a purse of gold to the one breaking the track record, 2.10½, held by Joe Boy. The crowd had the pleasure of seeing Mary Ellen, the speedy Washington mare, ably driven by Miller, turn the track in 2.09½. Sellers D. took the first heat in 2.10¼, and after the second heat the race was postponed until yesterday. Every race on the card was a great one, but the 2.14 pace furnished the sport of the afternoon. Bessie Patchen, the Philadelphia mare, with McCarnas up proved the real good thing in this race, and after laying up the first and second heats went on and won the next three handily. In the 2.30 pace Ashland Read, Kline's entry, and Billy Fair, Dr. Free's entry from York, Pa., had a battle royal, doing each mile in 2.14¼, and there were many who believe that Billy Fair was not extended, and some go so far as to say that he is the fastest pacer at the track. The crowd was very orderly, and was handled splendidly by the officials. The attendance was the largest in the history of the association. The summary of the races follows:

2.20 PACE—PURSE $300.

Ashland Read, Kline	1	1	1
Billy Fair, Free	2	2	2
Belton R., Johnson	5	4	3
