Girl Friends' cocktail dance great fun for host of guests

with Lula Jones Garrett

But natch, the Girl Friends' cocktail dance on Friday night was loads of fun.

The gals tucked long loaded (with snacks and drinks) tables on both sides of the Dundalk airport lobby; left the center for dancing, garnered Trach's orchestra and some hundreds of guests for the fanciest frolic of the year.

And for added lift (if the tables needed any other lift) highlighted each with cunning original dolls and name cards (designed by Wahsola Male).

Never saw Elsie Dotson look prettier (and I've seen the gal look plenty good) than she did, Friday, in pale pink tulle with an overskirt and half-bodice of wine red velvet. President Olga Parker in pale blue:

Vernice Reynolds in mink-trimmed cream princess frock, was sumpn! Wahseola Male had a special sparkle, which, I think, had something to do with that serious gleam in the eyes of Virginia's Johnny Churchill, her regular escort, those days. Dukye Woode was Lester Norris' guest for the evening.

Victorine Adams had a new and interesting coiffure which alternated strands of pale blond hair with those of deep brown, stop the loveliest of red frocks. Frances Vessells had herself a ball while husband Harrison took over hosting duties at the table. Met those delightful newcomers, Dr. and Mrs. Clyde (Norma) Dillard, who have been at Morgan, this year, having come to us from Tennessee State college. She looked very pretty in red velvet. Among out-of-towner were the Douglas Kings and the Carol Hynsons of Annapolis.

TEACHERS HOST HOWARDITES

With the Baltimore Teachers who are graduates of Howard university, serving as the host group, the Baltimore chapter of Howard Alumni association, held its monthly meeting on Friday.

Mrs. Mary Clayton Frazier, president, was in charge of the meeting, which was held at the home of Miss Gwendolyn Biddle.

The group was enthusiastic in its response to a report rendered by Dr. Ralph J. Young who is chairman of a steering committee regarding athletics at the university. There was also a report from the committee, in charge of the arrangements for the presentation of Howard University Players.

Attending the meeting were: Mrs. Mary Clayton Frazier, J. Walter Fischer, U. Theodore Hayes, attorney; Dr. Percival C. Smith, Mrs. Edith R. Smith, Linwood G. Koger, attorney; Dr. Donald G. Brandon, Mrs. Bernice B. Brandon, Miss E. Louise Anderson.

Miss Maizie Odelle Barbour, Miss Gwendolyn Biddle, Mrs. Esther Whyte Bailey, Mrs. Lillian Rustin, Stewart A. Brooks, Dr. Ralph J. Young, Mrs. Lilla M. Harrison, Mrs. Thelma C. Ashe, Miss Anne E. Calhoun; Dr. Miles W. Conner, Mrs. Gwendolyn Brooks, Mrs. Ruth Jones King, Mrs. Eunice R. Brooks, Rev. S. Bond, attorney; the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Hiram J. Smith.

The physicians' group will be in charge at the next meeting which will be held the first Friday evening in December.

BRIDGE PLAYERS PLAY

That bridge class (under Bob Matthews' tutoring) having completed its lessons ended its studying with a gay party in the home of Dukye Woode, Tuesday evening.

When they, and the guests they invited had counted up points, Ruth Jennifer had garnered first prize for the girls; add Wilbert Jones, for the men.

Other prize winners were Lucille Burns, second; Bob Matthews, second; Blanche McRae, third; Wilbert Harris, third; and booby to Vashti Matthews.

Also playing were:

Jake Stewart, Louise Lockerman, Jean Cummings, Vivian Pendleton, Florence Dennis, Mae Campbell, Lloyd McDonald, Bet Hodge, Mattie Conoir; Collier Howard, Mary Lou Redd, Ellsworth Rhetta, Jessye Bennett, Dorothea Merchant, Harriet White, Olivia Dixon, and Miss Woode.

MRS. TUCKER HOSTESS

Facing the Saturday night fog in order to play a regular game of pinochle were Mesdames Sinclair Swan, Alfred Woolridge, Idella Thomas, Clarence Abrahms, T. J. Woolridge Jr. at the lovely home of Mrs. Louis Tucker.

Buffet supper followed at midnight.

TEA FOR MRS. SMITH

The Me-De-So Club was the scene of one of the season's prettiest parties Sunday, when the Woman's Auxiliary to the Maryland Medical Association honored Mrs. R. Stillman Smith, Macon, Ga., its national president, at a tea.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and against this background Mrs. Smith, the honored guest, with Dr. Bessie B. Small, state president, and Mrs. Albert Burwell, city president, all elegantly gowned, received their guests.

Various members served in the receiving line at intervals.

Prior to the tea Mrs. Smith delivered a message to the members of the auxiliary. She expressed the hope that in the near future the National auxiliary will find it possible to award two annual scholarships of $500 each.

She also stated that Maryland should be very proud, since it was their own past national president, Dr. Bessie B. Small, who during her tenure of that office, proposed the establishment of a scholarship fund as a national project. This project is now known as the "Alma Wells Given Scholarship," and is awarded annually to a medical student.

Pouring at the tea table were Mesdames Charles Woodland and Albert LaForest.

Among those attending were: Doctors and Mesdames Louis E. Harmon, Bruce Alleyne, M. L. Barksdale, C. Douglass Shepperd, Herbert L. Moseley, Benjamin Brown, James E. Carr, Thomas E. Harris, and Miles Connor, Doctors Horace Small and Albert Laforest.

Mesirs. and Mesdames H. A. Fuller, Charles W. Fletcher and Eugene Mayo; Mesdames Bernard Harris Sr., Katherine O. Johnson, G. Franklin Phillips, C. R. Campbell, McDonald Bando, Harriet White, Theodore Phifer, Mesdames Arthur West, C. M. Lawrence, Catherine St. Clair, Henry Welcome, Lena Dickerson, Bernard Christmas Sr., Estelle Thomas, Annie Mosley, Annie Bond...Lula Patterson, Ronald Rayne, Minnie Davis, R. H. Gwathny.

Mesdames M. Virginia Morris, Lillian Parrott, Edna Over Gray, Beatrice A. Mayo, Lillie A. Ross, Marjorie Luke, Nellie Warrington, J. Howard Payne, Marian Reid, Flossie Dedmon, Phyllis McKinney, Elizabeth Morsell.

Mesdames Loretta O. Valentine, Naomi Camper, Cora W. Gibson, Effie James, Nellie Diggs, May Medders, Sidney Burwell, Marie Frazer, Regina Goff, Ethel Covington, Roy Hamilton and Misses Rosalind and Elizabeth Allen; and also Messrs. Carson C. Johnson, Charles R. Noel Sr., and George Whyte.

MUSIC TEACHERS HONORED

The elementary school music teachers felt two music specialists, Mrs. Abish Jackson and Miss A. Dukye Woode, recently with a pre-thanksgiving dinner. Hostesses were Mesdames Charlotte Swan and Elizabeth Lewis.

The honorees were presented with corsages and W. Meredith Birche Jr. pinned orchids on them.

Other guests were Mrs. Margaret Armstrong, Miss M. Alvira Hatcher, Mrs. Inez Jones, Miss Gwendolyn Nichols, Mrs. Oeda Alston and James Gaskins.

FROM OUR OWN MARION DOWNS

Here I am, out in a tiny town called Iola, Kansas. Not big in population because there are only around 10,000, but influential, musically and in music circles because it spends money to have musical events for its community.

When I made front page today in their local daily, I was flattered indeed, because the town prides itself in being DIFFI

CONSTIPATED?
Then read how Clara Ligon of New York, N. Y. solved her problem!

"Most of the laxatives I tried in the past were either too harsh or too slow! Then I discovered gentle, speedy Sal Hepatica . . . and now I feel like a new person! It's the best relief I've ever had from constipation.

"Now, when I wake up with that headachy, logy feeling due to constipation, I take Sal Hepatica before breakfast, and get speedy, gentle relief—usually within an hour!"

Yes, take sparkling Sal Hepatica before breakfast and feel fine again . . . usually within an hour. Or, take it in the evening one-half hour before supper and feel fine again by bedtime! Sweetens sour stomach, too! So keep Sal Hepatica handy in your medicine chest.

CULT TO PLEASE.

I am houseguest of the Judge and his wife; of the 27th Judicial District of Kansas. They have a ranch-style house, just the last word in furnishing. Everything for my comfort, including black angus three-inch thick fillets.

This fall season's town is progressing most excitingly. I am doing a series of concerts in colleges, churches and institutions here in the midwest.

A moment I'll never forget was the other day when I appeared at the State Mental hospital in Osawatomie, Kans. In this auditorium a group of 200 came. I sang the music of Handel, Brahms and spirituals.

They were radiant and enthusiastic.

And when I sang "Pa-Pilgrim" (City Called Heaven) unaccompanied, they were so caught up with the music that not a single person clapped.

When they presented me with long stemmed red roses, I just did manage to blink back the tears.

In light of much prejudice, which I am discovering here in Kansas, I am amazed that they put the review of my concert on the front page today, and called me "Mrs."

Of course, this is a paradoxical state. Children go to separate elementary schools; then go to mixed high schools and junior college. Sounds crazy, doesn't it?

—MARION J. DOWNS

20 WOMEN PLAN

There's nothing but money on the minds of the 20 Women (club) these days. But it is with an altruistic spirit that they are dollar conscious.

"When they met on Wednesday evening in the home of Queenie Lane, they completed plans for ways of garnering shekels for their baby-equipment-giving to Provident hospital.

So, when they pass their cups at the Morgan-Virginia State game on Turkey Day; or stick a book in your hand for their Christmas raffle, respond with a smile, and generously.

Making the plans this week were Zelma Johnson, Esther Brown, Juanita King, Margaret Hall, Florence Murray, Marie Brown, Ellen Stewart, Elaine Wright, Violet Lindsay, Louvenia Hall, Julia Gambrill, Anna Burton, Mary Lyles, Elizabeth Snead, Lillian Harris, and Mrs. Lane.

POT-POURRI

Dellaphine Warrington, who has been tucked in, is out of bed and hopes to be out of her room this week. Mrs. Ralph Young is considerably better, but is still in Johns Hopkins hospital.

Seriously ill at his home in Morgan Park is Leo Randall, of the postal service, here. Dr. and Mrs. John (Lettie) Woodland have a baby boy as of last Saturday morn. And C. T. Collins, formerly of this town, now of Detroit, Mich. and Mrs. Collins welcomed a "junior," Sunday.

Those gowns which will be worn by Mrs. Sugar Ray Robinson in her appearance at the Coliseum in the revival of "Born Yesterday" on the 25th, are insured for $250,000.

Saturday at four, schoolmarm Sarah Williams and Edgar Manns will exchange vows in St. James Episcopal church. Upcoming marriages also concern Vaulear Redding Sr. and Viola White, who garnered a license this week.

DATE DATA

Come Friday evening and the Book-A-Month club will present Carolyn Hill Stewart, in an evening of poetry and drama. The affair is to be held in the Coppin State Teachers College. The same evening the Arena Wing of the Negro Little Theatre will have its opening production at the Arena Playhouse.

Saturday, of course, Lambda Kappa Mu, will hold forth in a revional conference, here.

Morgan College Center will be the site for the business session in the morning, and the luncheon, open to the public, in the afternoon where they will have Everett A. Morrow of the Department of Commerce as speaker. Cocktails at the Medeso club is the party-end of the session, in the evening.

Saturday night the Pitch and Putt club (femme golfers) will have their awards dinner at the Ascoe club. Sunday afternoon the Ladies' Auxiliary of Morgan State college will meet with the president, Mrs. Bertha B. Proctor.

There will be a lot of social fingdings to give thanks for on the holiday week end.

As they do annually, Baltimore Guardsmen will have their closed supper party, and their formal dance . . . the latter at Morgan college Refectory on the 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Jones, who will have been married 25 years on the 25th, will celebrate their silver anniversary. So will Mr. and Mrs. Robert McIver, also a silver wedding, at their Catonsville home on the 27th.

And, glory be! the Maids and Matrons are going to do a repeat on their pre-game cocktail party on Thanksgiving Day . . . holding forth in the York Hotel blue room from 10 a.m. to noon.

Hostesses include Merrial Bethel, Alyce Brown, Anne Calhoun, Vera Carrington, Eva Creigler, Jeanne Davis, Ella Edemy, Lola Knox, Mae Medders and Marguerite Wilkens.

Come the day after Thanksgiving, the Baltimore chapter of Comnarts (teen-agers) will entertain their parents and friends western style in Morgan Center. The T.V. Lazy-U Ranch Boys will provide the music.

The hostesses will include Yvonne Joyce Thomasine Woolridge, Jacqueline Nunelly, Audrey Bullock, Gloria Larkin, Dorothy Pittman, Kathlyn Hayes, Marian Larkin, Veronica Nunelly and Marzuret Handy.

IOTAS HOLD MEETING

Kappa chapter, Iota Phi Lambda sorority held its regular monthly meeting last Saturday.

Reports were given on the participation of Kappa during American Education Week which included the appearance of Soror Fannie Poulson on Tom Hawkins' TV show, the Fourth Man, and a display in the window of the Urban League.

The Rev. Harold G. Nixon was the guest speaker for the evening and he gave a very inspiring address on Thanksgiving.

Members present were:

Margaret Johnson, Evelyn Wilkey, Hortense Cain, Naomi Lee; Mable Waters, Emma Brown, Odessa Howard.

Mary Ames, Gladys Plamer, Mary Brittain, Gladys McCoy, Hazel Gardner, Ruth Minter, Josephine Wallace, Fannie Poulson, Thelma Jiggetts, and Vivian Young.
