ALONG THE AVENUE

Anything good deserves a second hearing, so perhaps that explains why the Dixon brothers are holding on to Red Prysock and his six-piece orchestra.

The outfit has been booked for a second week at the ever popular COMEDY CLUB, which opened several years ago during the Thanksgiving season and has been one of the top spots since then.

Could be the fine service and the good drinks bring the customers back and back again. Then too the COMEDY CLUB was one of the first uptown clubs to open a musical bar and its glamour hasn't faded.

The first artist to appear at the club was Flink Johnson, the man with 1,000 songs, and the Dixon family has kept the stage occupied with the best in talent.

TWIN PINES out in Essex, is offering Jimmy Elliott's band every Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Dancing goes on every night and Charlie Robinson is present as host and official greeter.

A night out on the town is hardly complete without a visit to CLUB 1017 on Madison ave., where you usually find someone you know, and where the atmosphere is always friendly.

The suave Osborne Dixon is host and the food is delicious, with special emphasis on the steaks.

On Monday the COMEDY CLUB will usher in Bobby Green and his combo, to replace Big John Green who winds up a week's engagement on Sunday night.

Bobby was formerly with the well remembered Erskine Hawkins band, which once upon a time, in the days when big bands could make money, was one of the hottest bands on the dance trial.

Up at CLUB TIJUANA, Sonny Stitt is still the man in the spotlight and keeps drawing the customers to hear his super heated saxophone. There's a matinee on Sunday from 5 to 9 p.m.

RICTOR'S RED FOX LOUNGE is sticking with the Hammond Tones with Earl Omara on the bongo drum. On Monday night its Lovers Nite and on Tuesday they have Guess The Tune Nite.

On tap in the near future is a Cuban Festival which should really give club goers something to talk about.

The GREEN FRONT CAFE is offering Boots Stokes, "King of the combos," in hand to serve the refreshments are Barmaids Maude Brown and Lucile Boyd.

On Sunday the Musicians' Democratic Club will hold a cocktail party at GAMBY'S from 3 until 9 p.m. The club offers three shows a night on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, featuring George Craft, the Toppers, Pat Allen, Jerome Berry, and Reuben Woods and his Ambassadors of Rhythm.

Entertainment is also on tap at the UBANGI CLUB over the week end with the stage occupied by Fee Wee Wooden's Three Kings and A Queen, a combination that features the only girl bass player in the city.

Other clubs that offer a fine way to spend the week end are CLUB ORLEANS with Ben Washington and his Four Notes; CARTER'S EL CAPITAN has Jerry and the Tom Cats; JONES' COCKTAIL LOUNGE offers Charles Beckles and His Peptones.

The CLUB ASTORIA spotlights the Metronaires and PM has Teddy and his TIP Toppers.

A perfect way to wind up a festive evening is at the Rice INN, 1306 Pennsylvania ave., where they serve the best in Chinese and American dishes.

POWELL LINDSAY — Last seen on Broadway as Jeter Lester in "Tobacco Road," he plays the part of Henry Brock, millionaire junk dealer, opposite glamorous Edna Mae Robinson, in the premiere showing of the revival of the Broadway hit success "Born Yesterday," the Coliseum, Wednesday, 8:30 p.m. Portickets, see ad in this paper.

Griffin art exhibit opens on Sunday

Cornelius Griffin, well-known Baltimore artist, will exhibit paintings and drawings at the Baltimore Fellowship House, 21 West Preston st. on Sunday.

This exhibit will continue for two weeks to Dec. 6th.

The exhibit will open with a tea in honor of the artist, and will be held on Sunday, from 3 to 5 p.m. Hostesses for the tea are Miss Mary Estes, Mrs. Margaret Harmon, Miss Dorothy Guy, Mrs. Blanche McRae, Miss Martha Parker, and Mrs. Thomas Woolridge, J.

The exhibit hours are weekly, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Evenings, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 8 to 10 p.m.

The Rev. John L. Tilley is chairman of the Baltimore Fellowship, and Mrs. Mae R. Gellman is executive director.

Style to pay off at 'Born Yesterday'

A panel of men will select the "Best dressed" woman attending the premiere showing of the revival of the Broadway hit-success "Born Yesterday."

The lady chosen will be dubbed "Miss Billie Dawn of Baltimore," the role portrayed by glamorous Edna Mae Robinson, who is considered one of America's best dressed women. Her gowns, which she will use in the show, have been insured for $250,000.

The most successful laugh hit of the post-war Broadway stage, "Born Yesterday," which regaled New York audiences for four solid years and has been performed in all the world's capitals, will be presented at the Coliseum, Wednesday 8:30 p.m.

Edna Mae Stars

From the pen of Garson Kanin, this three-act comedy will star Glamorous Edna Mae Robinson, wife of ex-boxing champion Sugar Ray Robinson.

"Born Yesterday" tells the hilarious story of a big-time war-profiteer who brings his dumb ex-chorine with him on a trip he makes to Washington for the purpose of bribing a Senator or so.

Finding that his girl companion lacks sufficient graces for the social life in the capital to which he has elevated her, the former junk dealer hires a tutor to smarten her up. To his dismay, the dumb doll learns too much.

Learns Fast

For one thing she learns that she doesn't have to take his brow-beating.

Foiling his plans to corrupt honorable senators, she deserts her mink-coat provider for the man who has taught her the meaning of the Bill of Rights.

Powell Lindsay plays the part of the junkman. Henry Scott is cast as the tutor. There is a supporting cast of Broadway favorites.

An advertisement in today's AFRO lists places that are handling tickets.

Recreation Notes

Lexington Center

The Teen Age Club elected temporary officers at their regular meeting Monday at Lexington Center. Following the election of officers, Senior leader Zelma P. Thompson conducted a program in social recreation.

Officers elected were: Delores Smith, president; Arlene Thomas, secretary; assistant secretary; McRaymond Narrington, Librarians, Theodore Menich, Shirley Loy and Louise Duffy.

Teen-agers and Juniors held their semi-monthly skating party at the community center Thursday.

Robert R. Coleman supervised the party with assistance of Miss Hazel F. Duvall, Miss Zelma Thompson and student leaders Alva M. Ford, Enolia D. Goodwin and William Howard of Morgan State college.

Outstanding participants were Wilco Wilson, Herman Gray Jr., Gordon Collins, Alethea Thomas, Annette Monk and Ruby Shaw.

Roller skating will be featured again in Thursday, Dec. 10th at the center. Skaters interested in the program should contact Robert R. Coleman, leader in charge of boys and men's activities, or Christo L. Waller, center director, between 2:30 and 9:30 p.m. Monday through Friday at Lexington Center.

The program is sponsored by the Bureau of Recreation at Lexington Street Center, 732-34 Lexington st.

Cherry Hill Center

The Friendship Circle held two meetings last week. The first was in the form of a party, complete with games and refreshments. The Friendship Circle is engaged in dressing dolls and repairing toys for the Toyland to be held at the Community Center

Circle meets twice a month and is made up of senior citizens of Cherry Hill. Members of the club are Samuel Eloy, William Griffin, Mesdames Nellie Peters, Florence Brooks, Bertha Robinson, and Bessie Griffin.

Mrs. Sallie Futts is in charge of the doll dress making project. Mrs. Martina Caster of the Bureau of Recreation staff is working with the group.

The Community Center Kiddie Club presented their fall play last week "The Enchanted Pumpkin." Among those who took part in the play were:

Gloria Banks, June Hall, Yvonne Craley, Yolande Crawley, Yvonne Hall, Rosales Daffole, Mary Frances Johnson, Yvonne Wainwright, Stanley Green, Clarise McCracken, David Barnes, Elijah Brown, George Woods, Ella Mae Buckannan, Cleo Thornton; and Ronald Moulden.

Shelia Daniels, Paulette Mackell, Patricia Pinkney, Caroiyn Moulden, Warren Moulden, Veda Washington, Walter Moore, Janice Green, Lindsay Washington, Oliver Washington, Gerad Washington, and Eddie Washington.

Members of the Henry O'Tanner Art Club of Cherry Hill are now engaged in the painting of plates. Subjects used for the paintings include flowers, animals, birds and pictures of famous people.

Members of the club are: John Taylor, Donald Denard, Herbert Winston, Harold Dent, Gerald Dent, Larry West, Gerald Jackson, Ronald Thompson, Ralph Davis, and Adolphus Amstrong.

The Cherry Hill Center Missette Club has started a special project. Some are making cloth slippers while others are crocheting.

The club meets on Tuesday evenings, 6-7 p.m. Club members are: Bertha McClelian, Carol English, Corlea Mason, Diane Mason, Alice Willis, Ida English, Delores Johnson, Brenda Johnson, Rose Johnson, Eugenia Black, Jean Basherville, Margaret Robinson, and Vivian Brown. Yvonne Martin is club president.

The Beavers Club held their regular meeting Monday.

Officers are: President, Robert Moss; vice president, James Lynn; secretary, Robert Boone; treasurer, Jimmie Moss. Miss Vivian Rowland, Morgan State student is advisor for the group.

McCulloh Center

The Little Women's Club of McCulloh Homes held their weekly meeting with vice-president, Miss Sedonia E. Brown, presiding.

The club mapped plans for the coming holiday season. A Thanksgiving Day dinner has been planned. As their craft project they will make dollies for table decorations and handkerchiefs for Christmas gifts.

Among those present were: president, Carolyn Henderson, vice president, Senoia E. Brown, secretary, Vonzella Shorter; Kathleen Brown, Rose Casey, vice president, Sedonia Brown, Cecelia Mack, Agnes Palmer, Linda Robinson, Marshall Briscoe, Mary Brown, Thelma Jackson, Lorraine Moore and Patricia Brown. Mrs. Isoline Crowder is supervisor of the club.

Eleven basketball teams are practicing regularly for the coming franchise basketball leagues to be sponsored by the McCulloh Recreation Center and conducted at P.S. 130.

Leagues include the Midget, Junior, Intermediate, Unlimited and Junior Girls'.

Teams practicing in each league are as follows: Midget League — McCulloh Midgets, Ramblers and Midget Warriors; Junior League—McCulloh Juniors, Warriors; Intermediate League — McCulloh Macs, Wizards, Rams and Stars; Unlimited League—Fountain Heads, Cougars, Adelphi, Apaches and Stars.

Over 100 tickets were given to the members of the teams to attend the basketball clinic, conducted by Coach Claire Bee and his Baltimore Bullets under the sponsorship of the Optimist Club.

Members of the Fountain Head team are: Jeremiah Jackson, Jesse Armstrong, Walter Day, Ford Duncan, Gilbert Northern, Willie Small, Donald Savage, Owens and Bailey.

In the Midget Division the teams are practicing in the afternoon at P.S. 122. The Midget Warriors, Ramblers and the McCulloh Midgets are showing wonderful progress under their leaders.

Captains of the group are Carl Harris, Midget Warrors; Leedenis Garner, Ramblers, and James Blunt, McCulloh Midgets.

The McCulloh Juniors, 1952-53 winners in the Midget Division, are now in the Junior Class. Members of the team are Joseph Jones, James Davis, Harold Martin, James Blunt, Boysie Hux, Victor Kaney, Leonard Covington and James Jackson.

Captain Earl Parker's Wizards, winners of 1952-53 Junior League have registered in the Intermediate class. Members of Donald Barbee, James Martin, Leonard Covington, George Payne, McCutchson Coleman and Sammy Wiggins.

The McCulloh Community Center Adult Council held their monthly meeting with Harold Jennifer as guest speaker. Mrs. Ellamay Briscoe conducted the meeting in the discussion of the council's revised constitution and the promotion of the five basketball franchise leagues to be sponsored by the group.

Cornelius Hairston, president of the Fathers' Club, voiced the sentiment of his group by sponsoring an entire league and voting to underwrite, along with the other club groups, the remainder of the fee.

Members present were:

Mesdames Mamie Magruden, Georgia Arvin, Lottie Henderson, Beatrice Brown, Mattie Peaker, Ellamay Briscoe, Garland Gay and Mr. Hairston.

CHOSEN TWELVE — A pre-Thanksgiving supper party will be held by the group at 520 N. Schroeder st. on this (Friday) evening. Mrs. Elnora Claibourne is president and Mrs. Rosetta Turpin is reporter.
