If You Had The Only Telephone in Your Town—

It would not be of much use to you by itself, but if you had a telephone and it were connected with hundreds of other telephones, a hundred uses would suggest themselves to you.

Why not have a telephone?

You'll admit that a telephone is very useful at all times and beyond value in times of emergency. It is not difficult to secure one. Ask our local manager and he will tell you all about it.

It's so convenient and costs so little.

HOW HAVE YOU BEEN BENEFITED?

In as brief form as we are able we desire in this editorial to ask the people of this county a plain straight forward question: How have you been benefited by the career of Messrs. Beck and Turner in the last Legislature? We ask this question because the Senator and Legislature are about all the Organization forces got out of the last election. Mr. Beck has been in the State Senate for two sessions. What has he done?

He secured a job for Lewin W. Wickes, one of the recognized leaders of the Organization in this county at a salary of $6,000 per year.

creased taxes for years to come.

You got only $95,000 for State Roads when you should have gotten from $110,000 to $150,000.

You have gotten nothing but increased county expenses and high taxes, with more to follow, from the four years experience with Mr. Beck and Mr. Turner as representatives in the Legislature.

Mr. Beck and one or two others have gotten it all.

Now are you going to vote to send men back to the Legislature who have taken all for themselves, and given the tax-payers and voters nothing but the husks in the way of increased county expenses? Mr. Voter, ask yourself these questions. You know the above statement is correct. Now what are you going to do with a fellow that won't even share his apple with you, not even to giving you the core?

MR. FRANK FURST'S prominence in the Harrington campaign is not creating a particle of enthusiasm throughout the State or in Baltimore city. Everybody knows that Furst is simply being used to pull Senator John Walter Smith's "chestnuts" out of the fire, and the people are resenting such politics. As a result of Mr. Furst's attitude, we cite the fact that he is hand in glove with the Baltimore City Organization in the nomination of legislative candidates, but is with Smith for Harrington. This is a most excellent example of a man trying "to carry water on both shoulders" and the people are shy of that kind of a politician. The Smith machine is certainly in a bad way, and Lee's star is rising. The people of this State are with Senator Lee, because he has shown an interest in their welfare, and he is going to be the next Governor of Maryland beyond a doubt.

Packages Uncalled For.

The following packages, C. O. D., and ordinary Parcel Post remain uncalled for in the Chestertown postoffice:

Progressive Democrats Nominate.

Delegates from every precinct in Queen Anne's county, representing the progressive faction of the Democratic party met in Centreville on Monday afternoon and nominated a county ticket, with the exception of State's Attorney, which was held open until a later date. The ticket named was as follows:

State Senate—Wm. Otho Thomas, First District.
House of Delegates—Edgar Hurlock, Second District, and Wm. P. Burris, Third District.
County Commissioners—Wm. E. Denney, Fourth District; Harry S. Covington, Third District, and H. Clay Hendrix, Seventh District.
Treasurer—James F. Boyles, Fifth District.
Sheriff—Lambert D. Bowers, Seventh Cistrict.
Surveyor—S. Chester Coursey, Third District.
State Central Committee—Charles S. Embert, Fifth District; Sanford E. Spry, Seventh District, and Charles L. Goodhan, Fourth District.
Delegates to State Convention—C. W. Clements, Seventh Discrict; Charles E. Bishop, Fifth District, and Norman S Dudley, Second District.

Mr. Thomas, candidate for the Senate, was a member of the last Legislature. Denney and Covington are now members of the Levy Court, and Hurlock, candidate for the Legislature, is now clerk to the Board of County Commissioners.

Auto Accidents.

In a collision of a team whose occupants were Mr. Wright Wiltbanks and Miss Louise Werstern, of Baltimore, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis, and Capt. Joseph Robertson's automobile, on the State road in Queen Annes, on Sunday night, Miss Werstern received a fractured rib, and was painfully bruised about the body. The carriage was badly damaged. Capt. Robertson's lights were not working right and he states he thought he had given the carriage plenty of room to pass. Capt. Robertson stopped his car and carried the injured lady to the home of Mr. Lewis, where she has been under the care of Dr. H. G. Simpers since.

A Buick auto, owned by Graham, Clements & Sutton, went over an embankment near Betterton, Saturday night. While the incline was about twelve feet, the car did not turn over nor was it damaged to any extent. No one was hurt. The road was narrow at that point and running close to the edge of the road, a sandbank caved in. It was almost a miracle, however, that no one was hurt.
