BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

¶Big tournament and other attractions at Massey to-day.

¶Mr. Wm. L. Fowler and force are painting the college buildings.

¶Rev. Milnor Jones has fallen heir to $24,000 by the death of a nephew.

¶The floating theatre took considerable money out of Chestertown this week.

¶A thief stole a dozen fine young chickens from Dr. F. B. Hines last Friday night.

¶Mr. A. M. Culp has begun the erection of his new residences on Mt. Vernon Place.

¶Six baskets of fine peaches were shipped by Parcel Post from the Chestertown postoffice on Wednesday.

¶Police Justice Virgil W. Kendall has announced his candidacy for member of the Republican State Central Committee.

¶Fishing at Swan Point and down Chester river is getting good, and our Isaac Waltans are preparing their tackle.

¶Messrs. John Gale Usilton, of Chestertown, and William Jewell, near Kennedyville, have the best fields of alfalfa we have seen in the county.

¶Mr. Harry Hodgkin has had a pop corn stand on the midway at the Salisbury fair this week. He has been assisted by Mr. Foster Cannan.

¶Anthrax has broken out in Queen Annes again, and Messrs. H. H. Klinefelter and J. Carroll Seney have lost valuable animals by the disease this past week.

¶Mr. Jack Lewis, an employee on the Bertie Tull, while crossing Chester river in a launch from Rolph's wharf last week, slipped and fell on his engine sustaining severe injuries.

¶Chas. Ellis, colored, was arrested on Monday morning by Deputy Sheriff M. A. Perkins, charged with assault with intent to kill John Ellis by shooting him. Ellis is held for court under $500 bail.

¶Register of Wills Jesse R. Copper has purchased a fine 1916 Overland car from Mr. John H. Clendaniel, Jr., representative, of Kennedyville. So much for the Overland advertisement in the TRANSCRIPT.

¶It has become quite the fashion this summer to enjoy automobile trips from here to Ocean City, Md., for a week-end sojourn by the sea. Three parties went down last week and others visited the resort this week.

¶Mr. A. M. Culp has contracted with Mrs. Costello to build her a house on the old site at Worton Manor. It is understood that it will be one of the most beautiful homes in Kent county. Mr. Elwood Baker will do the painting.

¶Messrs. Lofland & Culp, the hustling hardware firm, has installed a gasoline pump in front of their big store on High street, and all you have to do is to drive your car up to the curb and fill up. It is a great convenience to automobilists.

¶One of our hustling merchants told us the other day that he had sold a $20 article to a purchaser in Greensboro who saw his advertisement in the TRANSCRIPT. So much for the pulling power of the TRANSCRIPT, the most widely read paper in the county to-day.

¶From York, Harrisburg and points along the line, 1,000 persons came down over the Northern Central railroad to Pier 2, Canton, where they boarded the steamer Louise for Tolchester on Sunday. The steamers Susquehaner and Annapolis carried 2,100 to the bay resort Sunday morning.

¶Chestertown markets have been flooded with splendid peaches, yellow and white, during the week. They have been finding ready sale at 25 and 50 cents the basket. While the crop in Kent is a large one, the shippers are scarcely getting money enough to pay for the expense of gathering and marketing the fruit.

¶Wheat has been off in price during the past week and local buyers were paying $1.10 a bushel yesterday for it.

¶The grange held an important and enjoyable meeting at Betterton on Thursday. The occasion was in the nature of a grange picnic, and members from all the subordinate granges were present.

¶Mr. Samuel Hicks showed us a curiosity on Thursday morning in the shape of a small ear of corn growing at the end of a spray of the tassle. The ear was about two inches in length and was full of grains.

¶Mr. Allan A. Harris, cashier of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland, has sold his launch to Mr. H. S. Lemon, and has purchased a five-passenger 1916 model Buick touring car from Graham, Clements & Sutton.

¶Sidney P. Townshend, Esq, has sold to Mrs. Frank E. Duyer the building lot on Queen street adjoining the home of Mrs. George Bell, and owned by the estate of the late George Bell. The price paid was $750.

¶The Board of Supervisors of Election will be at their office in the court house on Tuesday next, Aug. 24th, from 10 to 12 o'clock noon to attend to routine business and receive applications from candidates.

¶The annual sale of Graham & Thomas, advertised in this paper last week, took place last Saturday afternoon at the stables of Mr. Robert J. McWhorter. A large crowd attended and the horses and other things for sale brought good prices. Mr. Frank Leaverton's and other sales were well attended and prices were good.

¶Messrs. Schauber Bros., manufacturers of the well-known Schauber Corn Cutters, are losers to the extent of several thousand dollars by the recent heavy storm which blew down the corn, rendering it impossible to use their cutters. They have a large number of finished machines, and it is sincerely hoped that the corn will come up sufficiently well to enable them to dispose of their big stock. This is undoubtedly the best corn cutter on the market, and these young men are worthy of the patronage of the farmers of the State.

MR. CHAPMAN HONORED.

Mayor Preston on Saturday appointed James W. Chapman, Jr., Esq., a well-known young lawyer of Baltimore, a member of the School Board of the city. It had been known for sometime that the Mayor contemplated naming Mr. Chapman, but not until Friday did it become generally known. The position of a member of the School Board is a big and responsible one, but there is not in the city of Baltimore a man more capable or better equipped to fill the position than is Mr. Chapman. He has always been interested in educational work, and he wil put that energy and intelligence into his new work which will make him a most useful member of the board. Mr. Chapman is a native of Chestertown, is the son of Mr. James W. Chapman, and married Miss Clare Vannort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort. The friends of Mr. Chapman here are proud of him, and also of the great mayor of Baltimore, who seems to take an especial interest in our Eastern Shore boys who are making a success of their vocations in Baltimore. Mr. Chapman is a Democrat and is in thorough accord with the city administration. In a conversation with the writer this week he paid Mayor Preston a fine tribute. Mr. Chapman said: "Mayor Preston is a great mayor, and has given the city of Baltimore an administration second to none in its history. There is no question in my mind but that Mayor Preston is devoting his great energy and ability to making Baltimore a great city, and he is absolutely sincere in his efforts to enlarge the city's borders and make it what it should be." Mr. Chapman took the oath of office on Saturday, and will immediately enter upon the discharge of his duties.
