SANDY BOTTOM DEPARTMENT STORE!

The Kent News last Saturday indorsed every policy for which Senator Lee stands. Now let's make his nomination unanimous.

THE Baltimore American, discussing a conference of Hon. Wm. T. Warburton, candidate for Governor, with Gov. Goldsborough in Baltimore on Monday, said: "The two gentleman had a grief conference, in which national conditions were revived." We know that there is considerable gloom in Republican circles both as to State and National politics, but we had no idea the Baltimore American would be so frank at this stage of the contest as to admit it.

HOPE ONLY IN LEE.

The following strong letter appeared in the Sun last week:

TO THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: In your issue of the 13th you have three-quarters of a column interview with Congressman David J. Lewis, who is going all over the State speaking for Harrington.

Evidently Lewis has made a deal with Senator Smith, whereby Lewis is trying to beat Lee in return for Smith's promise to try to put Lewis in the United States Senate next year. You headed the interview "D. J. Lewis for Reform." I read it through very carefully, but I could not find out what definite reform Mr. Lewis stands for, and hope the Sun will tell me and its other readers. He says he is in favor of abolishing useless offices, but which does he consider useless? He says he wants to abolish unnecessary attorneys to State officials, but which does he consider unnecessary? He says he favors a sane businesslike method of making State appropriations, either through the budget system or some other, but what system does he favor? Finally, he says that he is in favor of reorganizing 'from top to bottom the state government, so that the shame of such waste, extravagance and inefficiency as now exists may no longer rest upon us.'

"I think the Sun's readers would be interested if you would answer the following question:

"Who would be better able to reorganize the State government so as to do away with this waste and inefficiency, Mr. Harrington, who is being supported by every special counsel and other holders of useless offices, and who is a part of the system under which this waste and extravagance has grown up, or Lee, who would go into office without obligation to anybody who is now profiting by the present wasteful system?

WILLIAM F. PIRSCHER."

Baltimore, Aug. 13.

Still Pond Notes.

Quite a large crowd attended the E. L. excursion to Tolchester Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ford and sister, Miss Bertha Hackett, were Chestertown visitors Saturday.

Among the summer visitors in our town are: Mrs. Gertie Ewell, of Baltimore, and sons, at the home of Mr. Howard Rasin; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ford and daughter, Velma, of Baltimore, at Mr. W. Thompson's; Messrs. John Johnson and Linwood Crowding, of Philadelphia, at the homes of Mrs. J. Schofield and Mrs. Stanley, from Wilmington; Misses Edith Weyl, Elsie Wheeler and Valleri Davis, and Mr. Harry Weyl and Elwood Allston at Mrs. S. Norris and Mrs. Toulson's; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheatley, of Baltimore, and Miss Mildred Hurlock, of Bridgeville, Del., at their grandmother's, Mrs. M. J. Howard, and Miss Hettie Jarrell, of New York, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarrell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Atwell spent Thursday of last week with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Atwell, near Worton.

Mrs. John Robinson, Jr., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Davis, at Hanesville, she being quite ill at her home there.

Mrs. Clements, of Philadelphia, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Medders.

Mrs. R. Boulden visited her son, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boulden, in Queen Annes county several days last week.

Mr. Arthur Potts spent several weeks with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harding.

Mrs. S. Harper has been quite sick the past week. Mrs. Sosmer is the nurse in attendance.

To Start Route at Once.

Mr. Wm. B. Ashley, carrier of the mail from Gratitude to Rock Hall, and his sureties, have consented to the use of automobile service between the two points from April 1st to December 31 of each year, for the same salary that Mr. Ashley is now getting, and the government has ordered withdrawn all proposals for carrying the mails. The new schedule will become effective August 21st, to-day, and Mr. Ashley may be seen hereafter going to and from Chestertown in an auto with Uncle Sam's burdens. The improved mail facilities between Chestertown and Rock Hall will begin much earlier than was expected, and Postmaster Bowers is glad that the matter has been adjusted so quickly, because the good people of the lower part of the county have been entitled to quicker mail service than they have been getting for some years. The new schedule requires the carrier to reach Chestertown daily at 9.30 A. M., leaving Gratitude at 7.45, and he is to leave Chestertown not later than 12.15 P. M, and serve his star route, reaching Rock Hall in 1½ hours.
