3-ply triumph for Faye Adams

NEW YORK—A new record contract, publication of an award winning record and a lineup of bookings through February, were all events in the career of diminutive songstress Faye Adams last week.

With her "Shake a Hand" still high on the record charts, Faye's latest, "Happiness to My Soul" backed by "I'll be True," was given Cashbox Magazine's "Award of the Week."

"Happiness to My Soul" was penned by the star's manager, famed composer-arranger Phil Moore.

MAKE MT. ZION MIXED DRINKS!

Delicious! Mild! Cost only pennies a drink! For example—Mt. Zion Snowcaps. Fill glass ½ full with Mt. Zion. Add ice cubes, sparkling water. One 26-bottle makes 12 big drinks! It goeth down sweetly!

JENNIFER — Ida Lupino and Howard Duff are co-starred in "Jennifer," gripping screen drama which is played against the setting of a vast and luxurious Monteeito, Calif. estate.

ALONG THE AVENUE

There is an old adage that advises, "the show must go on" and life Along the Avenue moves on its way, but not without a bow and a farewell to E. B. Rae.

Countless words of praise for "E. B." and his crowded career will come from the lips of his many friends in show business and other walks of life, but perhaps the best tribute is that he be remembered by his friends on the street he loved so well, where the words are done.

Marloe Morris Plays

Music is a sentimental and lovely mood is on tap at CLUB 1017 where Marloe Morris, an organist with magic in his fingers, plays music easy to listen to, and pleasant to hear.

CLUB 1017 has always been noted for the tasteful brand of music it offers its patrons. Starting with Flink Johnson, the organists have all been top notch artists, capable of creating a mood just made for relaxing, and Morris is truthfully billed as "playing the sweetest music this side of heaven."

Morris formerly played Small's Paradise in the big city and if the customers at 1017 have their way, he will be around Baltimore for a long time.

Currently serving on the front bar is Neal Carroll, one of the popular 1017 regulars. In the back are two of the prettiest and nicest barmaids in Baltimore, Priscilla and Maureen.

A choice item of conversation along the avenue is the show stopping performance Ertha Kitt gave on a recent television show. It bears out reports that she is rapidly becoming one of the brightest new stars. Her current record "Santa Baby" is just hitting the city, but already a few wide awake juke box operators have placed it on their machines.

The CLUB TIJUANA, under the astute management of suave Nat Allor, has brought the Beryl Booker Trio, which created quite a stir on its initial stay at the popular club.

With beauty, poise and musicianship, to their credit, the members of the trio are providing top notch entertainment.

Current plans at TIJUANA call for a return to a former policy of serving late breakfasts. Also on tap is a big anniversary celebration that will feature the exciting music of Charlie Parker.

The latest poll of favorite records in the Baltimore - Washington area shows three discs on top: "Money Honey," "Honey Hush," "Rags to Riches," "I'll Be True," "I Had A Notion," "Fat Daddy," and "My Girl Awaits Me."

Lou Bennett and his Hammond tones, with Earl Omara on the bongo drums, are still holding the musical spotlight at RICTOR'S RED FOX LOUNGE.

Coming up in the near future at the RED FOX is a Cuban Festival that promises to provide a lot of entertainment for night clubbers.

The ROYAL theatre is scheduled to undergo some renovations during the stay of Prophet Jones, and when it reopens Steve Morris assistant manager, reports that stage shows will be offered every other week.

There is music on the week end now at LEE'S BAR, 721 W. Lexington st., in the person of Harold Bevans and his trio. Two bars are available to patrons of the club and the club is growing in popularity.

The bill at GAMBY'S takes on added lustre this week-end with the addition of Lolita Tajja, exotic dancer, who joins such stalwarts as George Craft, the Toppers, Pat Allen and Jerome Berry, in providing a fast paced and exciting floor show.

Across the street at CLUB CASINO, Benny Green and his recording orchestra who turn in a moving version of "Blow Your Horn," take over the stage on Monday. This week end will wind up the stay of Sarah McLawler, the attractive organist, and her trio.

At the COMEDY CLUB is Miss Reta Moss, Mercury recording star, who, in her first appearance on the avenue, has won a host of friends. This marks her second week at the club, and each time she appears at the musical bar, the customers learn why she is tabbed as a rising young star.

he was appointed Theatrical Editor, a position he held until his death.

Mr. Rea's columns in the AFRO were widely read and followed. His "Encores and Echoes" appeared in the national edition of the AFRO and his "Pennsylvania Avenue" appeared in the local Baltimore editions.

"E.B." was credited with being responsible for the paving of Pennsylvania avenue and the replacement of the old No. 18 streetcars on the avenue as a result of a crusade he carried on in his "Pennsylvania Avenue" column.

He was well-known and popular with theatrical personalities throughout the country.

Mr. Rea is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ruth Rea, 1525 N. Carey st.; a sister, Mrs. Ada Wright, Opelika, Ala.; three children, Mrs. Laruth Rea Sims of Flushing, L.I., and Robert and Miss Ann Rea of Baltimore and two grandchildren.

Ted Yates, theatre publicity director of Yates Theatrical Service, N.Y., advised the AFRO Thursday that the death of Mr. Rea was "a distinct shock. We were like brothers," he said.

Miss Norris to sing with chorus

ROCKFORD, Ill. — Miss Eleanor Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Champion H. Norris, 5043 Blaine st., ne., Washington, D.C. is one of the members of the Rockford college Glee club, who will sing in its annual Christmas concert on Dec. 13.

The 36 member Glee Club is under the direction of Andreas Fugmann, professor of music at the college.

Dark horse wins Savant's contest

The winner of the "most popular nightclub" contest sponsored by the Savant Club, Inc., was given by the Madison Tavern, 1823 Madison st.

Votes for each nightclub participating, were based on drinks purchased by patrons of the respective taverns.

The Madison Tavern outstripped other larger and better-known nite spots in the city to garner the lead with 131 books of votes sold for a net total of 2,620 votes and cash receipts of $262.

Almost all of the local nightclubs participated in the popularity contest, and the proceeds will be used to underwrite a Christmas Party for underprivileged children to be given by the Savants during the holiday season.

In second place in the contest was the Club Tijuana with 110 books sold, for a total of 200 votes and $220 cash. A surprising third was the Club Cleeco, 1300 block Pennsylvania st., with 35 books sold for a total of 700 votes and $70 cash.

Casino Is Fourth

In fourth place was the Club Casino, scene of the contest judging, with 28 books sold for 200 votes and $48 cash. Gamby's was fifth with 30 votes and $38; and the Ubangi Club was sixth with 340 votes and $34.

Other local nightclubs participating and their totals, included: The Comedy Club, 260 votes and $26; the 7 and M club, with 260 votes and $26; Little Joe's Tavern, 200 votes and $20; the Alhambra, with 200 votes and $20; and the Sphinx Club with 140 votes and $14.

Also, the Harlem Garden with 60 votes and $6; the Club 1017 with 40 votes and $4; Club Orleans with 30 votes and $2; Little Willie's, 20 votes and $2; the Silver Dollar, 20 votes and $2; and the York Hotel with 20 votes and $2.

Total proceeds from the contest amounted to $796.

In Memoriams

BIDDLE—In loving memory of our dear mother, EMMA, who passed away December 2, 1947.
Mother your children all shall sleep.
Your blessed memory as you sleep,
And when eternal day shall break,
Greet you with love as you awake.
Daughters,
ETHEL, MYRTLE, JANESTA

CARMACK—In memory of my dear mother, ALICE L. CARMACK, who passed away November 5, 1952.
Keep her Jesus in Thy Keeping,
'Tis I reach that no one else can.
Then O Master, let me have her,
To love and keep her as before.
Loving Daughter,
BERTHA S. PAYNE

COLE—In loving memory of our dear mother, who departed this world, ELEANOR LEE COLE, who departed one year ago December 5, 1952.
No one knows how much we miss you.
No one knows the bitter pain we have suffered
Since we lost you, life has never been the same.
We miss in your dear memory
Images sweetly tender, fond and true;
There is not a day dearest mother and grandmother,
That we do not think of you.
Sadly missed by children,
CLARRETA THEODOCIA
GERNARD, GLADYS AND ERMA, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
Mama dear, It's one long lonesome year, since you left us with my heart filled with sadness and tears. Through my grief I ever pray, to meet you one happy day.
Your loving heartbroken daughter, CLARRETA
