A Lee Man In Frederick Who Says The Harrington Forces There Are Trying To Run With The "Drys" And Drink With The "Wets."

TO THE EDITORS OF THE SUN—Sir: The Gubernatorial contest in Maryland has been called the Question Mark Campaign, but I think Humorous Compaign would be more fitting, especially up here in Frederick county, were the Harrington-Ritchie-McMullen, his Royal Majesty (Senator Smith's) comedy company, disport themselves so comically, that one questions whether they are campaigning for themselves or for some one else.

Senator Lee was given an overwhelming reception here on July 27. Nearly every Democrat of any importance in town either attended the rally or sent messages of most loyal support. Mr. Harrington, on the other hand, was not able to assemble over six Democrats at any time the day he spent here.

Frederick H. R. M. company Democrats are alleging that there is a great anti-Lee sentiment in Brunswick, and while we "pay tribute to their verbal ingenuity," we pause to wonder how they are going to explain the acrobatic feats they are performing in the different parts of this county.

Out here Mr. Harrington is, they claim, a "dry" candidate; that this is a local-option town, and that we want to keep it so, yet the very same Democrats invited our local central committee to the very wettest "dry party" that ever got ducked in a pond. One who says he remembers he was present when he first went, and who is an old and well-seasoned campaigner, tells me that all other entertainments of like kind that he has ever attended, compared to the splendor, quality and quantity of this recent party, "Were as moonlight unto sunlight; were as water unto wine."

Now, then, if we are told to vote here for the H.-R.-M. company because they stand for prohibition, how are they going to explain just why they are using the argument in other parts of the county that the "company" is backed by the wholesale and retail liquor dealers of Baltimore city? It won't wash, as they will find to their surprise when the returns come in at the primary election. The "Dry" party went in bathing in waters of dark brown hue, likewise scarlet and amber, green and purple and pink. Now the poor little "Dry" party is just one big mixed drink. M. T. J.

Brunswick, Md., Aug. 9.

THE Anti-Organization faction stands for ECONOMY of the Right Kind—not the kind that gives one man a $6,000 job, another at $1,500 job and then turns around and gives the people an increase of 10 cents in their tax rate to help pay their big salaries.

SENATOR OGDEN.

On May 11th of this year Senator Wm. J. Ogden delivered an address to the Beltsville Grange on the importance of the adoption of the Home Rule and Referendum amendments to be voted for at the coming November election. Among other very significant things the Senator said was the following:

"The State and county bosses do not want these amendments ratified, they fought them in the Legislature and they will fight them at the polls, for if adopted, it will deprive the bosses of the means of corrupting the Legislature, and to a large extent prevent grafting in the State and permit honest and needful legislation to receive proper consideration in a non-bossed Legislature."

In the same address in illustrating the method of law making for the counties, Senator Ogden said:

"As an illustration of the method of law making for the counties, he told the audience that there were five senators, tools of Boss John Walter Smith and his gang, three of whom were placed on every important committee of the Senate, committees consisting of five, and naturally the three controlled the action of the committee, or if they wished to kill a measure in committee, the three would absent themselves, thereby preventing the presence of a quorum. But on the other hand if any measures were gotten before the Senate, affecting the counties, or any particular county, the lone senator, who absolutely controls all legislation for his county, is immediately 'seen' by the five 'big-wigs' of the boss and promises support, or defeat, of the bill, which ever he elects, for support of some measure in which the 'gang' are interested either for political or financial reasons for perpetuating 'boss rule' in the State."

On Thursday of this week Senator Ogden delivered an address at Betterton in the interest of Senator John Walter Smith and his candidates on the State ticket, when only on May 11th—PRACTICALLY 4 SHORT MONTHS AGO—Senator Ogden was condemning the corrupt methods of Senator Smith and his boss ridden Legislature. Senator Ogden's statement cannot possibly have much influence with the people at present.
