Ebenezer Baptist calls Dr. Kearse as new pastor

The Rev. Dr. Logan Kearse, for seven years the minister of the Union Baptist church of Stamford, Conn., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Ebenezer Baptist church, 23rd st. and Guilford ave., Baltimore, and will begin his duties January 10.

Dr. Kearse was educated in the public schools of Winston-Salem, N.C.; Stillman Institute (now Stillman College); Harvard College and the Harvard School of Divinity.

He has been honored by two theological institutions with the Doctor of Divinity degree.

The new pastor began his ministry at the age of 7 years, and for more than 15 years thereafter travelled over the country as a "Boy Preacher" with his mother. He is the son of the late David H. Kearse and Mrs. I. C. Kearse, St. Albans, L.I.

Modern Edifice

For nearly four years Dr. Kearse was minister of the First Institutional Baptist church of Winston-Salem. He was called to the Union Baptist church of Stamford where he led in the construction of a new church edifice which has been called the most modern structure among the churches of New England.

Among his local, regional and national connections are the following: past president, the Stamford Ministers' League; member of the boards of the Council of Churches, the West Main Street Community Center;

The Stamford Community Council, the Stamford Community Chest, the Fairfield County Commission on Alcoholic Studies, the Labor-Management Citizens Committee and the Alfred Dater Council, Boy Scouts of America.

He is also a member and former financial secretary of the Baptist Ministers' Conference of greater New York and vicinity, vice-president of the Lott Carey and an executive committee member of the same organization.

He is on the Board of Managers of the Connecticut Baptist Missionary Union; a member of the Suffield Academy faculty for the Connecticut Baptist Convention; and a trustee of the Connecticut Baptist Union and of Northern university.

He is also Commissioner of Housing for the Stamford Town Housing Authority.

Mrs. Kearse Active

The wife of Dr. Kearse, the former Miss Marjorie Johnson, is a graduate of A. and T. College, Greensboro, N.C., and a native of Stamford.

She was one of the soloists in the famed choir of the North Carolina institution directed then by Warner Lawson, now dean of the Howard University School of Music.

During the war Mrs. Kearse travelled overseas with Red Cross service, and for more than a year was in India.

She is president of the Fairfield County Chapter, Jack and Jill, and a member of the board of the Stamford Community Council.

PTA Workers

Both Dr. and Mrs. Kearse are active in the PTA activities of the New Canaan County school in which their son, Skipper, is enrolled as a student.

In addition to their 5-year-old son, they are the parents of a daughter, Debbie, who is 2½ years old. They will live in Baltimore at 3515 Holmes ave.

Fortunately not many people indulge in the one-way, drawn-out telephone conversation. Most people on a party line keep their conversations reasonably short so they won't miss important calls. And they space their calls and give up the line quickly in an emergency. Because they are considerate of their neighbors, everyone on the party line gets better telephone service.
