Automobile Accidents.

Carroll Wooleghan, the rural mail carrier from Chesapeake City, was thrown through a barbwire fence on the State road between Chestertown and Kennedyville on Sunday, when the automobile in which he was riding ran into a bank. F. P. Correy, of Chesapeake City, who was driving, to avoid running into another car applied his emergency brake too quickly. Mr. Wooleghan was severely cut by the barbs.

Mr. John P. Ahern's Ford car was considerably damaged on Sunday near Locust Grove, by a side on collision with a Hupmobile owned by a stranger. No one was hurt, but the cars were somewhat damaged.

Mr. William Ray, an employe of the telephone company at Chestertown, lies at the home of Mrs. Perry Cranor with two broken ribs, a badly cut eye and other injuries as a result of colliding with a team near Easton Saturday night at about 8 20. He was taken to Easton Hospital, but later brought home.

Messrs. Isaac Gibbs and Earl Gitt, while coming from Easton on the former's motorcycle Friday, had a narrow escape when a few seconds after coming down Brown's Hill, near Church Hill, the rear tire "blowed out." Mr. Gibbs, who was driving the motorcycle, put the brakes on and checked it somewhat, but it finally threw them to the road, both escaping, however, with only minor injuries, such as bruises, etc., about the legs and arms. Had the accident happened a few seconds sooner, when descending the hill, a bad accident would probably have been the result.

Anthrax has again broken out in Rich Neck, Queen Annes county, across the river from Chestertown. Five mules and cows died last week. Mr. W. Irving Walker lost a cow last week and has another cow sick. Mr. Charles McKee lost two mules, while Mr. Robert Brown lost one cow, and Mr. Seney lost a mule.
