Jewish New Year.—The Jewish New Year began on Wednesday, and Hebrews from all parts of the world are observing the occasion as one of the most solemn religious events of the year. All places of business have been closed during the holidays, and the event is being observed in the most solemn manner.

Mr. Brown Drops Dead.—Mr. J. K. Brown, the prominent undertaker, living in Church Hill, dropped dead on Thursday on the street in that town. Heart failure is believed to have been the cause of Mr. Brown's sudden death. The deceased was well-known throughout Queen Anne's county and had many friends here, who sympathize with his family in their affliction.

Arranging for Two-Day Meet.—The management of the Kent and Queen Annes fair are endeavoring to arrange for a two-day race meet at Radcliffe Park the first week in November, which is the week immediately following the Easton fair. Two hundred-dollar purses will be offered, and President Beck and Secretary Jarrell were at Wilmington fair on Thursday interviewing horsemen in regard to bringing their horses here. Mr. Beck saw Mr. Snedeker, trainer, and Mr. Eckhart, owner of Peter Stevens, the great racing wonder, who will be raced to a world's record over a half mile track this fall, and it is probable that the great pacer may try for the world's record at the meet here in November. Fuller particulars later.

The farmers of the county are losing hundreds of chickens from limberneck. This disease is caused by eating mouldy or tainted food, and can easily be prevented if care is exercised in feeding.

Work on the new school building at Kennedyville has been stopped, owing to a disagreement between the committee and the contractor regarding some provisions of the contract. A satisfactory adjustment will shortly be made, and the work of completion will be pushed rapidly.

Maud Smith, 3 years old daughter of Mrs. Celina Smith, was sent by parcel post on a 40 miles journey recently through the mountains of Kentucky to the bedside of her mother, who is ill in Jackson, Kentucky. The package arrived in fine condition, though the ride through the mountains was very chilly.

Resident Eegineer Gault Applegarth advises us to say that if the farmers and residents along the State road from Georgetown to Centreville will cut the weeds and brush along the roadside the State Road Commission will rake them up and burn them free of charge. The State Road Commission has no authority beyond the 14-ft. line, and they are very anxious to have the road looking nice, and all that is needed is a little co-operation on the part of the property owners and farmers.

The ladies of Chestertown and vicinity are earnestly invited to meet the executive committee of the W. C. T. U. at the Rest Room on Wednesday, Sept. 15th, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of organizing a union in Chestertown. Knowing that the women in the churches and in the homes desire the advancement of our county in all that is pure, true and good, and that they are longing for the overthrow of intemperance, we make this appeal to them so that by strong and united action more effective work may be accomplished. At 10.30 o'clock an executive meeting will be held. All county officers and superintendents are urged to be present.
