'First Run' Films of The Week in Review

"GUN FURY" IS MET FEATURE

Terror, tension and suspense in three dimensions, hold the upper hand in Columbia Pictures' "Gun Fury," new outdoor action drama that reaches fever-pitch excitement in its opening at the Met Theatre. Filmed in color by Technicolor, the unusually strong offbeat story stars Rock Hudson, Donna Reed, Phil Carey and Roberta Haynes.

"Gun Fury" gets off to a galloping start when the forthcoming idyllic marriage between Hudson, a Civil War veteran, and Miss Reed is rudely shattered by Carey, a lustful killer who abducts the girl and leaves Hudson seemingly dead.

Hudson embarks on a lone pursuit of Carey and the girl, but he is eventually joined by a member of Carey's band left to die in the pitless Arizona sun; an Indian whose wife the outlaw has slain, and Miss Haynes, the Mexican spitfire. Carey has thrown over for Miss Reed.

NEW BOB TAYLOR FILM AT REGENT

An arresting romantic triangle with brother pitted against brother, a bloodcurdling ship's mutiny, a spectacular whale hunt in which a boat is crushed like a match box, an attack by island savages, the devotion of a native girl to a white man — these are the action highlights of M-G-M's turbulent and excitement - packed Technicolor drama "All the Brothers Were Valiant," current attraction at the Regent Theatre.

Robert Taylor, Stewart Granger and Ann Blyth are the stars of this compelling film version of Ben Ames Williams' best-seller novel of thrills and adventure on a whaling expedition.

LOUIS HAYWARD IN NEW ALBERT FILM

Louis Hayward is always at his best in fast - paced adventure films. He has one of his best roles of this type to date in Allied Artists' The Royal African Rifles," an exciting action drama in color now playing at the New Albert Theatre.

Hayward's part is that of a young lieutenant in the British navy, ordered to recover stolen Vickers machine guns intended for delivery to a British regiment in British East Africa.

Co - starred with Hayward in this production is Veronica Hurst, lovely young English actress who was brought to Hollywood to star with Richard Carlson in Allied Artists' first three dimensional picture, "The Maze."

"COLUMN SOUTH" AT THE HARLEM

Universal - International's Technicolor "Column South," now playing at the Harlem Theatre, brings to the screen the action - packed drama of life on a U.S. Cavalry post prior to the outbreak of the Civil War.

Audie Murphy stars as a young cavalry lieutenant, fighting to keep peace between the Indian tribes whom he knows and understands and the settling forces of the new frontiers.

Joan Evans is seen as the headstrong sister of Murphy's company commander, who mistakes his peaceful intents for cowardice, and Robert Sterling is cast as the Mississippi-born U.S. Army captain, torn between his duty to the Army and loyalty to the Confederate States.

Western thriller on Royal screen

One of the most exciting and bloody periods in the history of the great Southwest provides the background for the Royal's action-drama, "Thunder Over The Plains," opening Xmas Day for one week and starring Randolph Scott with Lex Barker and Phyllis Kirk in top roles. Filmed in Warner Color, "Thunder Over The Plains" takes place in a colorful period when the post-Civil War tensions were at their peak and lawlessness was rampant.

Randolph Scott enacts a Union Army officer charged with keeping law and order in the territory, although his sympathies are strongly with the Southerners and against the unscrupulous carpetbaggers from the North.

Added featurette "Black Fury" is the story of Nature's Most treacherous Swampland.

QUALITY and TASTE!
That's why LIONEL HAMPTON says:
"MAKE MINE MANISCHEWITZ KOSHER WINE!"
First in many respects, and outstanding in all, it's only natural that Lionel Hampton was one of the earliest discoverers of MANISCHEWITZ Kosher WINE.
Quality, recognized the country over, plus the richly satisfying, long-reveal grape taste that makes MANISCHEWITZ the natural choice of discriminating wine lovers.
And, there's no more discriminating taste in the world than your own. Have you bought a bottle of MANISCHEWITZ lately?
MANISCHEWITZ is available in Fruit Wines as well as Grape Wines, all sweetened with excess sugar.

Season's greetings extended by NAACP

The Baltimore NAACP desires to thank its thousands of members and friends and would - be members for their fine support during the year 1953.

There are six cases pending in the Baltimore courts Mergenthaler, Western High, Sandy Point state park, city swimming pools, Fort Smallwood municipal park and a taxicab case.

We hope that in 1954 the Supreme Court will rule against segregation in public schools, and that the New Year will be a happier one. SEASON'S GREETINGS.

(Mrs.) LILLIE M. JACKSON, president;
(Mrs.) MARY E. HAWKINS, secretary

ALONG THE AVENUE

To all the readers of "Along the Avenue" here's a wish for a very Merry Christmas.

Most of the clubs are taking steps to insure that this wish comes true by scheduling some of the finest entertainment ever to grace a holiday season in Baltimore.

CLUB TIJUANA is presenting one of the nation's top saxophonists in the person of Charlie Parker, who recently won a poll in the all star band of Down Beat magazine.

Supporting Parker is a four-piece band that features some of the finest musicians ever to fit made its debut last Tuesday in this fair town. The outday and since that time has been drawing record crowds to the popular spot.

Part of the popularity of the TIJUANA is due to the fine staff which spares no effort in making the customers feel welcome. Serving as waitresses are Willie Mae Langley, Edith Harrelk, Claire Mitchell, Rosetta Hurt and Naomi Harris.

On the bar are Sylvia Kelson and Cloie Hawkins, and in the check room are Ann Broady and Verlin Hitchcock.

Mr. Parker will close out his present engagement on Sunday and on Tuesday Milt Buckner will take over the spotlight.

A few steps up the street from TIJUANA is the CROSSROADS, one of the newer and nicer spots in town. Under the direction of Rick Cummings, assisted by Red Harris, who formerly managed another local spot, the CROSSROADS has become a meeting place for nightlifers.

The club contains two bars manned by some of the prettiest bar maids in town. Those include Hazel Hardy, Margaret Valentine, Dressie Murray, Bernice Gayles.

The Dixon brothers at the COMEDY CLUB are currently presenting Red Prysock, who rates near the top on the list of top saxophone players.

THE CLUB CASINO is offering the music of Chris Powell and his Blue Flames.

At CLUB 1017 its the music of Marlene Morris and [illegible] TLE WILLIE'S, Druid Hill ave. and Whitelock st., there's m[illegible] by Henry Baker.

Hi-Y dubbers make caps for veterans

NEWMAN, Ga. — The 10th grade class of the H. Warner high school presented a Christmas play, under the direction of Mesdames F. R. Harris and C. M. Gordon, Wednesday in the school auditorium.

The Warner high school Tri-Hi-Y club is making 100 caps and place mats for the local Red Cross chapter to give to the Veteran's Administration hospital Tuskegee, Ala., for presentation to veterans there at their New Year's ball.

Those persons who might like to help the Tri-Hi-Y club in its drive to donate clothes to the needy may contact the club advisor, F. R. Harris, by phoning either 855 or 897.

PTA Santa to Korean school kids

ATLANTIC CITY — Officers and members of the PTA of the New Jersey Avenue School are doing something extra special this Christmas — soliciting clothing and supplies for Korean school children.

The appeal came to the parents and teachers from Joseph Hope a graduate of the school who is now in Korea with a medical unit of the U.S. Army.

He requested the PTA to solicit the supplies and clothing to assist Korean children attending a school established by his unit in a village davastated by the war.

Baltimore soldier with airborne unit

Sgt. Lee R. Oliver of 407 N. Fulton ave., is continuing his army career with the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg, N. C.

As a member of the 82nd, Sgt. Oliver will receive advance training in military tactics and participate in training exercise and maneuvers held by the division throughout 1954.

He is the son of Mrs. Emma L. Thornton of Baltimore, served in Korea with the ninth Field Artillery, and he has the Korean Service Medal and he United Nations Ribbon.

Sgt. Oliver attended Frederick Douglass high school before entering the Army and was employed by the Wayside Market as a clerk.
