WE HAVE met the enemy and they are not ours.

EVERYBODY has been busy since the election explaining how it happened. It happened all right.

The Anti Organization forces are good losers and they may be depended upon to support every man on the Democratic ticket.

A CHANCE of 80 votes in Kent county would have nominated every man on the Anti ticket, notwithstanding the tremendous odds against them.

THE Democratic State Convention will be held in Baltimore on Thursday next, Sept. 24, and the Republican con- will be held the day following.

nti Organization carried five of districts in the county and yet The organization nominated by heavy majorities in the ith.

A SPECIAL dispatch to the Baltimore City News from its Chestertown correspondent on Tuesday evening stated "The result of the vote in Kent is in doubt. The doubtful vote will decide it." And it did.

IS IT not a shame that the Antis carried the Second, Third, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and the Galena precinct of the First, and then got beat? It remains for the Antis to stand together man to man, and the day will come when the right will prevail.

MR. GEORGE R. GORSUCH, of Baltimore, was chosen as the gubernatorial candidate of the prohibitionists in Baltimore Tuesday. Also N. J. Gressit, of Baltimore, attoney general; T. E. Watkins, of Mt. Airy, near Baltimore, for Comptroller.

IT WAS a dead cinch for Roads Chairman Weller in Kent. Col. Wm. J. Vannort, one of the delegates to the Republican State Convention, is to be congratulated upon the flattering vote he received in the first precinct of the Fourth District. Out of 135 votes cast Col. Vannort received 134.

THE TRANSCRIPT has won an enviable position as a result of the primary contest. It has fallen to our lot to elect the ticket in November, and believe us, we shall do it. But after that we rise to the still more enviable position of going after business and pleasure and letting the game of politics wait awhile. It is the other fellow's job to play the game 365 days in the year now.

MR. CHARLES L. DODD owes his nomination absolutely to the majority he received in his home district. His majority over Mr. Hadaway in the county is 156, exactly the majority he received in Chestertown. In the rest of the county their vote was a tie. That is practically the comparison between other candidates, notably Beck and Morris.

A STRANGE coincidence occurred in the voting in Wicomico county on Tuesday. Mr. Toadvine, candidate for clerk of the court, died suddenly on Monday—just the day before the primaries—and his name appeared on the ballot. He was nominated, though dead. An interesting legal question is involved in the circumstance.

MR. W. B. COPPER, candidate for comptroller on the Lee ticket, carried his home county by a very flattering vote, receiving a majority of 291 in the county and polling the largest number of votes of any man on the entire ticket. Mr. Copper is one of the most popular men in this county, and we know of no one who wears his defeat in a more philosophical and genuinely democratic manner than does Mr. Copper. Mr. Copper made a phenomenal run throughout the State losing the nomination by only 12 votes in the State convention. He is to be congratulated upon his most excellent showing, and he is a factor in future politics seriously to be reckoned with.

KENT IN HARRINGTON LANDSLIDE

The Organization Forces in Kent, Aided by John Walter Smith Influence and the Smith Machine Run Amuck and Sweep the State Contrary to Expectation of People.

BALTIMORE CITY DIVIDED AGAINST ITSELF.

COPPER MADE FINE RUN FOR COMPTROLLER.

It is putting it mildly to say that the great majority of the people were not only greatly surprised, but really shocked at the result of the primary throughout the State on Tuesday. So far as the Republicans are concerned the contest was too one sided to be interesting and Roads Chairman Weller fulfilled the expectations of his party by walking away with the nomination. With the Democrats the situation was different. A bitter contest had been waged for six months. The people had been impressed with the issues involved in the campaign, and so far as the average man could tell there seemed and, indeed, was, a great preponderance of public sentiment throughout the entire State for the nomination of Senator Lee. Indeed this sentiment was so pronounced that his nomination was regarded as a foregone conclusion, and it amounted to simply a question of the size of his majority. When the votes were counted, however, to the great amazement of the people there had been a landslide to Harrington and the Lee ticket was overwhelmingly defeated. Not even the Organization rank and file believed that Lee could lose, and many thought that the Anti local ticket would win hands down. Just what is the reason for this unexpected slump is the all absorbing question. There is one thing very certain, and that is that the issues involved in the campaign were not the determining factor in the contest. This is clearly proven by the fact that every Organization candidate on the local ticket was nominated by the vote he received in Chestertown, and had it not been for the unprecedented majorities received here, many of the Organization candidates would have been defeated. This proves conclusively that the county at large is strongly Anti-Organization, while no other reason can be ascribed to the unusual majority for the Organization candidates in Chestertown than that the doubtful vote here was almost absolutely controlled by the Organization forces.

So far as the general result is concerned Mr. Harrington will have 81 votes in the State Convention which meets in Baltimore on Thursday next, September 23. Senator Lee will have 48 votes. For State Comptroller Mr. McMullen will have 76 votes and Mr. W. B. Copper 53. Mr. Copper made a most remarkable run for Comptroller in the face of the tremendous odds against him. He is within 12 votes of enough to win the nomination, and in Harford he was defeated by only 12 votes; in Caroline by 41, and in Wicomico by 48. These three counties would have given Mr. Copper the nomination with a change of only 7 votes of Harford, 21 in Caroline and 25 in Wicomico. Senator Lee carried two districts in Baltimore city and carried eight of the counties.

Of the 23 counties in the State, Harrington carried 15—Allegany, Washington, Carroll, Harford, Baltimore, Anne Arundel, Howard, Calvert, Kent, Queen Annes, Talbot, Caroline, Dorchester, Wicomico and Worcester. Lee carried 8—Montgomery, Cecil, Charles, Frederick, Somerset, St. Mary's, Garrett and Prince George's.

The only counties on the Eastern Shore carried by Senator Lee were Cecil and Somerset. Queen Annes gave Harrington 500 majority and nominated the entire Organization ticket. Four years ago Senator Lee carried Queen Annes by 150 majority. Mr. Harrington not only received a majority of the votes in the State Convention but has a popular majority throughout the State, although the Lee ticket carried Baltimore city by a small popular majority. The result throughout the State is as follows:
