Gadabouting

Ceremony in St. James for Miss Ridout, Dr. Reynolds

With Lula Jones Garret

The chubby old gent with the white whiskers, and the cherub in the triangle pants had their brief moments in the past fortnight's spotlight, but you all the time was that little boy with the bow and arrow, who rode the crest of the waves throughout the furore.

Marie Bourne, of Frederick, Md. swarped about town mere radiant than ever, with an exciting solitaire on her third-finger-left-hand during the holiday. She and Mr. Bourne, Charles Hicks of Annapolis and Frederick, have a spring marriage in mind, when a new home will be readied, I understand.

Sarah Louise White (she's the daughter of Mrs. James A. White and the late Dr. White) wore a sparkler from Rudolph Johnson at the family party, a week ago. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Johnson, a war veteran, a Lincoln graduate and now holds a post as a physiologist at Edgewood Arsenal Army Chemical Center.

They haven't set the date for the wedding, but the family was about including her brother and his bride of nine months, the Randolph Whites (She is the former Cathy Lightborne) of Louisville, Ky., who is the son's uncle and aunt. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson, to hear the announcement.

Sarah, who graduated from Shaw university, is now listed among the Government girls.

At an informal gathering of intimate friends of their home on New Year's Day, Dr. and Mrs. J. Douglass Shepperd announced the engagement of their daughter, Sandra, to Joe Andrew Rhinehart, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rhinehart.

Miss Shepperd is a graduate of the Northfield School for Girls, a June graduate of Howard University, and a student of the Howard University School of Social Work. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta sorority.

Mr. Rhinehart is a graduate of Dillard University of New Orleans, a junior in the Howard University School of Dentistry and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity. An Easter wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Enach Goldar have revealed the engagement of their granddaughter, Maizie E. Johns to Robert C. Hill Jr. The wedding date is set for the month of June.

And Mr. and Mrs. Davis Waters told of the betrothal of their daughter, Sylvia, Morgan State college senior, to Leslie W. Gordy Jr., a senior at Hampton. The wedding date is yet to be set.

And come Friday and Miss Dorothea Savage, town school marm, and Nathaniel Allor will exchange vows.

MISS RIDOUT WED

But on Wednesday, the 30th, Miss Doris Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington A. Ridout, tripped up the aisle of St. James Episcopal Church to become the bride of Dr. Clarence E. Reynolds Jr.

Only members of the immediate families were present for the ceremony.

Father Cedric Mills read the ceremony. William Parrott was the groom's man.

The bride was lovely in a two-piece street-length frock of pebble faille, with matching headdress and shoes, and carrying a mid-nosegay bouquet of pink orchids.

She was attended by her cousin, Mrs. Margaret Beaman, who wore a similar frock in pink, with matching headdress and shoes and carried a nosegay of blue iris.

Dr. Reynolds is the pharmacist of the Johnson and Reynolds pharmacy, and his bride on the faculty of the Thomas G. Hayes School No. 10.

BARNUMS SURPRISED

Charles and Lilla Barnum will have pleasant memories of their 20th wedding anniversary for a long time.

Intimate friends, ascertaining that the formal celebration had been scheduled for the 22nd, sent them gifts at intervals throughout the day: a bouquet of poinsettias and chrysanthemums, ice cream, a cake, and a beautiful tree and well silver platter.

This overwhelming surprise was arranged by Thelma Ashe, Nellie Buchanan, Beatrice Butler, May Fortune, Naomi Hardy, Ethel Hucles, Laura Jones, Noel Wansel and Dallaphine Warrington.

So, on the night after Christmas, the Barnums reversed the sunrise by garnering all of them to their home on the pretense of meeting an out-of-town guest, and held a celebration of the anniversary.

Guests were:

Catherine and Robert Dawson, Ethel and Eugene Payne, Lilla and Edgar Dawson, Alice and Frank Sykes, Matthew Chamberlain, Nathaniel Scott, Hiram Butler, Edward Hardy, Howard Hucles, Leroy Wansel, Thomas Warrington, Jack Fortune and Howard Page.

MONDAY NIGHTERS PLAY

The Monday Niters were hostesses at a bridge party, Monday, given in the club cellar of Mrs. Gloria Phillips, 2004 N. Bentalou st. Early birds received a bonus of 1000 points. Each guest received a gift from the club members.

Lucille Burns won first prize; Jeanne Cummings, second; Louise Robinson, third and Robbie Chissell, third.

Guests included:

Irene Day, Robbie Chissell, Louise Robinson, Jeanne Cummings, Ivy Harris, Ellsworth Rhetta, Gwendolyn Carter, Nicki Randolph, Vivian Pendleton, Shirley Kyle and Elaine Howard.

Hostesses were Cleota Brayboy, Shirley Brown, Grace Burke, Lucille Burns, Louise Harden, Ruth Jennifer, Vashti Matthews, Dorothea Merchant, Emma Michaels, Gloria Phillips, Margaret Proctor, Mary Lou Redd and Eliza Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bass entertained friends at their home recently.

The evening was spent enjoyably by Mrs. Margaret Neal, Mrs. Viola O. White, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper, Perry H. Ward, Mrs. Cora Brown, Wilbet Webb, Mrs. Mary Clayton Frazier, Mrs. Maizie Johnson, Mrs. Vernice Jones; Will McCoy, Melvin Edwards, Mrs. Mamie Gibbs, and Mrs. Lessie Booker.

BARDS' PARTY

Their Calverton Heights apartment was the scene of a swank cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. Mousett E. Beard, New Year Day, for their house guest, Miss Hattie M. Day.

To meet the holiday visitor they had Mrs. Bernice Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Tobin, Mrs. Leroy Waters and Mrs. Cora White of this city; and Mrs. Howard Neal and Miss Muriel Waters of Clinton, N.C.

COWBOY ROUNDUP

Mr. and Mrs. H. Russell Frisby Sr., entertained for their son, H. Russell Frisby Jr. on his third birthday, Monday ago

All of the little guests, in cowboy togs gathered in Russell Jr's rompur room for his birthday round-up, and had a rootin'-tootin' good time.

The cowboys came dressed as their favorite star. They played all sorts of games and saw a film.

They included:

Rudolph Redd Jr., Charles C. Woodland 3rd, Otis W. Sprow Jr., Douglas Parker Jr., R. Clarke Davis Jr., Barton White, Gienford Cummings, Kenneth Weaver, Allen U. Forte Jr., Nar; both and Wayne Johnson and Robert L. Quarles Jr.

Gloria Forte and Gertrude Hughes helped entertain the young "westerners."

The mothers and fathers present included:

Messrs. and Mesdames R. Clarke Davis Sr., Charles C. Woodland 2nd, Otis W. Sprow Sr.;

Mesdames Mary L. Redd, Jeanne Cummings, Evelyn White, Bertha Forte, Helen Quarles, Maude Johnson, Hermoine Weaver, and Bernice Parker.

Others present included Russell Jr's godmother, Mrs. Aloise Holliday; his aunt, Miss Ruth Russell; and his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Frisby.

MISS ANTHONY ENTERTAINS

Miss Elizabeth Anthony held open house on New Year's Eve to members of Baltimore Club of the National Business and Professional Women's Association.

About for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. William A. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Stegman Grieg;

Mesdames Daisy B. Jones, Laurie Parker, Lillian S. Waty, Virgie Wright, Edna Rawlings, Hattie Tilchman, Lena K. Lee, Lessie Brandon, Jessie Valentine and Bernice Moore; and Misses Anna Bennett, Margaret Johnson and Elizabeth Kir of Pittsburgh, Pa.

HENDERSONS HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Henderson entertained with a New Years Eve dinner party at their home on Harlem Avenue.

Those who welcomed the year in were:

Dr. and Mrs. Emerson Julian Jenkins, and Mesdames John White, Cortez Puryear, William S. Hill, Richard Bailey of Connecticut, who was holiday housequest of Mr. and Mrs. William Hill; and Miss Betty Jean McLemore, who was home for the holidays from Rochester University in New York.

VETERAN FETED

And speaking of making the rounds, mention that tour of the high spots made by the Cossocks with their newly returned member, La Curtis Johnson.

Mr. Johnson is home after two years in Germany, and the Cossocks were just about as happy to see him as was his bride, Sunny, from whom the Army had separate him six months after the wedding.

The Cossocks had a dinner party at six p.m. for him at the Tijuana, hit about every night a club in the town, and ended up at about 6 a.m. with breakfast at Rice's Inn.

The hosts included Leroy Jackson, William Jackson, Xandier Randolph, Arthur Roane, William Ringgold, Albert Rice, Thomas Green, James Ross, Charles Bruce and a new member, William Thompson.

G M'S DO THE ROUNDS

When the G. M's (club) had completed their mission of charity, Saturday, (an annual trip to the Craddock Convalescent Home in Halethorpe and the N. M. Carroll Home for Aged, here, to distribute cheer) they did their "Around the Clock" fun tour.

Beginning at noon, they and guests, Mr. Edna White, Mrs. Evelyn Clash and Mrs. Ruth Walker, had brunch with Elizabeth Parker. Went on from there to cocktails and snacks with Wilhelmina Thomas, Beulah Plummer, Gladys Owens, Cora Gibson and Effie James.

Ended up with a real party (husbands and all) in the home of Mrs. James.

At the latter they were joined by Mr. Clash, Wilbert White, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Jones, special guests.

MR. AND MRS. FRANCIS BRABHAM

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Brabham given reception in York, Pa.

The Crispus Attucks Center in York, Pennsylvania, provided the setting for a swanky reception in honor of the marriage of Miss Edna R. Hopkins, until recently of this city, to Mr. Francis L. Brabham, of New York City.

The affair was given by the sister and brother-in-law of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Charms, of York. Since both the bride and the bridegroom were former residents of York, returning for the reception furnished an opportunity for remembering many pleasant childhood memories, renewing old friendships, and making new ones. Mr. Brabham's father, the late Rev. George R. Brabham, was pastor of the Presbyterian church there for a number of years.

Reception Held

The reception took place on Saturday, December 26, and was attended by more than 200 guests and friends of the couple. Mrs. Charms was assisted by Mrs. Russell Chapman, who introduced the arriving guests to the receiving line, composed of the bride and bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Charms, and Mr. and Mrs. Jones, an aunt of the bride.

Others who assisted were Mrs. Helen Thackston, Mrs. Carrie Williams, Mrs. Robert Liggins Jr., and Misses Mary Myers, Leanor and Ruth Ann Williams.

An exception to the rule was added when the bride's uncle, Arthur Hopkins, and two of her cousins, Sandy Liggins and Cpl. Robert Liggins Jr., assisted the bridegroom at the punch table.

Mrs. Brabham, wore a grown of bluish-green taffeta, trimmed over pin tuffets, accented in the back by three tiers of nylon pleated tulle, pink evening slippers, pink lace mitts, rhinestone accessoreis and an orchid corsage.

Miss Violet Banks, of New York City, and a former director of music at Morgan College, sang two numbers, "O Promise Me" and "Because."

Out-of-Town Guests

Out-of-town guest in attendance included:

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall and daughter, Philathea, and Miss Dorothy Darcy of Baltimore; Mrs. Georgie Walker from Philadelphia, Miss Violet Banks from New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winton from Washington, D.C.

Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell from Herford, Maryland, Miss Ruth Ann Williams from Syracuse, N.Y., and Cpl. Robert Liggins, Jr. on leave from the U.S. Air Force.

NO MONTHLY CRAMPS... not even on the VERY FIRST DAY!

Doctors' tests show amazing preventive relief in use of cramps, leg pain, backaches, nervous feelings, even on the first, worst day of the period!

Many women and girls find that the first day of the menstrual period is the most dreaded to bear! It's the day on which those torturing cramps, miserable headaches and dreadful "limp" feelings take their chief toll.

Those sickening feelings may not be necessary at all. No, not even on the first day! In tests by doctors, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stopped or gave striking relief from such functional distress in 3 out of 4 cases! Many women obtained relief for the first time in years!

Surely ... these clinical findings will prove of interest to you!

Note how Pinkham's works! Included in its beneficial action is a "calming" effect on the nerves ... quieting contractions (see glass) that so often cause menstrual cramps and other distress.

New ... relief without pain-deadening drugs!

Scientific and modern in action

You know, of course, how Lydia Pinkham's has benefited many thousands. You have probably thought of trying it for your own racking cramps.

Then act on the basis of modern evidence! Take Lydia Pinkham's regularly. See if your very next period isn't easier ... from the very first day!

Get Lydia Pinkham's (liquid) Compound or the new, improved Tablets with added iron—so convenient to carry and to take. Only size only 59¢.

And remember—Pinkham's is wonderful for functional "hot flashes" and other distress that older women so often suffer during change of life.

—Gadabouting

(a gift from Santa) had friends in for cards, Saturday evening ...well, cards and everything from hors d'oeuvres to dessert.

About were Florence Dennis, Dukye Woode, Harriet Whyte, Vivian Pendleton, Mattie Connor, Lillian Slater, Olivia Dixon (who had just come in from Detroit) Hazel Bailey, Jaqiye Bennett, Ellsworth Rhetta, Hattie Bailey, Elizabeth Hodge and Marjorie Cooper of this town; and Gladys Bazier and Ethel Burwell of Washington.

Vivian, Mattie and Elizabeth took first, second and third prizes in the card game, respectively, with the booby going to Ellsworth; and the pinochle prizes to Cretia, first; Jeanne, second; and Marjorie, the booby.

Hazel and Lillian garnered perfume and handkerchiefs for keeping scores and assisting the hostess. The card prizes were also precious perfumes, with the exception of the boobies, which were china lamb figurines.

MAYERS FROLIC

The "Maters" and their friends rang out the old year with a gala New Year's eve party.

The hostesses, arrayed in stunning cocktail gowns, lead their guests in dancing the "Bunny hop," and "Holy-Pokey."

Mates in town for the affair were: Ina Bryant, Elolse Bright, Mary Carter, Esther Cole, De De Frazier, Ruth Jacobs, Bernice Parker, Bitzie Nickolas, Helena Wright and Jean Taylor.

Sharing the fun were:

Edward Bryant, John Bright, John Frazier, George Jacobs, Bus Parker, Jerome Nickolas, Tim Wright, Bill Taylor, Raymond Hanson, Carol Johnson, Lewis Brown, Florence Terry, Audrey Stewart, Elaine Verley, Lenis Smith.

Messrs. and Mesdames John Wooddard, Harold Kent, Bill Dixon, Leroy Taylor and Jimmy Woodland; and guests: Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Gloster, the Ernest Tennises, the Rudy Wheelers, the Claude Pugsleys and her sister, Mildred, from New Jersey; and the Ed Ewings.

PEREGRINATORS

Next to using a ticket myself, I love Carrie Scott going places. She writes such descriptive letters! Carrie went to New York for the holidays with Morine Jewett, who also had her mother from Durham and Mattie Daye from Washington as house guests.

Back now at her teaching post, Mrs. Scott had a whale of a time, what with dashing from dinner and cocktails with Rufus and Olivia Wright (he's assistant manager of the Riverton homes) and with Grayce and Pike Brown.

Grayce and Pike Brown.

Dr. A. J. Walker and Wilks Peters found the hunting near Oklahoma City, Okla. to their liking. Dollie (Walker) and their son went along for the ride and the holiday with the Walker family, Stopped in East St. Louis, Ill. and Princeton, Ind.

Also Gray went home to Atlanta for the holiday with her parents and sister. Along with her was Helena Hall.

Dr. Ulysses Bourne deserted Frederick, Md. for the glamour of Los Angeles. Charles Williams of Roosevelt, N.Y. (the national salesman for Schenley) in Baltimore this week on that tour of the country. And the Shelton Coles enjoyed the holiday with her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Mason Patterson in Farrell, Pa.

POT-POURI

Get ready to revise your address book.

Already the William Gosnells are enconsed in their recently acquired Gwynn Falls Parkway place, with Verna exercising all of the knowhow and taste in making it a show place. Dr. and Mrs. Ted Phifer are eyeing a Lonewood st. house. With Emily Jones having selected a place on Rosedale, her and William's (Babe) divorce should sail along any day. And Dr. and Mrs. George Pendleton are disposing of their Druid Hill ave. home, thereby presaging a move.

"Tween's a lee that was broken while setting into an automobile at all, but a shoulder and wrist that were fractured in bay home that has slowed down Mrs. James Carter.

They were mighty swank posters that decorated the hall, and a mighty number of balloons released at midnight; there many a bottle of champagne that backed all 50 of their tables, and Hanny Jack and his combo for dancers; and there was the novelty of turning to an old tradition of serving black-eyed peas and ham to 150 enhanced Guardsmen's annual New Year's Eve party.

All of this I know.

But I do not know why the guests deprived themselves of hearing Gill Parks' luscious voice (by all of that noise) when he came to sing "Frankie and Johnny" and "No Other Love." I have a suspicion why they turned their attention to the performance of Lolita Taja in her snake dance.

But I do wish someone would tell me why Veronica Carr threw the contents of her glass straight into the kisser of Alan Blackshaw.

MARTINIQUES SCOPE

Party of last week was, of course, that lush affair in the fabulous Auchenwyle Terrace residence of the Alonza Moores. Mrs. Moore is the Martinique.

The hostesses, and the majority of their guests, wore luxurious lounge wear, and from the floor down where they played cards, to the swash rumous upstairs, where the hot overflowed, they made mighty merry.

There were plenty of surprises in store. For instance, in roles of mixologists, Willie Adams, Lord Jefferson presided, and James Foster, guaranteed their cocktails to be the best of the worst in the city. Lovely in a game, Dr. Bruce Alleyne was cajoled to sing a solo. Mrs. Alleyne willingly obliged as accompanist.

Somewhere during the evening Dr. Paul Jackson, who has a way with the keys, ambled over to the piano and began tinkling. Evelyn Bass passed by, lingered, lifted her lovely soprano in lyrics. Came a judging of costumes. Elizabeth Jones, wearing white Chinese pajamas, garnered the prize for ladies, topped Mrs. J. C. Bailey, a close second, who was stunning in black pajamas with a stand-out peplum. Shirley Diggs won the men's prize for sporting the most unique smoking jacket.

Came dawn the guests, in groups, went up to the dining room for a most delicious, and full breakfast, over which Mrs. Dorethea Foster, Juanita Miller, Philip and Sara Thilpot and Benjamin Hill of Baltimore.

Miss Charlotte Waddy spent Christmas with her grandmother Mrs. Bessie Hodges in Weems County, Va.

Flowers on the alter at Grace AME church on Sunday were placed there in memory of Mrs. Edith Baloate and Mary Fry, by Mrs. Margaret Griffin and Grace Shaw.
