ESTIMATED bridge expenditures by the State Roads Commission includes only $146,000 for Kent county, while Cecil county will receive $392,500. Our delegates in the next Legislature should see to it that Kent county receives her just proportion of the road fund.

THE Baltimore City News published a statement last Saturday to the effect that Col. Albert Sisk, of Caroline county, ... the Smith candidate for Con... succeed Congressman Jesse D. ... fall. But Congressman ...ant a second term. If he ...ay be a different story to ...

...ill be made to induce ...ilson to make at least one ...Maryland during the campaign. It is sincerely hoped that the President will consent to come to Baltimore for one speech, as his very presence in the State in behalf of the Democratic ticket will do much to stimulate public sentiment in favor of the ticket.

THE formal notification of the Democratic State candidates will take place on Monday afternoon next, at the Rennert, at 12 o'clock. After the notification a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee will be held and the campaign will be under full steam. The candidates will tour every county in the State, and big meetings will be held in Baltimore, at which members of the President's cabinet and probably the President himself will speak. Get in line for a big Democratic victory on November 2.

AN interesting thing took place during the past campaign which should be called to the attention of the farmers. Observers will remember that when the campaign was at its height all the signs along the public roads forbidding traction engines to use the State roads were suddenly taken down in order to divert the minds of the voters from the order of the State Roads Commission. But the order has never been reversed, and so far as the traction engine owners are concerned the State roads are of no more use to them now than they were before the primaries.

WE CALL the attention of our voters to the Constitutional Amendments found on page 7 which are to be voted upon at the coming election. The Home Rule and Referemdum amendments are most important to the voters and should be studied very carefully. It is these two amendments which place the governing power absolutely in the hands of the people and will enable them to secure for themselves legislation in which they are most vitally interested without recourse to legislative enactment. Study these amendments and see what they mean to you.

THE Republican party's platform is simply an echo of the Democratic doctrine. Both parties are pledged to identically the same thing, and the whole situation simply resolves itself into a question as to which of the two candidates for Governor the people consider the best qualified from his record to be the Governor of the State, Mr. Harrington or Mr. Weller. With such a condition confronting the State there should be no question of the success of the Democratic party in the election because the party has an overwhelming majority of the affiliated vote throughout the State, and Maryland is normally a Democratic State. And since the question has narrowed itself to a simple choice between control by the Democrats or Republicans, the safest and surest policy for the voters to pursue is to vote the Democratic ticket, because we believe it to be for the very highest interests of the people of the State, morally, politically socially and religiously that the Democratic party control the affairs of our State and National Government.

WHEN you stop to consider the large number of cases that were hurried from Chestertown to Easton hospital for special treatment during the past summer, the urgent need for a hospital in Chestertown is apparent, and now is the time for us to begin to agitate the question, for certainly our representatives in the coming Legislature will interest themselves in securing a State appropriation for its maintenance. Easton hospital is crowded to its capacity, showing the need of such an institution in that section. You know the TRANSCRIPT kept pounding away at the elevated tank and an improved water system, and after thousands of dollars of the people's money had been wasted, the elevated tank has come to be a reality. How many years is it going to take Chestertown to wake up to another urgent need?

PLANKS IN DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The platform adopted by the Democrats in State convention is regarded as a very strong document, and if the candidates will convince the voters of their sincerity and serious intention to carry out the promises of the platform, they will go a long way toward securing their confidence and votes in the election. The platform planks are:

A business administration; abolishment of useless offices and commission.

A revision of the State's financial system on the basis of the budget system.

Curtailment of Legislative expenses.

Abolishment of the fee system.

Amendments to the primary election law which will do away with the envelope system and substitute, therefore, the Australian ballot system strengthening the Corrupt Practices Act.

Home rule for the city and counties.

Further improvement of State Roads.

A conservation commission which includes the consolidation of the Fish Commission, Shellfish Commission, State Fishery Force, State Game Warden and State Board of Forestry.

Advancing the Agricultural interests of the State.

THE INDORSEMENT OF WILSON.

The friends of President Wilson in Maryland are not pleased with the failure of the Democratic State Convention to indorse the President for renomination. If the convention could "most enthusiastically indorse the able executive administration of our national affairs by President Wilson" it should have been willing to have given him an enthusiastic indorsement for a second term as did the State Convention of Kentucky a week previous. The matter was left to Senator Smith, just as he intended it should be, in order that he may be able to play the same game in the next National Convention that he did in the one of 1912. And here is where the friends of President Wilson throughout the State want to be on their guard. A systematic effort should be made to force the nomination of a delegation to the National Convention pledged to the nomination of President Wilson, because the overwhelming sentiment in the State and throughout the nation is for Wilson. There should have been no equivocation about this matter in the State Convention. President Wilson should have been given a ringing indorsement for renomination and election, and it would have been given in no uncertain terms had Senator Lee been in control of the convention.

BULL MOOSERS HESITATE.

Not Quite Ready to Indorse G. O. P. State Convention Called.

Maryland Bull Moosers are not quite ready to say whether they will support the Republican ticket nominated last Friday or whether they will put a ticket of their own in the field. They want a little more time to think things over.

A conference of the Progressive party was called for Monday afternoon at the Roosevelt Progressive Club, on Saratoga street, Baltimore, but the meeting was adjourned to the offices of Charles J. Bonaparte, where it was held behind closed doors. The general opinion of those present was that it would be futile to name a State ticket this year and that, while clinging to the Progressive faith, it would be well to support the Republicans.

A State convention "for consultation" will be held at the Hotel Rennert on the evening of October 5, at which the leaders of the party from all over the State are expected to express the sentiment of their communities as to the advisability of naming a ticket. It is generally understood, however, that no ticket will be named.

Dr. Watt to go to Oakland.

Rev. Robert Watt, D. D., of Smyrna, Del., Superintendent of Easton District, was recently elected on the first ballot at the board meeting to represent the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension at the General Committee which meets in Oakland, California, in November. The function of this committee is to make appropriations for the work in the United States and Insular possessions also, which include Hawaii, Porto Rico, Alaska, etc.

Worton Grange Notes.

The meeting of Still Pond Grange was held in the Grange room last Saturday afternoon. The business meeting was called at 3 o'clock. It was voted to begin the regular weekly meeting for the winter. After the supper, which was served at 5.30 very pleasant social evening was enjoyed by the grange and visitors. The meeting will be called this afternoon at 2.30. Every member is requested to be present so that arrangements for the fall work can be made.

Mr. Simon Grollman, farmer and canner at Worton Point, Kent county, last week in the United States District Court applied for the benefit of the bankruptcy law. His liabilities are set out in the schedule at $33,648,71 and his assets $27,450. Mr. Grollman's failure is said to be due to the fact that he planted 125 acres in tomatoes and that it was a total failure.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Benanna Russell, widow of the late T. Waters Russell, died at her home on High street, on Wednesday morning, after a lingering illness, aged 75 years. Mrs. Derrickson was one of the oldest women in the lower section of the county, being in her 85th year, and was loved and respected by all who knew her. Funeral services were held in St. Paul's Church on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the rector, Mr. Dickinson. Interment in St. Paul's cemetery. Undertaker Casey Bros., of Rock Hall, had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Joel and Lewis Smith, Wm. T. Jones, Howard D. Rees, Wm. M. Hadaway and Walter H. Hadaway, Jr.

MRS. MARY A. HEDGES.

Mrs. Mary A. Hedges died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Anna B. Greenwood, at Betterton, on Tuesday night last, after a long illness of stomach trouble, aged 58 years. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Charles Trott, and two neices, Mrs. Gresnwood and Mrs. John Owens, of Betterton. Funeral services were held at her late residence on Friday morning at 10 o'clock, the Rev. Ransom P. Nichols, officiating. Interment was in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arragnements.

RODERT MACKEY.

Robert Mackey, former Sheriff of Cecil county and a farmer of the Fourth election district, dropped dead on Tuesday at his home at Blake. He had been in poor health for some months. Mr. Mackey was a native of Cecil county and was 78 years of age. For many years he was prominent in Democratic polities. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Sue Mackey, and three sons, ex-Sheriff, Harvey H. Mackey, Cecil county; Jarrett Mackey, of Oxford, Pa., and D. Clinton Mackey, of New York.

Next Sunday, October 3rd, the Holy sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered at the Presbyterian churches of Georgetown, Kennedyville and Worton. At this time also a sermon will be preached on, "The Christians Sabbath." Because of the teaching of a certain sect the belief of some has been severely shaken. They are wondering which day ought to be observed as the sabbath, Saturday or Sunday. All Christians should come and listen to the above sermon in order that the belief should be confirmed. All who are not christians and those who are wavering, should come and have their doubts removed. All who have accepted the teaching that Saturday is the Christian sabbath will come because they desire to hear both sides of this great question.

The Presbytery of New Castle will meet at Green Hill church Wilmington on October 4th.

The Sunday school at Georgetown is now organized. All of Fredericktown and Georgetown are cordially invited. Let each one bring another, and let us have a growing and happy family.
