Chestertown M. E Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, Oct. 17, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by Rev. E. H. Dashiell 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school and pastor's Bible class; 7 to 8 P. M., Epworth League song service and preaching by Rev. E. H. Dashiell. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7.30. To any or all these services the public is invited.

Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett will preach in Caroline Street M. E. Church, Baltimore, to-morrow.

Bishop Adams will preach in Emmanuel Church to-morrow, Sunday, Oct. 17, at 7.30 o'clock.

Rally Day was observed in Christ M. P. Church and Sunday School last Sunday. The pastor Rev. Dr. Graham preached appropriate sermons morning and evening, and a fine program of recitations and special music with orchestra accompaniment was rendered in the Sunday school. Masters Spencer Smith and Allen Stradley and little Miss Lillian Sheets gave excellent recitations and the special musical program prepared by the Board of Publication was well rendered. It was also the monthly missionary day, the collection amounting to $31. Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard's class won the banner with a collection of $9 and the presentation was made by Miss Mayme Thompson in a beautiful speech. Handsome souvenirs were distributed to everyone present.

The Maryland State Sunday School Convention will meet in First Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore, Tueaday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 19th, 20th and 21st. Prominent Sunday school leaders will be present. The program has been so arranged that practically every phase of work will be discussed. All departments will be taken care of in conference periods where problems may be presented and helpful advice received.

The next session of the Maryland Annual Conference Methodist Protestant Church will be held in West Baltimore M. P. Church, Baltimore next April.

Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham attended an important Church committee in Baltimore this week and also the session of the Board of Ministerial Education in Pittsburg, of which he is a member.

Mr. Wright goes from Stewartstown to Georgetown, Rev. Jones from Clayton to Stewartstown and Rev. Wm. N. Sherwood will be sent to Clayton.

Sunday evening at Worton Presbyterian church, at 7.30, Mr. Clews will speak on the latest juggling of scripture by a certain sect, which has been very active of late in the community. One of the good people of Worton recently handed to him a book, entitled: "Bible Footlights," which he is told is used by the above sect as a text book. He will show how delusive this book is, and how, because of the scripture quoted throughout its pages, the people are deceived. Seventh Day Adventists are specially and cordially invited to this service.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Services on Sunday, Oct. 17th, and preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sunday school at 2.30 P. M. Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday evening 7.30 o'clock.

Fairlee Notes.

Rally Day was observed in Salem M. E. Church on Sunday night and was well attended. The program rendered by the school was well done. Gold pins for perfect attendance were presented to Pauline and Mildred Hoyle, Raymond Sparks and Malcon Barnes by the pastor. Rev. Frank White, of Cordova, who is visiting his father, the pastor of the church, made an address. Preaching Sunday by the pastor at 10.45 A. M. and 7.30 P. M.

Mrs. Edgar Rice, who has been spending sometime with her mother, Mrs. Ward, left on Tuesday morning in company with her husband for her home in Oklahoma.

Mr. Albert Lewis, who is ill in the Easton hospital, is somewhat improved.

Mr. Hoyle, our village blacksmith, is having the finishing touches put on his new residence and will occupy it in the near future.

Mrs. Skirven has improved her property by a new fence, cement pavement, etc.

The new firm of Bramble, Kilbourn & Noland, are putting in a very attractive stock of new goods in their store.

The ladies of Fairlee and vicinity are preparing for their annual bazaar and supper, which will be held on the 22nd of October, and they expect it to be the very best ever yet held.

The fall rally of Union M. E. Sunday school will be observed in Worton next Sunday P. M. at 2 o'clock.

W. C. Loses.

The first six minutes of play in Saturday's foot-ball game with Western Maryland at Westminster proved the undoing of the local collegians and they lost by the score of 9 to 0. A touchdown and a goal from field by Western Maryland turned the trick. From the kick-off the home team plough through Washington almost at will and soon had nine points to their credit. After that, however, saw a change in the game, with Western Maryland completely on the defensive, with Washington hammering at them continually. Twice during the second half Washington came near scoring, having Western Maryland's s[illegible]y defence back of their own go[illegible] but each time they failed to score.
