Betterton Meeting

To the Democratic Voters:

There will be a meeting of the Democratic Voters of the Second Precinct of the Third Election District in the Moving Picture Parlor at Betterton,

Saturday Afternoon, October 23d, at 3 o'clock P. M.

It is to the interest of the Democratic party of Kent county that all Democrats get together in their precincts that an active fight may be put up on the day of election.

At this meeting on October 23rd HON. JOSEPH ADDISON, of Prince George's county, and others will address the voters, after which steamed and raw oysters will be served on the shore.

Come down and bring your friends.

COMMITTEE:

W. Clarence Crew	Capt. E. M. Taylor
Arthur H. Brice	Clarence Newsome
Harvey B. Moore	John H. O. Stokes
W. I. Robinson	Walter B. Harris
Horton Silcox	Horace F. Brice
Henry B. Price	James T. Crew
John Brice	Wm. T. Money
James M. Sutton	Floyd Crownhart
Ernest C. Briscoe	Charles R. Crew

CONDITIONS throughout the State point to a Democratic victory at the polls in November.

IT is not good politics for our Republican friends to be ringing the changes on trick ballots. The Republicans are just as guilty of trickery as the Democrats, and it is foolish for them to raise the issue of trickery.

IT developed last week that one of the first steps Congress will be asked to take in strengthening the country's defenses will be to make an appropriation with which to start immediate work upon the mammoth fortress to be erected at Cape Henry, Va., for the protection of the Chesapeake Bay, Washington and Baltimore from a hostile fleet.

Republican Campaign Canard Nailed.

To the Democratic Voters of Kent County:

Some of the Republican candidates are saying that if the Anti-Organization candidates had won, that some of us would support the Republican ticket.

This is absolutely false, and we defy any responsible Republican to name a single candidate, or any prominent Organization voter, who ever made any such statement. We have always declared openly that we would abide by the decision of the Democratic voters and give our hearty support to the nominee, whether he be Anti or Organization, nor have we heard any of our friends speak otherwise.

We are Democrats and ask the support of all, without regard to faction.

The Republicans have no chance to win except by Democratic votes, and are trying to get these necessary votes by wilful misrepresentation. Don't be mislead.

Wm. W. Beck,
Candidate for Senator.

George W. Sutton,
Candidate for Reg. of Wills,

Howard Turner,
J. Robert Lewis,
Candidates for Legislature.

J. Thomas Hadaway,
Candidate for Sheriff.

Harrison W. Vickers,
Candidate for State's Attorney.

Leonard Wilson,
G. Richard Rasin,
George H. Cannan.
Candidates Co. Commissioners.

Charles L. Dodd,
Candidate for Clerk.

Dr. Edward A. Scott,
John H. Simpers,
J. Henry Thompson,
Candidates Orphans' Court.

C. Frank Crow,
Candidate for Treasurer.

PRESIDENT GOODNOW, chairman of the commission appointed by the Democratic State Convention to reorganize the State government, has accepted the honor, but indicates that the matter of abolishing useless offices, etc., will be put squarely up to the Legislature.

WOMAN'S suffrage suffered a severe defeat in New Jersey on Tuesday. Not a county in New Jersey, except Cape May county, gave a majority for suffrage, and not even the President's vote could stem the tide in his own precinct. We believe, however, the day will come when the women of the country will be accorded the vote.

THE ticket to be voted in the coming election is one of the largest ever used in this county, and the Democrats should use every precaution to learn how to mark and fold his ballot before he goes to vote. Don't put any dependence upon the inability of the colored voter to mark the ballot. He'll deliver the goods where many a Democrat will fail.

THE election is just one week off from next Tuesday. The Democrats are taking things easy, apparently confident of a victory at the polls. On the other hand the Republicans are working day and night, and are leaving no stone unturned to elect their ticket. We warn the Democrats of over confidence. It behooves the candidates to get busy and arouse some enthusiasm in the voters. It is not well to be too confident. The shoe may be on the other foot the morning after.

DAN CUPID is commander-in-chief of the administration forces in the White House. He seems to have made an annihilation campaign down there, and by the first of January, there will scarcely be one lone person in the White House to carry aloft the banner of single blessedness. The President is to be married; his only unmarried daughter, Miss Margaret, is to be married; Miss Wagner, the social secretary, is to be married, and Dr Grayson, the President's naval aid, is a victim. At the approaching session of Congress a bill should be passed to erect a fort at the entrance to the White House to protect it against future attacks of Cupid's army.

THE President of the Maryland Senator and the Speaker of the House of Delegates both having resigned, the State is without a Consitutional successor to the Governonship, and in the event of a vacancy before the convening of the Legislature in January that body would have to be called together in special session. This duty devolves upon the Secretary of State in such an event, which however, has never occured in Maryland. President J. D. Price of the Senate automatically vacated his seat by excepting an election to Congress last year, while Speaker McC. Trippe, of the House, last week resigned to accept a place in the Appeal Tax Court. Thus both houses are without presiding officers.

THE TRANSCRIPT refrains from publishing this morning the details of the calamity which has befallen one of our most highly respected families. Our respect for the feelings of the family impels us to silence, and our high regard for the dear girl who was in our judgment the victim of a sordid and lustful pretended lover, prompts us to open the flood gates of sympathy to the stricken parents and family. They are among the best people in this town, and their worth as citizens rather than their financial standing warrants our sympathetic consideration. But, oh! what a lesson for our young people. Will they heed its warnings? Young ladies be careful of the company you keep. You men, have some consideration for your own and the welfare of the community in which you live, and above all never be guilty of sinking so low as to take advantage of an innocent and defenseless girl to the extent of ruining her life, and bringing a lasting disgrace upon yourself and family. Oh! what can we say of a man who would do a thing of that kind? Better a thousand times that he had never been born.

Improvements to the Snitcher house on Queen street are under way. Two new dwellings will be erected adjoining the property of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Perkins on Queen street. A new bungalow will be erected in Smithville by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Powers.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Bowers spent part of the week in Washington.

Mr. J. E. Ferguson has rented the Phillips farm, near Quaker Neck wharf, and moved there this week. Mr. Ferguson will still conduct the undertaking business. Mrs. Phillips and her mother will spend the winter in Erie, Pa. The Phillips' departure is very much regretted by their many friends in Kent.

Mrs. Mary Beck Roberts has returned home after spending three weeks with her uncle, Mr. George Beck, in Broad Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rudolph Stam are guests of Mr. Stam's mother, Mrs. Annie H. Stam.

We are in receipt of an announcement of the marriage of Benjamin Alvin Johnson, Esq., a former graduate of Washington College, to Miss Ethel Frances Halloway, of Newark, Md., on Wednesday, Oct. 20th. Mr. and Mrs Johnson will be at home after Nov. 1st in Salisbury, Md., where Mr. Johnson is a prominent lawyer. The TRANSCRIPT extends congratulations.

Mr. J. L. Johnson, of Baltimore, visited friends here during the week.

Miss Ada Hurlock returned home Wednesday after quite an extended visit to friends in Clarksville, Howard county.

Mrs. W. H. Waddell, Mrs. Emory Wroth, Mrs. C. N. Satterfield, Miss Flora Wheatley, Miss Mary Knight, Mr. Wm. Vansant and Mr. Owen Smith attended the State Convention of the Christian Endeavor at Easton on Wednesday of this week.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

The Kennedyville W. C. T. U. met at the home of the president on Wednesday afternoon. Arrangements for the serving of meals on election day were completed. The appointments for Sunday, November 21st, of Miss Margaret J. Bilz, of Michigan, a national speaker, are under consideration.

Reports of the recent State convention at Rockville were given. Kent had eight representatives, an increase of five over last year, indicating a greatly awakened interest. Reports showed progress in all departments. There was an increase of over five hundred in membership in the State. 2011 L. T. L. members and 3000 young campaigners are enrolled. At a mass meeting held on the court house green, Rev. F. R Bayley, of Hagerstown, gave a fine address on "Why the Saloon is Going," naming the moral, spiritual, social and economic reasons. At noon on the first day tender tributes were paid to promoted comrades. Kent county union attested its love and gratitude for Mrs. L. M. Corey, Mrs. S. A. Hurlock and Mrs. Lydia Shaw, by making them memorial members of the State Union.

Miss Ida C. Crew, of Kent, and Mrs Tifford, of Cecil, were elected delegates to the national convention at Seattle.
