Hold rites for Bates teacher

ANNAPOLIS — Funeral services for a Bates Hogh school teacher who died Sunday of a heart attack, were held Wednesday.

The body of James Marchand, 59, 2002 West st., was shipped to Baton Rouge, La., after funeral services at the First Baptist church.

Mr. Marchand was head of the Industrial Arts department at Bates, and had taught there for 17 years.

Active Civic Leader

He was a member of the executive board and treasurer of the Parole Health Center and was active in First Baptist church affairs.

Mr. Marchand was also superintendent of the church's Sunday School; leader of the Bible class, chairman of the trustee board and head of the church building committee.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Gaynell Marchand, a son, Judson, and a mother and sister, both living in Baton Rouge.

THREE-STORY HOME

An improved three - story brick apartment at 225 N. Calhoun st., will be sold at a trustee's sale Feb. 11, at 3:30 p.m. A cash deposit of $500 will be required at the time of purchase.

179 new students enroll at Morgan

Two foreign countries represented in group

Approximately 179 new students, including 157 freshmen and 22 transferres, were expected to complete registration at Morgan State college this week for the spring session which begins Feb. 8.

The mid-year freshman class represents 11 states, the District of Columbia and two foreign countries, preliminary figures released by Registrar Edward N. Wilson disclose.

Maryland is most heavily represented with a total of 109. Of this number 98 are from Baltimore. Thirty-seven of the freshmen students are veterans.

Nearly 1,700 Students

Registration of upper-classmen which starts Friday and ends Saturday will probably bring enrollment for the second semester to approximately 1,700, Mr. Wilson estimated.

A total of 1,681 students were enrolled for the first semester.

The trio of foreign students just entering consists of Hyron O. A. Drakes and Robert B. Rogers, British Guiana, S.A.; and Fonseco N. Strachan, Jamaica, B.W.I.

NEW COURSES OFFERED

DOUGLASS EVENING SCHOOL

Thirteen courses aiming at touching specific interests in the community in general have been added to the courses now being offered at the Douglass Evening School.

In the past most of the students have been those seeking high school diplomas in either the commercial or academic field but the new courses will be more general in nature.

A minimum enrollment of 25 will put the following classes in operation:

Needle craft, dramatics, public speaking, general psychology, sociology of the community, choral music, conversational French, conversational Spanish, arrangements of accounting, mental hygiene and psychology of adjustment, great books, vocabulary building and remedial English, and geography.

Registration for the regular academic, commercial, dressmaking, and home nursing courses is now in progress.

Residents of Baltimore can register at the school, located at Calhoun and Baker sts. from 7:45 - 10 p.m. from Monday through Thursday.

PARENTS ENTERTAINED

SCHOOL NO. 139

The 120 pupils who have completed the 5B grade at School No. 139 recently entertained their parents in the school assembly room. Theme of the program was "Reaching for a Star."

On the program were Mrs. Pearl Cole Brackett, elementary school supervisor, and the Rev. W. B. Nash of Waters AME church. The class song was written by Betty McCoy, Lillian Simpson and Drucella Washington.

Special awards and the presentation of diplomas were made by George E. Simms, principal.

The exercises committee included:

Miss Florence Dennis Samuel Beasley, Mrs. Rosie Hutchinson, George Arbold and Mrs. Mildred Cox.

VISIT TO BAKERY

SCHOOL NO. 114

The primary opportunity class of School No. 116 recently visited a local bakery.

The class is studying home life in their social studies. In discussing the kinds of bread used in the home, it was decided that the class should visit the bakery to see how bread is made.

In the group were: Sue Madison, Emma Hendrick, Marie Logan, Margaret Scott, Delores Taylor;

Ida Johnson, Joseph Barnett, Ferris Butler, John R. Butler, William Gaddy, John Green, Ronald Hackett, Andre K. Haney, Melvin Henry, Melvin Kenard, Jerome Watkins, Thomas Jones and William Gray.

The pupils were accompanied by Miss Mozelle F. Jackson, teacher of the class and Mrs. Sarah I. Manns, supervisor of special education.

TO PRESENT PROGRAM

Horace Lancaster, artist and designer, will present a dramatic program to pupils at School No. 157 on Thursday at 10 a.m.

CONSTIPATED?

Then read how Clara Ligon of New York, N. Y., solved her problem!

"Most of the laxatives I tried in the past were either too harsh or too slow! Then I discovered a gentle, speedy Sal Hepatica . . . and now I feel like a new person! It's the best relief I've ever had from constipation.

"Now, if I wake up with that headachy, logy feeling due to constipation, I take Sal Hepatica before breakfast, and get speedy, gentle relief—usually within an hour!"

Yes, take sparkling Sal Hepatica before breakfast and feel fine again . . . usually within an hour. Or take it in the evening one-half hour before supper and feel fine again by bedtime! Sweetens sour stomach, too! So keep Sal Hepatica handy in your medicine chest.
