FINEST HERD IN COUNTRY

John C. Higgins, of Delaware City, Raises Four Guernseys With Butter Fat Records.

In addition to having within its borders the world's greatest laying hen, Lady Eglantine, Delaware is also able to boast of having produced the finest string of Guernsey cows in the country.

The cows were bred by John C. Higgins, of Delaware City, and have averaged more than 800 pounds of butter fat apiece. Their names and registry numbers are:

Jehenna Chene, 30889, A. R. 2,588, with a record of 863.36 pounds of butter fat.

Governor's Pauline, 30472, A. R. 2441, with 844.47 pounds of butter fat.

Princess of the Chene, 304,61, A. R. 2438, with 739.33 pounds of butter fat.

Julie of the Chene, 304,60, A. R. 2752, with the astonishing record, as a fout and a half year old, of 15,174.20 pounds of milk and 827.26 pounds of butter fat, carrying her calf over six months of the time.

The second record of Julie of the Chene, which is a phenomenal Guernsey, further shows a monthly average of between 1,350 and 1,750 pounds of milk and 61 to 99 pounds of butter fat. Her highest yield for a month was 1,750.40 pounds of milk and 99.95 pounds of butter fat.

Nor was there any excessive or abnormal feeding. The daily average for Julie of the Chene was 14 pounds, costing $28 per ton for the mixture, or less than 20 cents a day. Adding "roughage" to this for a year and striking an average gives a total of less than 50 cents per day, or total cost of feeding for a year of $178.81.

On the other hand Julie gave 8,214 quarts of milk, which sold for $821.40, from which should be deducted the cost of delivery. "With these figures," as the Guernsey Breeders' Journal remarks, "it is easy to calculate that a nice profit has been given and that large records pay."

Mr. Higgins is well-known in this county, and he has made a number of sales of fine cattle here.

Pomona Items.

Mrs. W. T. Edwards and Mrs. R. C. Leaverton spent last week in Baltimore.

Mrs. W. J. Maslin spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, of Baltimore.

Miss Mary Toulson, of Baltimore, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Toulson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Crossley have improved their home with a fresh coat of paint.

Mr. Wilmer Brown is very sick with typhoid fever at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark Stoops.

The Phillips farm is rented for next year by Mr. J. E. Ferguson who removed there this week.

Mrs. W. L. Phillips and mother have moved back to Erie, Pa., which is very much regretted by their many friends in Kent; we all welcome Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson.

The school house near "Lover's Lane" was moved this week through Pomona by five traction engines coupled on to it which was quite a curiosity. It is to be put near the entrance of Mr. J. G. Westcott's farm and used for a colored school.
